12.4 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od: f, g, h, i
Część 3/3 Zdania 122d - 185c – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
		122d. Doesn't the official claim that imported inventions are invaluable while home-made are insignificant?
123a. That infamous leader first impoverished local population and then was surprised that people stopped idolizing him.	123b. Would you rather choose impoverishment or foreign invasion and life in immorality?	123c. The impoverished indigenous inhabitants of the land began to understand that the damage caused by the immoral incomers was irreparable and changes were inevitable.
124a. After the Spanish course, Max improved his knowledge of the language.	124b. After a series of improvements Philip is satisfied with his prototype.	124c. When will you show us the improved model of your plane?
125a. Will I manage to impress your mother?	125b. The first impression rarely (hardly ever/seldom) misleads Halina. (First impressions rarely (hardly ever/seldom) mislead Halina.) 125c. The painter was an indisputable master of impressionism. 125d. Inner emotions of that impressionist are reflected in his works.	125e. Is an impressionable person more likely to have an inferiority complex about imperfections of their character? 125f. What kind of impressive comments do they expect from their idol? 125g. I'm unimpressed by their threats. 125h. Were you impressed by the professor's competence?
126a. What do you mean by saying that an individual can be imprisoned in a variety of ways?	126b. What if the imprisonment turns out to be ineffective and the ideologist remains invulnerable to corrupt incentives?	126c. Are they sure they can accuse the imprisoned soldier of insanity?
127a. Isn't creativity based on the ability to improvise on	127b. The audience was waiting for another instrumental improvisation	127c. Was that improvised response impartial or subjective?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

the resources that are available at the given instant?	being performed by their idol.
	128a. It was an impulse Marian couldn't resist. 128b. Due (Owing) to the impulsiveness of his character Ed is often perceived as an impolite person.	128c. Maurycy's impulsive temperament is sometimes difficult to bear. 128d. Supermarkets provoke impulse shopping.
129a. We'll still immunize children against tuberculosis (TB) with a vaccine.	129b. Do you have an expert in immunology? 129c. Immunizations don't solve the problem of diseases definitely. 129d. Our specialist maintains that his prior experience was instrumental in his present immunity to (against) all sorts of ills. 129e. Why should anybody enjoy immunity from prosecution?	129f. Barbara would like to know man's immune system better. (Barbara would like to know the human immune system better.) 129g. Being immune to irresistible temptations may be impressive. Isn't however being immune to wisdom and logic inexplicable? 129h. As long as they are the chosen representatives of the nation they may feel immune from being judged for their deeds.
130a. Imagine that you are on the island alone. (Imagine that you are alone on the island.)	130b. Her public image is the same as her private one. 130c. The view over (on) the mountains can inspire (the) imagination, can't it?	130d. This task was unimaginably difficult. 130e. Joanna can design any dress imaginable. 130f. Why are the writer's imaginary stories full of gloom? 130g. Some of his imaginative ideas are worth considering, aren't they? 130h. Unimaginative approach to complex issues might not produce satisfactory effects.
131a. How well does this software imitate the way the man's brain functions?	131b. Have they recorded many instances of imitations of this design? 131c. For a good imitator there are no inessential details.	131d. Once something unique appears there are bound to be imitative products.
132a. No wonder so	132b. The majority of

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

many people immigrated to those rich western countries.	the USA's population are the ancestors of the immigrants or current newcomers. 132c. We can predict the rise in immigration into the developed countries.
133a. Ageing (Aging) usually impairs your vision.	133b. Doesn't Fiona limp due (owing) to the impairment of her left heel?	133c. You can't be impatient when you work with speech impaired children.
	134a. What will happen to the cultural and economic imperialism when the peoples of the conquered states clearly see all its disadvantages? 134b. It's too bad the consecutive rulers were unable to defend their people against foreign imperialists.	134c. An imperial power will exploit and abuse the controlled nation as long as the oppressed people allow it to happen. 134d. It was horrifying to watch how easily they were realizing their imperialistic ambitions by exploiting basic human instincts and deceiving those who chose to trust them.
135a. Gina inclines to the view that everybody should be given a chance to confirm the ingenuity of their good intentions.	135b. Knowing instinctive inclinations of your opponents may help you protect yourself.	135c. Is Martha inclined to introduce some changes in the itinerary of the expedition?
136a. The recovery plan should include the whole range of activities, for instance implant operations.	136b. Inclusion in the team depends on meeting strict conditions.	136c. What healing substances are included in the gas mixture you inhale? 136d. What's the fully inclusive rent for the flat? 136e. The commission has decided that seven companies are ineligible for the state financial assistance, including your firm, I'm afraid.
137a. The incoming data should be incorporated into the final report.	137b. The incontestable fact remains that Patrick should treat the incorporation of the highest moral standards very seriously.	137c. What interior procedures are required for the firm to become incorporated?
138a. Who initiated this relief action?	138b. We appreciate your initiative. 138c. We invited the initiator	138e. Initially, Anna didn't understand what the real intentions of those people of the charity concerts. 138d. We have the same initials.	were.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

