12.4 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od: f, g, h, i
Część 2/3 Zdania 60a - 122c – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
60a. Lucas is looking forward to the moment when he graduates from school.	60b. After graduation from university Edward is going to set up (start) his own firm. 60c. Undergraduates are sometimes looked down on by their older mates. 60d. What are the prospects of employment for (the) graduates of (from) this school?
61a. Is it possible to quickly fossilize this piece of organic matter?	61b. We learn about our origin through examining fossils. 61c. It took millions of years to form fossil fuel and it can take seconds to burn it. 61d. Are the fossilization processes very complicated?	61e. This fossilized fern will nicely decorate the kitchen wall.
62a. Why should anybody want to foul this neat flowerbed?	62b. The referee must have missed that foul.	62c. Don't foster an idea that foul play will serve you forever.
63a. Bill will soon outgrow his father. 63b. This year I won't grow cucumbers or radishes.	63c. In which countries is economic growth the fastest now? 63d. I (can) see the youngsters, but where are the grown-ups?	63e. Your grown-up children may (can) cause you a lot of problems. 63f. There is a growing concern that with so many goods to sell, market can come to gridlock.
64a. People gossip that the owner of this collection of gorgeous outfits will gamble it away.	64b. They had generously invested in a small start-up and the gamble paid off. 64c. Would you recognize at first glance that this gentle, quiet man is a compulsive gambler? 64d. Playing games of chance and not doing it for money isn’t gambling, is it?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

65a. What were those who gathered at the iron gate talking about?	65b. Jan, who is a graduate in archeology, says that some of us are more of hunters and others are gatherers. 65c. At their monthly gathering they will be discussing how to benefit from another gold rush and melting glaciers.
66a. The most greedy eagerly grasped the golden opportunity to globalize their businesses.	66b. Good-natured and generous people can be found in every corner of the globe. 66c. Globalization poses the major threat to the survival of local firms.	66d. Can global solutions be applied to very specific, individual cases?
67a. Why do we tend to glorify glamorous and good-looking pop stars?	67b. Once you’ve enjoyed your moment of glory perhaps it’s time for a goodwill gesture? 67c. What will the glorification of consumerism lead us to? 67d. How can those glory days be characterized?	67e. After a glorious holiday Richard had to return to the gloomy reality of everyday life. 67f. It was a rather inglorious fall from grace. 67g. Almost everybody looked up to those glorified sports idols.
68a. What criteria do they apply to grade their students?	68b. You might never be granted an opportunity to prove that your product is of the highest grade. 68c. The steeper the gradient of the slope you are climbing the stronger you need to be.	68d. The gradual and steady depreciation of values based on common sense can have grave consequences for all of us.
	69a. It would be instructive to study grammar rules of different languages by comparing the mind maps which illustrate their structures.	69b. Donata genuinely admitted she didn’t know why she made the same grammatical errors over and over again.
70a. Why did they grant Thomas the money to design a new gearbox if they don’t want to use it now? 70b. Doesn’t	70c. Without foreign grants the future prospects of the organization may look grim.	70d. Granted that the goal of producing the grain has been achieved they can start distributing it to those in need.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Dominik take it for granted that he will always receive an opening gambit?
71a. Will Malcolm buy his son a glider to gratify his wishes?	71b. Completing a demanding and ambitious task can be the best gratification. 71c. The recipient of the award expressed his gratitude to the commission for acknowledging his efforts. 71d. Ingratitude would be an improper response to their generosity.	71e. Was mum gratified to hear how you all liked her gingerbread? 71f. Seeing people stopping and admiring his graffiti gave its author a gratifying sense of self-accomplishment.
72a. Once Steven had seen through the hypocrisy his alleged friends had been feeding him for so long, he gravitated towards genuine fairness.	72b. Are they talking about the force of gravity between two masses or about the gravity of the situation in which we are all now? 72c. You will find the meaning of the word “gravitation” in the glossary.	72d. When you want to lift an object, you have to counteract the gravitational pull downward.
