12.7 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od r
Część 2/3 Zdania 45a - 98i – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
45a. This kind of glass reflects light very well.	45b. If you haven't got a mirror, look at your reflection in the water. (If you don't have a mirror, look at your reflection in the water.) (Unless you have a mirror, look at your reflection in the water.) 45c. In the light from a reflector we saw a running fox.	45d. Balbina likes to read reflective articles.
46a. When you are reforming the hiring and firing procedures remember that those who want to take voluntary redundancy must be first held accountable for their past decisions.	46b. Does the resolution concern the reform of the legal system only? 46c. The reformers should act very thoughtfully since they will not only be watched very closely but will also take full responsibility for the changes which (that) can bring about unprecedented social ramifications. 46d. The youngster wanted to take a shortcut and become rich by stealing other people's hard-won fortune, but was caught and placed in a reformatory (reform school). 46e. The reformation they've been engaging into has not undermined the principles they have always been faithful to.	46f. If the results are unsatisfactory, the reformed but still faulty system must undergo further transformations. 46g. If a dysfunctional institution proves to be unreformable, it must be dissolved. 46h. According to a certain recluse living in the desert, rigid reformatory measures must be taken in order to save the rhino (rhinocerouses/ rhinoceroses) from extinction.
47a. You can refresh your memory by rewinding the tape and listening to the lyrics of the unforgettable songs over and over again.	47b. The area offers abundance of refreshments in the form of pure water from the torrents and ripe fruit from trees, palms and bushes.	47c. It was refreshing to find out that the men were readmitted to hospital for complementary tests.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

48a. People who refuse to admit to making a mistake are cowards.	48b. Renata treats the refusal of her presentation at the conference as (a) discrimination. 48c. Household refuse has to be segregated before it is thrown away. 48d. The more we consume the more work refuse collectors have.	48e. Why don't we return to that rejected project?
49a. How are they going to regulate (the) traffic during the reconstruction of the road?	49b. This temperature regulator is very useful. 49c. What do (the) new regulations say about subsidies for farmers? 49d. A special commission will investigate the irregularities in the financing of the party's election campaign. 49e. What conclusions did the scientists draw from the observed regularities?	49f. This issue is still unregulated. 49g. Klara regularly gets threatening letters. 49h. John is our regular customer. 49i. Why do you answer my emails irregularly?
50a. Does this young man regard himself as a genius? 50b. Thomas disregarded his (the) doctor's advice and is in (the) hospital now.	50c. Her husband treated her with disregard so she divorced him. 50d. We all held the conductor of our choir in high regard.	50e. Regardless of the weather, Gina swims in the lake for an hour every day. 50f. What is Monty's view regarding the recapture of the national park by the rebels?
51a. I regret that there are individuals who like to torment those who (that) are better human beings than they are.	51b. Instead of thinking about your regrets, concentrate on new tasks to do.	51c. My opponent's comments were regrettable. 51d. Regretfully, another person pulled from under the rubbles was dead.
52a. How long will it take Chris to rehabilitate his injured arm?	52b. Didn't the villains who'd (that had) undergone the rehabilitation (rehab) program declare they would never retry to take (their) revenge on those who (that) saved them?
53a. The performance lacked freshness and authenticity so perhaps the actors had rehearsed it too many	53b. Who was the woman who (that) was sitting in the seventh row during yesterday's rehearsal?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