139a. You can influence your friend, can't you?	139b. Family has the greatest influence on who you become.	139c. Ian would like to meet a few influential businessmen.
140a. Nobody (No one) informed the artist about the exhibition of his works.	140b. Are your informants reliable? 140c. We still haven't got the information where our reporter is now. 140d. Oliver said (that) he wouldn't become an informer.	140e. This woman's speech was very informative, wasn't it? 140f. You seem (to be) well informed.
141a. Who will install the cable television for us?	141b. The installation of the decorations turned out to be very complicated.	141c. How does the just (newly) installed system on your computer work?
142a. The police are investigating if (whether) the officers neglected their duties.	142b. The official investigation didn't show any wrongdoing. 142c. For this case we need the best investigator.	142d. Let's send one of our investigative journalists there.
143a. I wonder who will inherit the castle.	143b. During the war we tried to secure (the/our) national heritage. 143c. We were waiting for what the heir to the throne would say. 143d. Michael claims that the material inheritance is wrong for man.	143e. Your genome will show if you have the tendency to some hereditary diseases.
144a. You'd better not invest any money in this company.	144b. Not all (of) Catherine's investments were profitable.
145a. What did they inquire (enquire) you about for so long?	145b. The commission started the inquiry (enquiry) of the witnesses.	145c. The woman's inquiring voice intrigued me.
	146a. Your innocence is your greatest strength.	146b. Most of us believed that Ursula was innocent.
147a. We'll instruct you about the safety rules.	147b. What do the instructions say about it? 147c. Damian passed the exam thanks to a very good instructor.	147d. Working with a specialist was an instructive experience. 147e. We need better instructed workers.
148a. Sylvia's son inspired her to set up her own firm.	148b. Start painting before the inspiration disappears.	148c. Watching nature can be very inspiring. 148d. Why were you uninspired by the actor's performance?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

149a. We'll have to introduce a few important changes in this institution.	149b. When are you planning the introduction of the use of digital signatures in your firm?	149c. Leo didn't read the introductory remarks.
150a. I'm sure this information will interest the press.	150b. Apart from computer games, Heniek has few interests.	150c. Why is Sarah uninterested in working for us? 150d. Writing books must be interesting. 150e. Olek used to be interested in ancient history.
151a. I'd like to invite all my friends.	151b. Who did you send the invitations to? (To whom did you send the invitations?)	151c. This gesture was rather uninviting.
152a. Will we insure our house for the next year?	152b. I've got all sorts of insurances.	152c. Unfortunately, my workshop wasn't insured against flood.
153a. What did you infect the rabbits with? (With what did you infect the rabbits?)	153b. How do you fight (with) this infection?	153c. The infected people were kept (held) in separate barracks. 153d. This laughter is infectious.
154a. We shouldn't increase the use of pesticides. We should decrease it.	154b. The increase in the demand for natural resources drove their prices up. 154c. We can expect further decrease in the level of groundwater.	154d. The decreasing sales forced the corporation to close down a few factories. 154e. The increasing number of starving people worries us a lot.
155a. Be careful, because they'll also invade your private life.	155b. The invaders were supposed to bring us liberty and equality. 155c. Will avoiding the invasion be possible?	155d. I hope invasive surgery (operation) won't be necessary.
156a. Did an exploding mine injure the lieutenant?	156b. Despite the injury Matthew continued the run.	156c. The injured horse suffered a lot. 156d. Only a few passengers of the van were uninjured.
157a. What do you intend to do in this situation?	157b. Are you sure their intentions are noble?	157c. I think his explanations were intentionally unclear (vague). 157d. Was Peter's mistake unintentional?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

