12.3 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od d i e
Część 3/3 Zdania 103a - 146f – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
103a. Victor enthuses about his new girlfriend.	103b. Do you share their enthusiasm because of the victory of our team? 103c. We need more enthusiasts of our ideas.	103d. Rosa enthusiastically reacted to the suggestion of a trip to the mountains.
	104a. It's essential to remember that inexperience may lead some entrepreneurs to make inexcusable errors.	104b. Your entrepreneurial capabilities entitle you to hold the highest managerial posts.
	105a. Our aim is to create the most favourable (favorable) learning environment. 105b. Eventually, the environment will work out the way how to restore the balance (equilibrium) in nature. 105c. The environmentalist entirely agreed with the notion that enslavement is unacceptable.	105d. How many students enrolled on our environmental protection courses? 105e. Are they suggesting the elimination of the environmentally unfriendly goods?
106a. Does Janusz envy Albert his career?	106b. Don't let a pang of envy at his success run away with you.	106c. Why aren't you envious of material wealth? 106d. The artist's perseverance in perfecting his performances is enviable. 106e. Being enslaved to a bad habit is unenviable.
107a. The driver is planning to equal his last year's record this season. 107b. Let's hope one of our players will soon equalize (equalise).	107c. Let's treat everybody present as equals. 107d. How can the rule of equality of opportunity be implemented in practice? 107e. What do severe forms of social inequalities usually cause? 107f. Someone changed a "minus" into a "plus" on	107g. They talked with each other on equal terms, didn't they? 107h. Did Paul feel unequal to the challenge he was facing? 107i. The protester said that eradicating corruption was equally vital for them.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the left side of the equation.
108a. Sophie has to (must) equip herself with a lot of patience.	108b. We're waiting for the new research equipment.	108c. Most importantly, Caroline is equipped with life experience.
109a. It'll be impossible to erase people's memories of that eventful festival.	109b. Is Mike looking for his eraser again?
110a. How long will it take them to eradicate illiteracy?	110b. "Eradication of poverty" was a slogan that sounded as elusive as ever.
111a. What makes soil to erode?	111b. Farmers complain that the desert erosion is developing very fast (quickly).	111c. In what sense was their relationship erosive?
112a. People had been evacuated before the volcano erupted.	112b. Nobody wanted an eruption of an epidemic or social unrest.
113a. The more they escalated the prices the fewer goods customers were buying in their shops.	113b. He should have offered a fair deal and not have talked about the possibility of the escalation of the conflict. 113c. You can take a lift or an escalator.
114a. When did they establish the United Nations?	114b. Does your uncle belong to the local establishment?	114c. Norbert isn't an established athlete (sportsman) yet.
115a. We estimated the losses at over a hundred million euros. 115b. Sometimes we underestimate the fact that family is the most important.	115c. How reliable are, in your opinion, these estimations?	115d. We won't pay such damages because they're overestimated.
116a. First they evacuated women and children.	116b. Wasn't the evacuation ordered (administered) too late? 116c. What is the exact number of evacuees?	116d. The evacuated people found shelter in an old school.
117a. This citizen clearly has an innate talent for evading paying taxes.	117b. Evasion of responsibility is a practice often used by irresponsible individuals.	117c. Evasive explanations given by the alleged expert made the audience distrustful.
118a. Let's try to evaluate the usefulness of (the) new textbooks.	118b. Who will carry out the evaluation of the teachers' work in your school?
119a. To even their		119b. This year Robert will

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

chances the contenders must work in exactly the same conditions and must complete the same tasks.		probably break even in his business. 119c. We had to slow down when we were driving on the uneven road. 119d. The mother evenly divided the sweets between her kids.
	120a. Bill spent an entire week preparing for such an eventuality.	120b. The eventual escape scheme must be inexpensive. 120c. You can eventually choose what you want to do in the future.
121a. Changing environment forces the species to evolve.	121b. The theory of evolution teaches us that the species which succeed in adapting to the changes will survive.	121c. Evolutionary processes are slow but consequent.
122a. Didn't the forester exaggerate when he said that the evil eye paralysed (paralyzed) him?	122b. It would be an exaggeration to say that Konrad is motivated exclusively by greed and selfishness.	122c. Albert seems to have an exaggerated sense of insecurity, doesn't he?
123a. Did the doctor examine your liver?	123b. What is your next exam? 123c. My examiners were very strict.	123d. The examined samples of the water turned out to be contaminated with numerous poisonous substances. (The examined water samples turned out to be contaminated with numerous poisonous substances.)
124a. To their surprise, they excavated the jaws of a dinosaur.	124b. The excavations continued and the archeologists kept discovering ancient objects. 124c. Before they start drilling, excavators will remove thousands of tons of earth.
125a. Thankfully Nina was excepted from the investigation.	125b. Are you ready to make an exception and stop extorting money from those poor peasants?	125c. We had everything to play the game except (except for) the dice. 125d. Your exceptional rationality will help you to find a compromise. 125e. Domesticating this animal was exceptionally difficult.
126a. The experts were	126b. What did Sally get in	126c. The coupons are