times?
54a. The ice rink requires a specialist service so will they decide to reject the helping hand?	54b. This rectangular rack is a reject because the metal bars it is made of can be easily bent. 54c. Don't you fear the rejection of your article on reincarnation when the editor reads it?	54d. Shouldn't the doctors have examined the rejected liver more thoroughly before they used it in the transplant operation?
55a. Tony would like to be relieved of paying the tax.	55b. What a relief. I don't have to go to work tomorrow.	55c. Mary felt relieved when she found out that her husband would be set free. 55d. Unrelieved pain continued and Jenny was at risk of a relapse of a severe form of rheumatism.
56a. In the painting the artist relates to the invasion of foreign troops into the territory of his country.	56b. We should improve (better) our mutual relations. 56c. Did the journalist get to know (find out) any details about their relationship? 56d. I don't have any relatives who (that) live in Russia. (I haven't got any relatives who (that) live in Russia.) 56e. Can you explain to me the theory of relativism? (Can you explain the theory of relativism to me?)	56f. Was it a drug (narcotic) related offence? 56g. The judge thinks (that) the cases aren't related (are unrelated). 56h. Relatively few people supported Victor's proposition. 56i. This opinion seems very relative to me.
57a. Do you think I can rely on their expertise?	57b. Henry doubts about the reliability of the man's testimony. 57c. Our reliance on the achievements of civilization can turn out fatal for us.	57d. To many (people), the gloomy forecast (prediction) of the old woman seemed unreliable. 57e. My new accountant is very reliable.
58a. I think that before you get to the next task you should relax for a while.	58b. After half an hour of relaxation Barbara felt full of energy.	58c. This music is very relaxing, isn't it? 58d. The relaxed atmosphere of the meeting suited everybody very well.
59a. When the hailstorm relented Martin grabbed the rope and began to		59b. Did Claire have to press them relentlessly (unrelentingly) to obtain the refund for climb up the cliff.		the innovation? 59c. Those simple-minded reapers will be well remembered for their unrelenting (relentless) struggle for justice, freedom and independence.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	60a. Mutual respect and the right to protect one's privacy are the matters of timeless relevance. 60b. The irrelevance of the colour (color) of the poisons in food preservatives seemed obvious to those who (that) were watching the show, yet many of them kept listening to the unproductive discussion.	60c. The financial sanctions are directly relevant to the country's plight, as de facto they allow a foreign power to overtake the bankrupt state. 60d. The stranger unlocked the door with his own key, got inside and said to the bewildered host of the house: "This is all mine now and talking about the repercussions of the fact is irrelevant."
	61a. As a magic realm religion can do wonders and can turn noble ideals into reality.	61b. Euphemia says her religious belief commands her to reject hypocrisy and mendacity.
	62a. Their reluctance to take more measurable steps to heal the rupture with their sometime ally may surprise many, but since it's their independent decision, it has to be respected.	62b. More sensible individuals were reluctant to go into raptures about the plan to rename the main streets and squares in the city. 62c. Finally, the unapologetic man reluctantly confessed that he'd stealthily picked the unripe fruit from his neighbour's (neighbor's) orchard, because he was certain that if he hadn't hurried to do it first, someone else would have forestalled him and enjoyed the feast.
63a. When we are at home remind me to phone aunt Christi, will you?	63b. The memorial is a reminder of those tragic events.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

64a. A lot of questions remained unanswered.	64b. Workers are still removing the remnants of the collapsed building.	64c. The remaining miners who (that) were still underground waited for the help of the rescuers.
65a. During the university seminar the crime victim remarked that it is essential to continue a thorough investigation of the rites practised (practiced) by the secretive tribe.	65b. Assuming that the person is retarded gives you a convenient excuse not to take their remarks seriously.	65c. They must be proud of allowing that remarkable talent to develop fully. 65d. Nobody paid any attention to a woman of unremarkable appearance who entered the room. 65e. Let's wait until their scholars give us more insight into the issue of how it was possible that even the most revealing observations could go unremarked.
66a. The feeling of revulsion at the stench can be easily remedied by putting a mask on your mouth and nose.	66b. To recapitulate, the best remedy seems to be immunity developed in response to prior infection.	66c. What sort of remedial effect can taking refuge in an embassy of a foreign country bring? 66d. Every remediable case of the disease should be treated with great prudence. 66e. The questioned witness couldn't recount any details concerning the alleged irremediable errors.
67a. It's amazing that you remember so many details of those events.	67b. The remembrance ceremony commemorating the overthrowing of the previous system will take place in the capital tomorrow.
68a. If you have your ranch to look after you don't have much time to reminisce about the past.	68b. If the reminiscences have so little significance for the challenges we are facing, what's the point in reading them?	68c. The maths (math) problem to calculate the radius of the sphere was reminiscent of the one Alex had at the last term test.
	69a. Whether he was full of remorse for his past actions was much less important	69b. Now Garry feels remorseful and regrets getting involved in that