158a. Lots of useful and invisible to the naked eye microorganisms inhabit our intestines.	158b. Did our correspondent talk with the inhabitants of the village? 158c. The (natural) habitat of the species no longer exists.	158d. Victoria wants to buy this uninhabited castle. 158e. Who says that Mars is a habitable planet? 158f. Lena would like to find herself in that uninhabitable place.
159a. What inhibited Nell from buying another pair of shoes?	159b. A politician can't feel an inhibition to appearing in public.	159c. Thanks to psychological training Kate isn't inhibited any more.
160a. What do the results of the research indicate?	160b. Aren't these obvious indications of a global crisis? 160c. Did we use the proper (right/correct) indicator?	160d. What's happening now in Africa is indicative of what may happen in south (southern) Europe in the future.
161a. They can individualize their commercial offers because they gather information about their customers thanks to the Internet.	161b. Was the commentator insincere when he said that individual was irreplaceable? 161c. Does individuality mean a unique way of thinking? 161d. Researchers' individualism enables them to form independent and original summaries of their studies. 161e. As an individualist, Michael may process the same input in a very different way.	161f. Each individual case should be assessed on its merits. 161g. Were the results obtained by using individualized teaching techniques illuminating?
162a. They may not have enough time to industrialize obtaining hydrogen from water.	162b. Although they injected immense capital into the industry, it remained unprofitable. 162c. How close are we to an inescapable conclusion that infinite industrialization is a blind lane? 162d. Industrialism made masses dependent on their employers and entrepreneurs on gaining new consumers. 162e. Persuading customers that they desire and need the product is mainly in the interest of an industrialist	162g. What do you do once you clearly understand that industrial development doesn't benefit us in the long term? 162h. With industrious and devoted personnel we can complete the inversion procedures in due time.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	who wants to profit from that fact. 162f. Why should this beautiful countryside be turned into another industrial estate?
163a. If you innovate, this inefficient device may become workable again.	163b. Will this innovation secure its creator immortality? 163c. Did anybody talk with the innovator about the new type of a hoover?	163d. Their simple strategy is to steal innovative designs and treat their authors as inferiors.
164a. Didn't Marinna insist that she would inject herself with the antibiotic?	164b. The insistence on keeping the information about the hideaway secret is understandable.	164c. No haste and insistent realization of the assumed plan leave no doubt that Fred means business.
165a. The investigators have to inspect those ink stains on the tablecloth.	165b. The inspector told us to check the fingerprints on the ignition. 165c. They should conduct thorough, not incidental inspections of the school curriculum.
166a. We can't insure the property if the figures concerning its value are imprecise.	166b. It's important to be able to claim for the loss on your insurance. 166c. The insurance policy doesn't cover the parts of the system which are incompatible with its core. 166d. The insurer was struck by the immensity of the damage caused by the wildfire.	166e. The stuntman must be specially insured to perform those dangerous tricks.
167a. Phone calls were constantly interrupting Magda checking her students' tests.	167b. Ben was swimming for three hours without interruption.	167c. How did you manage to talk to her uninterrupted?
168a. Let's not allow our organization to disintegrate. 168b. It'll be difficult to integrate the class.	168c. The integrity of George's plan to get out of the crisis won us over (convinced us). 168d. Can we prevent the disintegration of this local community? 168e. Is the integration of	168f. We need more integrated actions for peace. 168g. I have no idea why this television set is disintegrated.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	ethnic minorities possible?
	169a. Would you trust a person with a formidable intellect? 169b. An intellectual should carefully weigh the words he pronounces in public. 169c. Do modern means of communication make protecting intellectual property easier or more difficult?	169d. It's impossible to assess the intellectual value of the writing because it's illegible.
	170a. Doesn't intelligence consist in resigning when your credentials for the job become invalid? 170b. The statement undermining the importance of an intelligence quotient (IQ) ignited diverse emotions among scholars. 170c. The survival of the nation is in the interest of both its intelligentsia and its working class.	170d. It's naïve to think that they can have an intelligent person feel inferior to them only because they are rich. 170e. They didn't treat the threat of an impending disaster seriously because, in their opinion, an unintelligent person was talking about it.
171a. If the occupiers hadn't withdrawn from the area, the attacks against them could have intensified.	171b. Did they measure the intensity of sound during the concert? 171c. While unsold goods were piling up in warehouses, the award-winning economists were calling for the intensification of the industrial development. 171d. Intensive care immeasurably increased the girl's chances of full recovery. 171e. Is the intensive care unit (the ICU) equipped with all the necessary facilities?	171f. Despite intensive efforts made by the hikers to move the log that blocked their path, it didn't budge an inch.
172a. Walter didn't protect his firm effectively enough when the aliens interfered with its structure.	172b. As far as we are aware, there is no imminent threat of foreign interference in the internal affairs of the state.	172c. Personally, I prefer to keep a safe distance from an interfering "friend".