73a. Those who gathered at the grave of the victim of hate crime grieved for the boy’s unjustifiable death.	73b. First he had been overcome with grief over the great financial loss but when he realized he had been motivated by greed, his attitude towards life changed and he became a noble man. 73c. The father didn’t come to the hospital to air his grievances but to beg you to cure his daughter.	73d. They aren’t that cruel, they can’t have been grief-stricken because they didn’t manage to bring their rival to grief. 73e. How did they avoid being charged with inflicting grievous bodily harm on the prisoners?
74a. The neighbour (neighbor) grinned and asked for a few grains of black pepper.	74b. This grin means that the inventor is happy because his gauge takes the measurements correctly.	74c. Their faces grinning from ear to ear assured us that the gig in which a graceful ghost confronts the grim reality was truly hilarious.
75a. The farmer wants to know when we’ll grind his corn.	75b. Such mechanical coffee grinders can be seen in Skansen museums. 75c. This piece of rock can be used to make a grindstone.	75d. You can buy tinned ground poppy and easily prepare this traditional dish. 75e. At the start of the reforms nobody warned them that most of them would end up in grinding poverty.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

76a. It was supposed to be a grand air show but the planes were grounded due to the terrible weather.	76b. In spring the ground will be green again and cows, sheep and goats will graze there. 76c. Did he resign on health grounds? 76d. A good grounding in microbiology will be helpful in studying the germs causing contagious diseases. 76e. The lecture was about the processes that laid the groundwork for the formation of glacial deposits.	76f. Does this ground-breaking method concern skin grafts or gland operations? 76g. The judge's decision was grounded on the rule that everybody should have equal access to the gateway to success. 76h. The suspicions that someone else choreographed that gripping drama are groundless.
77a. I can guarantee they will try to grab any arising opportunity to profit from it.	77b. The vehicle is still under guarantee so they will pay for all the necessary repairs. 77c. The organization was established as a guarantor and they can't default on their statutory duties.	77d. Whatever present you give this eccentric accountant, he is guaranteed to grumble and look gloomy.
78a. The grey-haired (gray-haired) shopkeeper gripped (on) one of the children's wrist and said he would guard them against the intruders.	78b. The border guards have done their job and stopped the smugglers. 78c. Everyone should be a guardian of one's home.	78d. Have you forgotten the history lessons which taught us that the country must be well guarded? 78e. An unguarded territory can be easily conquered, can't it?
79a. I guess Natalia will soon get to grips with the new situation.	79b. Do you want to make a guess at which evening gown the TV anchor is going to wear tonight? 79c. It was pure guesswork at what the grease might consist of.
80a. They will guide you through the land of fairy tales but be careful and don't get lost once you leave it.	80b. Did the tourists who dragged far behind the guide hear what he said about the palace's glamour years? 80c. Was it a human error or did the guidance system fail? 80d. Which chapter of	80f. During the guided tour of the city we only had time to catch a glimpse of the Town Hall. 80g. Inexperienced breeders can count on a guiding hand from our expert.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the guidebook is devoted to the effects of that fateful tidal wave? 80e. Did you follow the guidelines drawn by the producer of the gum protecting paste?
81a. Was anyone gunned down during the fight between the rival gangs?	81b. Did the police find any guns at their premises? 81c. Innocent civilians got caught in the exchange of gunfire between the army and the guerilla fighters. 81d. The barber says he's never been involved in any gunfight. 81e. A masked gunman entered the bank and demanded cash. 81f. We were watching sparrows that perched on a branch to groom their feathers, when we heard a gunshot. 81g. The chances that they will find traces of gunpowder are fading.
	82a. Sebastian was exhausted after a strenuous workout at the gym (gymnasium). 82b. The gymnasts were training intensely hoping to surprise the spectators with another graceful performance. 82c. The most agile kids were encouraged to practise (practice) gymnastics.	82d. What new gymnastic evolutions are we going to learn?