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	than whether he was willing to contribute to finding the cure for the evil.	row with his cousin. 69c. Does Arthur really want to rediscover that the abusive street vendors from that district attack defiant shoppers remorselessly and always deny (that) they can ever be wrong? 69d. How do you manage to keep up with the remorseless speed at which technological advances progress?
70a. The young lady had four ribs removed to make her waist thinner.	70b. The removal of the garbage from the river bed can be a lengthy process. 70c. Did the rubber smudge vanish after you'd applied the stain remover? 70d. Perhaps the firm of removers (removals company) can offer Sebastian a rebate?	70e. If the part is removable you can exchange it and you don't have to buy a new device.
71a. They could use the opportunity to renew the contract with Susan, couldn't they?	71b. The former comedian encouraged his guests, the celebrities from the show-business, to talk about the renewal of traditional values in the urbanized societies.	71c. After a renewed appeal Frank is waiting for information concerning his missing dog. 71d. Diana was certain her work permit was renewable. 71e. Coal, gas and oil are non-renewable sources of energy, so they ought to be exploited very wisely.
72a. This old, chiseled wardrobe will be renovated and the beautiful roses on its surface will be varnished.	72b. Now we can watch the extensive renovations of the major monuments in the capital.
73a. It's a pity that you have to rent accommodation from a selfish landlord.	73b. Her stomach rumbled and she was starving yet she knew she had to pay the rent, unless she wanted to be homeless. (Her stomach rumbled and she was starving yet she knew she had to pay the rent, if she	73c. If your workplace is a rented shop, its owner can terminate the agreement with you so it's better to have a place of your own.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	didn’t want to be homeless.)
74a. The mechanic was eager to repair the woman’s car because she had the money to pay him and he could gain useful knowledge about the state of the vehicle she was driving.	74b. To get to the village they will have to travel along a longer route, as the shorter road is under repair. 74c. After introducing the true democracy there will be the war reparations to the victims and communities oppressed by the previous regime. 74d. Your rivals are looking forward to the moment when your construction falls into disrepair due to your lack of financial resources to maintain it.	74e. Some say the sense of guilt is repairable. For example, if a crook who (that) feels no respect for others quickly forgets the crimes he has committed, he will be rid of his guilty conscience. 74f. Maria seems very attached to this piece of equipment. Yet if it turns out to be irreparable, she will have to do without it.
75a. If, as some ministers declare, the government offers jobs to responsible and decent individuals, not their infected by greed cronies, they might be able to repay their debt of honour (honor).	75b. Should the lender estimate if the borrower can meet the repayment conditions of the loan? 75c. When Willy took his repayment mortgage he had a well paid job and could afford the monthly bank installments.	75d. Endowment is a gift and is not repayable, but can’t they additionally profit from trading in it?
76a. Does anybody represent the gypsies in the local authorities?	76b. Did you instruct our representatives what strategy they are to use during the talks? 76c. The coach will soon inform us who will play in the representation this season.	76d. How representative are the fragments of the films (movies) (that/which) we’ve seen? 76e. Conclusions drawn from analyzing unrepresentative samples can be very misleading.
77a. The plaintiff repeated he wasn’t going to seek legal redress for reasons that should be obvious to everybody.	77b. Learning by repetition is the most natural and obvious way of gaining knowledge.	77c. If Paul failed but the exercise is repeatable he may succeed when he does it again. 77d. Discovering repetitive patterns inspired the fathers of IT (information technology) to simulate and then program various processes. 77e. You may be well rid of repetitious (repetitive) household chores like chopping onions and washing the floors but you'll keep doing them anyway, won't you? 77f. Where the results of the repeated experiments the same all the time? 77g. One critic says that the rendering (rendition) of the piece of music was so exceptional that it is probably unrepeatable.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