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

173a. What will happen if they internationalize the banking system and gain full control of it?	173b. Can't you see that internationalization of culture, education and economy serves only the interests of the powerhouses? 173c. Internationalism means that every country must crack down on the commonly known ills afflicting their societies.	173d. Has ever an intermediary solved a conflict between neighbouring (neighboring) countries before it became international?
174a. It is possible to interpret the piece of music completely differently. 174b. Misinterpret the statement made in the language your listener doesn't understand and you make him believe in whatever you want.	174c. Imprint the interpretation on the child's mind and they will find it extremely difficult to become critical of it when they are adults. 174d. The interpreter explained that the meanings of the two idioms were practically indistinguishable. 174e. If you fall for their misinterpretations of the facts, you can then be easily manipulated.	174f. Are there more similar interpretative examples of internment?
175a. Prompting others to intervene to get rid of an individual who threatens your vested interests, only to have him revered, is a remarkable achievement indeed.	175b. If you allow foreign intervention it means that you are unable to sort out your internal problems and you consent to become dependent on aliens. 175c. They would love to replace military interventionism with economic, cultural and educational one.
176a. Allow intrepid journalists to interview you and they are bound to discover some dirt amid which they themselves can shine.	176b. During the interview the statesman cited several immortal proverbs. 176c. Do you agree with the interviewee that probably everyone would like to have an infallible instinct which (that) would prompt them on what is right and what is regrettable? 176d. The broadcaster made it clear that they	176e. They hid the identity of the interviewed surgeon for security measures.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	needed interviewers who mastered the skills of manipulating with the facts.
	177a. Racists sometimes express their intolerance of people they despise in a sophisticatedly implicit form.	177b. Providing us with inexact descriptions of the events is intolerable. 177c. Her digestive system has been gradually becoming intolerant of impure water.
178a. Who intruded on your family life?	178b. Some intruder picked all grandma's tulips in the garden. 178c. The intrusion of the beggar into the house scared Sabina.	178d. Dominic's intrusive remarks annoyed me.
179a. It won't be easy to invent a head cover which (that) will harmonize with this immaculate outfit.	179b. When the inventor had presented a sample of his glowing alloy his competitors tried to put a lid on it and invert it. 179c. The invention works exactly the same when you use it inversely. 179d. They may stop the realization of a few initiatives but they are unable to call a halt to inventiveness, as such.	179e. Can an inventive entrepreneur who has made his fortune operating in a corrupt environment be a decent man?
180a. Why did you get involved in organizing their immersion courses in that particular language?	180b. Did the prosecutor explicitly state that the involvement of the accused in the offence was undeniable?	180c. Those involved in the affair confessed (that) they simply couldn't resist the indulgence in carefree life filled with entertainment and joyful social gatherings.
	181a. Do you question the irrationality of the decision?	181b. You aren't going to indulge yourself with any irrational activity, like gambling, are you?
	182a. Exposing the irregularities can allow us to learn about the mechanisms that (which) enabled them to appear.	182b. Paradoxically, putting together all those irregular shapes gives an impression of a very harmonious total.
	183a. Irrelevance can mean that whichever room you enter, only after doing it will you be given a chance of	183b. Don't dwell on the issues that are irrelevant to what is essential.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	figuring out what you must do to get out of it.
184a. Why did halting the peaceful marchers by the police irritate the supporters of the animal rights protection movement?	184b. Those fresh initiatives must have caused a lot of irritation among the members of the establishment for whom the existing inert system served so well. 184c. There must be serious reasons for the fact that your body reacts to natural substances as if they were chemical irritants.	184d. An irritable superior can be a nuisance. 184e. The irritated diver says he didn't want to stay immersed in icy water for so long.
185a. In the next stage of the experiment the researchers observed the parasites which (that) were isolated from the organisms on which they traditionally thrived.	185b. Working in isolation allows you to formulate your own and independent views.	185c. If it had been an isolated inept remark it could have been ignored.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020