83a. Chris will handle this hysterical woman (the) best. 83b. The boy handed me a peach picked from the tree.	83c. What are you holding in your hand? 83d. This is our latest handset. 83e. James's handling of the situation impressed me. 83f. The handle is made of (from) steel. 83g. They say they are	83l. These tools are very handy, aren't they? 83m. Perhaps you should buy yourself a hand-held computer? 83n. When did Danny gain his hands-on experience in curing hypochondriacs? 83o. Hands-off attitude to unhappy because they are dependent on handouts. 83h. During the lesson students were given handouts concerning methods of dealing with hyperactive adolescents. 83i. Was there a chance of a harmonious handover of power in that country? 83j. Didn't the handshake mean an unconditional surrender of one of the sides? 83k. Instead of behaving hysterically or looking haplessly in the mirror send your handyman to fix the problem.	their internal disagreements meant they had to sort them out by themselves. 83p. This handwritten note reads that the heir's rights remain unhindered. 83r. Having a small herd of camels the nomad could afford his family a hand-to-mouth existence.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

84a. Ada must have hastened and that's why she hung all those pictures so haphazardly. 84b. Doesn't your son hang about with his friends too much while he should be studying for his exams?	84c. What if they sentenced an innocent person to death by hanging? 84d. Did you play "hangman" to guess letters and build words when you went to school? 84e. The best way to avoid a debilitating hangover is not to drink a lot of alcohol.
85a. The villagers who were often harassed by a group of notorious hooligans organized themselves in order to defend their families.	85b. Eugeniusz was writing an essay about different forms of racial harassment.	85c. The harassed woman said she was haunted by nightmares.
86a. If you continue to demonstrate your hostility, Thomas's resolve (resolution) to oppose you may harden.	86b. Hardening of the restrictions concerning using drugs should be treated seriously. 86c. Why were his former friends so unhelpful when he was facing the most severe hardship? 86d. Does the company produce hardware or	86f. Eva says that it's hard for her to define unhappiness. 86g. Hardly any employers were hiring handicapped people. 86h. Are they exporting a lot of geese of this hardy breed? 86i. They'd worked in really software? 86e. Didn't Dariusz become a hardliner because he'd been exposed to that inhospitable environment for so long?	harsh conditions so for the farmers they were the hard-earned harvests. 86j. Unhurt and halfway through the hard-fought battle Simon thought his chances of winning were good. 86k. Any hard-headed person will tell you that mass hysteria is an undesirable phenomenon. 86l. Are you one of those hard-pressed young lawyers who dream of personal happiness? 86m. Did Arthur help his half-brother when he was hard up?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

87a. This method of extensive fishing has harmed the whole population of herring in the sea.	87b. Did that humble carpenter cause you any harm by saying that you are a disorganized person?	87c. Aren't all those preservatives harmful to our health? 87d. The supposedly funny and harmless jokes may reveal the true nature of the prankster. 87e. The warriors obeyed their strict code of conduct so that their honour (honor) was always unharmed.
88a. Lucy hates being hindered when she pursues her objectives.	88b. People who are filled with hate (hatred) may mask it by pretending to be hospitable. 88c. Watch out for any subtle signs of the man's deep hatred of another person.	88d. Wasn't the idea of suppressing the freedom movements hateful to them?
89a. Joel didn't want to hazard a guess how old the woman was.	89b. The employer assured me that there is no health hazard when you work in this laboratory (lab).	89c. I advised him against this hazardous journey. 89d. It's high time Martin stopped treating things haphazardly.
90a. The refugees headed north. 90b. You won't manage to headhunt Gregory to work for	90c. It's unheard of that a child is the head of a family. 90d. Diana had time only to read a few headlines. 90e. It's a nice head of	90i. It's a miracle (that) we avoided a head-on collision.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

us.	cabbage. 90f. Perhaps Seweryn's headache is the result of hypertension he's been suffering from recently. 90g. Isn't listening to very loud music through headphones unhealthy for your hearing? 90h. Such happenings should take place in a circus, not in the headquarters.
91a. It took a few days for Francis' finger to heal after he'd incidentally hit it with a hammer.	91b. Don't hasten them to find a temporary remedy because, as they say, time is a great healer.	91c. Have you got any evidence that the herb has healing properties?
92a. Have you been heartened by the positive reply? 92b. Was Billy disheartened by the fact that his hydroelectric pump broke down during the presentation?	92c. How did the patent's heart react to hypothermia? 92d. The escapee is said to have had a heart attack while he was in hiding. 92e. Does stress affect your heartbeat?	92f. Wasn't it heartless to say that Alfred's hip would never recover? 92g. A hearty greeting assured Barbara of her new acquaintances' hospitality. 92h. The harrowing stories reported from the site of the disaster were heartbreaking. 92i. Hearing the national hymn must have been heartening at that moment.
