

3.12 Future Perfect – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/4

1. I'll have finished this exercise by 2 p.m.
2. By 30 June we'll have known the diagnosis.
3. By the time you return from your business trip your office will have been renewed (renovated).
4. Will Vicki have saved enough money before holiday to go to Rio de Janeiro?
5. We won't have fed all the hungry children from the village by evening.
6. Won't the coach have evaluated every disciple when the students complete (have completed) the training course?
7. The environmentalists declare that by then the habitat will have been prepared so that it can accommodate the species.
8. Some worry that the investors will not (won't) have financed (bankrolled/funded) the entire venture before the shareholders go (have gone) bankrupt.
9. The theatre manager assures that by the time of the premiere of their newest production all the actors will have rehearsed their roles thoroughly.
10. Before the participants (partakers) of the gathering raise the toast they will make sure (certain) that their beverage experts will have checked out the quality of the drink.

Ćwiczenie 2/4

1. In February this boy will have been in a coma for half a year.
2. By the end of this year I won't have eaten meat for ten years.
3. On Saturday Henry won't have been at work for three months.
4. At five we'll have known each other for three hours.
5. On the tenth of this month Stella will have had her horse for nine years.
6. At the beginning of the next decade Mr. Pitt will have owned his law firm for half a century.
7. When the social sciences festival is taking place, the reviewed book on how the members of a community can contribute to its long term preservation will have been available for purchase for nine months.
8. Wanda still doesn't work. At the end of December she will have depended financially on her father for a decade.
9. When the artists perform their New Year's Eve concert they will have appeared on stage together for a quarter of a century.
10. In a fortnight, during the board meeting, Bill is likely to figure out why his business won't have been profitable for such a long time.

Ćwiczenie 3/4

1. By evening I'll have made ten dresses.
2. We won't have read twenty books by the end of this term.
3. Will you have found all the errors by the time I come back?
4. How much oil will have spilled in the sea by morning?
5. How many students will the professor have failed by the end of the examination session?
6. When the clock strikes one Betty will have held her breath for two and a half minutes.

7. Won't the researchers have identified all the strains (variants) of the virus by the time the philanthropists are still able to finance their work?
8. In a quarter of an hour the referee will stop the stopwatch and we'll learn how many sandwiches the winner of the competition will have consumed (eaten).
9. It is being estimated that by spring the charity will not (won't) have delivered the humanitarian aid to the region worth a few million dollars.
10. The computer simulation is supposed to show us what percentage of the world rainforests will still have remained on the planet at the end of the twenty first century.

Podsumowanie Ćwiczenie 4/4

1	1. By tomorrow you'll have forgotten about that unpleasant incident. 2. The decorators will have completed painting our house before the weekend.	w określonym momencie w przyszłości, czynność będzie już zakończona
2	3. On Monday Paul won't have had any news from his wife for a month. (On Monday Paul won't have heard (any news) from his wife for a month.)	w określonym momencie w przyszłości, czynność będzie już trwała przez wymieniony w zdaniu okres czasu
3	4. By noon we'll have installed all of the programs for you. 5. On the thirtieth of next month fifty per cent of the firms will have received their due pays.	mówimy w jakim stopniu czynność zostanie wykonana, w określonym momencie w przyszłości