78a. Your ugly look or terrible odour (odor) may repel invaders and they may leave you alone.	78b. This rodent repellent emits sounds which (that) pester the animals so they are likely to move to another garden.	78c. in my opinion, "treat or trick" is a repellent (repulsive) practice. It comes down to extortion and blackmail: do me a favour (favor) or otherwise I'll be nasty to you.
79a. Will Arek repent if he doesn't redress the balance by transforming an unfair deal into a just one?	79b. Repentance for your faults materializes only when you make up for them by doing good.	79c. What matters is whether the repentant sinner will never hurt a peaceful person again. 79d. Unrepentant culprits can pose a real threat to you. They don't even bother to pretend to be human.
80a. The old slogan has been replaced. The current one reads: "Talent and diligence combined with modesty and integrity can facilitate your journey from prosperity to poverty."	80b. Replacement of the boss of a disgraced institution can be inefficient, unless its new leader represents the principles different from those which (that) have led to the moral downfall of the establishment.	80c. The trader says they have ample stock of items of comparable standards and quality, replaceable with one another. 80d. Was the father shaking with rage when the thieves had stolen the irreplaceable original?
81a. The artist achieved an interesting visual effect by replicating rectangles, squares and triangles in different sizes and colours (colors).	81b. Buying replicas of masterpieces has been all the rage for some time now. 81c. Following and closely observing parasite replication processes are essential at this stage of the study.	81d. If such artefacts (artifacts) are replicable, how soon can we expect them on the shelves of chain stores?
82a. They should not reply to peace initiatives with acts of violence, should they?	82b. The reply to this rambling letter was rather succinct (concise, brief).

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

83a. Why didn't that woman report earlier to the police that she'd been battered (beaten) by her husband? (Why didn't that woman report to the police that she'd been battered (beaten) by her husband earlier?)	83b. Let's listen to our reporter who is already at the site of the accident. 83c. The report on the financial situation of the hospitals confirmed that they are indebted. 83d. Craig's school report may not be impressive but his gift for singing is unquestionable. 83e. Do you know how to transform direct questions into reported (indirect) speech sentences? 83f. "Do you know where the remote control is?" is an example of a reported (indirect) question. 83g. Accurate reporting can help experienced analysts and strategists work out even more adequate resolves.	83h. Is that reportedly perfectly healthy patient kept in their hospital because they want to carry out more illegitimate tests on him?
84a. Were the rulers sufficiently severely repressed by the nation when they kept letting their voters down?	84b. How do they see further co-operation if repressions against the proponents of freedom of speech are still being imposed?	84c. Everybody has seen the pictures. Now, the question is whether the perpetrators who resort to so disgusting repressive measures against their prisoners are incurably morally rotten? 84d. The number of the repressed dissidents who choose unhesitating, non-violent defiance is likely to grow systematically.
85a. If the material is of any value, people who are interested in it will reproduce it with or without the permission from the publisher.	85b. Has the supervisor of the lab prohibited any reproduction of the chemical on the grounds that it has toxic properties?	85c. Destroy the reproductive power of a harmful virus and you'll soon eradicate the infectious (contagious) disease it causes.
86a. The offensive was repulsed but the threat of another attack still exists.	86b. Apparently, some animals instinctively sense life-saving repulsion to poisonous plants.	86c. It is not certain if they have really failed to notice their colleague's repulsive behaviour (behavior). It is certain that for years, unhindered, he has been exercising the hideous acts.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

87a. By now you should have known what sort of services those with superiority complex usually request from those whom (who/that) they repute to be inferior.	87b. Allow the innovators to live up to their reputation, note every step they take and use your judgement (judgment) to decide whom (who) you would support in the future elections. 87c. Gina says she knows the woman by repute, but who are the people who (that) have formed the opinion about her? 87d. Would a depraved person who (that) has a lot of money and can lead a luxurious life worry about being brought into total disrepute?	87e. Can you recommend a reputable company which (that) prides itself on being totally honest with their clients? 87f. Who bought the ailing magazine for a reputed 1 US dollar? 87g. Giving an adult free doses of narcotic, hoping they will become your regular customers, is a disreputable practice. Yet their becoming addicted is solely their own problem.
88a. Emil has been exposing himself to the practices cultivated by a particular subculture for years now. He hopes his research will allow people to get to know those customs and will allow them to decide by themselves if the habits are harmful and socially degrading for the non-members of the group.	88b. The critics allege that the research has not been conducted accurately and objectively enough thus the findings presented to them are inconclusive. 88c. While the researcher should continue collecting data and evidence which (that) support his theory, those who disagree with it should make every effort to prove that the theory is wrong. 88d. Can a nation whose government clamps down on domestic research and development (R&D) survive in the highly competitive international environment?
89a. Haven't they already developed a product which (that) accurately resembles the invention of their competitors, but serves their own purposes?	89b. Thanks to strong family resemblances, studying the behaviour (behavior) in various circumstances can lead to the creation of a psychological profile of a typical member of the tribe.
90a. Perhaps, if you	90b. It was hard to assess	90c. Wouldn't you be