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

exchanging their views on how to get out of the crisis.	exchange for the exquisite leather handbag?	exchangeable for goods only in this chain of supermarkets.
127a. Did the teacher explain to you the subject clearly enough? (Did the teacher explain the subject to you clearly enough?)	127b. I expect detailed explanations.	127c. Where did you read about this unexplained phenomenon?
128a. We didn't expect such a big (large) number of refugees.	128b. What is life expectancy for men in your country? 128c. Aren't your expectations regarding (concerning) the height of the salary too big?	128d. Who was this unexpected guest?
	129a. I'm sure we can reduce (lower) our expenses. 129b. The Prime Minister assures that expenditure for education will increase (grow/go up).	129c. This bag is inexpensive and very stylish. 129d. Claudius's wife buys only very expensive cosmetics.
130a. What excites Sabina most about being a correspondent?	130b. What caused the excitement of the crowd?	130c. It was an exciting adventure. 130d. What was Paula so excited about?
131a. Why was this chapter excluded from the textbook?	131b. What were the reasons for the exclusion of the members of the sect from the society?	131c. The team will renovate wooden sculptures in the church, excluding the altar.
132a. Aren't you going to excuse yourself for the mess you've caused?	132b. What excuse did he use for being late this time?	132c. In those circumstances the mistake was excusable. 132d. The clerk was inexcusably rude.
133a. Convicts are not executed in this country, but you can execute a command.	133b. It was an exclusive interview with the senior executive of the corporation. 133c. In another country he could have faced execution for being a traitor. 133d. Which law firm did they choose as the executor of the will? 133e. Who played the role of the executioner in that film?	133f. The boss warned Kuba that if he didn't find a satisfactory solution, his executive power would expire.
134a. While Witek was exhibiting his latest robot we admired his	134b. The exhibition of photographs showing poachers exterminating exuberant imagination.	the animals for their horns exasperated the anguish the visitors felt.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	135a. Some species will survive the mass extinction.	135b. Martha is preparing a catalogue of extinct species.
136a. You exhausted your father with your questions.	136b. The exhaust in Daniel's car doesn't work properly. 136c. Physical exhaustion is sometimes needed for those who work mentally.	136d. After exhausting exercises Helen needed a longer rest. 136e. John thought he'd be more exhausted after the (a) day of hard work. 136f. How exhaustive was the questionnaire?
137a. I didn't know that such creatures exist.	137b. Biologists say that the existence of different microbes is necessary for the functioning of our body.	137c. Clive likes to talk about existential problems. 137d. Why do you claim (say/maintain) that the existing system is wrong?
138a. Think of how to expand and increase enrollment for this new way of learning.	138b. The market itself will prove further economic expansion impossible. 138c. Putting the idea of expansionism aside, the time for a sincere dialogue is now.	138d. What do we do with the excess number of excellent specialists when our business is no longer expandable? 138e. When did you realize (realise) that this expansive policy would eventually cause your descent?
139a. They had been experimenting using a variety of methods until they thought they achieved excellence.	139b. How did the experiment aiming at the extermination of the pests in their garden go?	139c. The students found this extraordinary, experimental material very instructive.
140a. The poet expressed his emotions very accurately.	140b. I'm trying to find a better expression for what I want to say.	140c. Frank's photos are very expressive. 140d. How much will (an) express delivery cost?
141a. Our university will extend the range of (its) departments.	141b. The extent of the destruction horrified us. 141c. Are you planning the extension to the greenhouse?	141d. An extensive search for the missing teenager hasn't brought positive effects yet. 141e. What are the extended opening hours of the workshop?
142a. Why didn't the bomb explode?	142b. Is it known what caused the explosion in the firework factory? 142c. Somebody (Someone) planted explosives in the train.	142d. Michael found an unexploded grenade in the park. 142e. They carelessly dumped the dust which can be potentially explosive into a roadside ditch.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

143a. Don’t expose yourself to low temperatures for too long.	143b. How long did the exposure of the workers to those chemicals last?
144a. Don’t allow them to exploit your talent for their own benefits.	144b. We must (have to) limit the exploitation of natural resources of the earth.	144c. Workaholics themselves choose this exploitative system.
145a. The expedition will explore the bottom of the ocean.	145b. Where will we start our explorations? 145c. Paul has always wanted to become an explorer.	145d. Are you satisfied with the results obtained by the exploratory expedition to Iceland?
	146a. Adam is far too sensible to go to extremes in this particular case. 146b. The lack of the ability to change yourself in face of evidently logical arguments may lead you to extremism. 146c. Beware of the extremists who are reluctant to use extinguishers. 146d. What are the trees Norbert planted at the northern extremity of his field?	146e. Some cope with extreme pressure extraordinarily well. 146f. The extract from this evergreen shrub can be extremely useful.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020