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

offer the other player a fair deal you won't resent being rejected by him because the deal is unfair?	the crew's mood as rumbles of laughter mixed with rumbles of resentment.	resentful of the guests who (that) order you to destroy your home and who do everything to convince you that it's the only way for you to stay alive? 90d. In a democracy a resented system can be easily overthrown by voting against it.
91a. Their law states that you can't reserve the right to your invention unless you can afford to patent it. (Their law states that you can't reserve the right to your invention if you can't afford to patent it.)	91b. To withstand the siege you will have to manage your reserves of strength and assets very prudently. 91c. Are the conservationists planning to reintroduce this easily adaptable species to the wildlife (nature) reserve? 91d. Has Michael made a seat reservation for tomorrow's flight to Canada? 91e. Can you do more than express your reservations about the steps the management takes? 91f. Fresh recruits and military reservists should be properly instructed and trained before taking part in any action.	91g. A reserved individual is not likely to be provoked during a raging debate. 91h. What does the clerk want to apologize to the customer unreservedly for? 91i. How many cabins on the cruise liner are unreserved?
92a. Will Ian reside permanently in that province?	92b. The star may be staying in one of his residences abroad. 92c. The musician has applied for temporary residency in Great Britain. 92d. The residents of the area are fearful of another oil spill from the nearby offshore oil rig.	92e. Rambling around that residential area and admiring the mansions can be very relaxing.
	93a. You'd better show resilience when the court revokes the child allowance which (that) was previously granted to you.	93b. This resilient rambling plant flowers throughout all summer.
94a. The situation requires patience and consideration from us.	94b. Your request is being analyzed by our commission now.	94d. You haven't shown us all the required licences (licenses).

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	94c. It'll be difficult to meet the new requirements of the market.	(You didn't show us all the required licences (licenses).)
95a. What will Olga do when she resigns from sport?	95b. Why doesn't the President want to accept the resignation of that Supreme Court judge?	95c. After all those misfortunes, Mark is resigned.
96a. Sarah says (that) she may (might) retire when she is seventy five.	96b. In this country a lot of relatively young people enjoy their retirement.	96c. A retired person doesn't at all have to lead a boring (dull) life. (A retired person doesn't have to lead a boring (dull) life at all.)
97a. They are jealous so they'll respond in a hostile way (manner).	97b. Shared responsibility sometimes means that nobody (no one) feels responsible. 97c. Perhaps (Maybe) our response isn't clear enough for them? 97d. The respondent replied that it hadn't mattered whether the wind was rotating around the eye of the cyclone clockwise or counterclockwise (anti-clockwise).	97e. The irresponsible behaviour (behavior) of the father of the beaten boy shocked everybody. 97f. Is the market responsible for the fall in sales of our machines? 97g. Did Philip act responsibly leaving us with the problem? 97h. A plastic surgeon must (has to) be responsive to the patients' wishes. 97i. What's the salary of the ombudsman who (that) is said to be unresponsive to common people's problems?
98a. Do they respect the rights of ethnic minorities in that country?	98b. Everybody shows our hero a lot of respect. 98c. Will they punish me for disrespect of the authority? 98d. While the politicians boast about achieving great respectability on an international arena, ordinary people see that cronyism is rife, corruption widespread and the chances for a decent life are becoming weaker and weaker.	98e. Clive would like to be a respectable paediatrician (pediatrician). 98f. The respective duties of the designer of the machine and the prototype maker are complementary and equally important. 98g. The two brothers Daniel and Bruno excelled in swimming and cycling respectively. 98h. If you see an obvious contradiction between being respectful of the environment and being respectful of humans' right to a comfortable life you have to choose one or the other. 98i. Irrespective of the weather conditions, they will have to go the whole length of the craggy ridge of the mountain in order to reach the shelter.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020