93a. Have you got enough coal to heat the house through the winter?	93b. Heat and high humidity made working in the harbour (harbor) very unpleasant. 93c. If you insulated your home you wouldn't pay such high heating bills. 93d. Is the heater on or off?	93e. Who participated in that heated discussion about heaven and hell? 93f. Passengers who travelled (traveled) in unheated carriages complained to the railway management about it.
	94a. People call him a hero and speak highly of him because he sacrificed his personal life to protect them against the invaders. 94b. Did the heroine who lived in the haunted castle manage to harness the evil spirits that harassed its	94d. Heroic deeds often inspire scriptwriters and film directors.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	inhabitants? 94c. Fighting for independence requires heroism of the whole nation.
95a. Why didn't you help that elderly lady (to) cross the street?	95b. Will the crew of the yacht manage without (the) help from the outside? 95c. Samuel couldn't do anything and the feeling of helplessness overwhelmed him.	95d. Marianna helplessly looked (on) as her car was sinking in the pond. 95e. Do you have any helpful hints (clues) for me?
96a. Klara hesitated only for a while.	96b. There's no time for hesitation.	96c. If you're still hesitant, I'll find other arguments to persuade you (to win you over). 96d. Anna unhesitatingly chose one of the hairstyles suggested by her hairdresser.
97a. What happened to those who hijacked the plane?	97b. After an unsuccessful hijacking (hijack) attempt, the culprits are being hospitalized in a psychiatric ward. 97c. The hijackers demanded a huge ransom for the crew of the ship.
98a. What's this hairy creature Clive is holding in his arms?	98b. I need to get hold of a nice jar in which I could keep honey or hazelnuts. 98c. Teofil has less than 40 per cent holding in the company now. 98d. What will happen to the holders of high office who due to making serious errors made their own people's lives a misery? 98e. Did you read the story about yesterday's hold-up at the jeweller's (jeweler's)?
	99a. Honesty that hurts you can be far more helpful than dishonesty that flatters you.	99b. How can you trust a person who first tries to bribe you and then talks about being honest? 99c. Was the musician dishonest when he said he didn't hear the disharmony?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	100a. Why did those people have to leave their homeland? 100b. What time will Caroline be home?	100c. Ted has been living (has lived) abroad for ten years and he still feels homesick. 100d. The hostess created a really homely (homey/homy) feel (atmosphere).
101a. Nikodem hopes you'll soon make up (reconcile).	101b. I certainly (surely) never lose hope.	101c. You're less hopeless at maths (math) than I am. 101d. Hopefully, we won't run out of food and fresh water till (until/by) the end of the year.
102a. Why did her daughter's haircut horrify Dorothy?	102b. To his horror, Zack realized he was in a deep hole, in the middle of the forest and there was nobody who could help him.	102c. Could that horrifying (horrific) attack have been prevented? 102d. The viewers of the report were horror-struck (horror-stricken) by the atrocities of the crimes committed by the terrorists.
103a. Which city will host this year's festival?	103b. What did the host say about the hierarchy in the social elite he belongs to? 103c. We didn't see the hostel as it was surrounded by a high hedge.
104a. How are they going to humanize the interrogation techniques?	104b. What can living in harmony with all the other inhabitants of the planet mean for human beings (humans)? 104c. Humanism advocates solving problems with the use of reason and goodwill. 104d. Would someone who regards himself a humanist accept slavery? 104e. What is beneficial for a particular individual can be very unfortunate for humanity as a whole. 104f. George says that exploiting others for your own gains constitutes inhumanity. 104g. The human race, as	104j. Providing humanitarian aid can be just another way of promoting certain goods manufactured by certain firms. 104k. Were they talking about humane killing of animals they no longer needed? 104l. Perhaps the doctors still haven't done everything that is humanly possible? 104m. Assaulting peaceful individuals is an inhuman behaviour (behavior). 104n. Isn't hiding behind a human shield to secure your interests inhumane?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the most privileged species, bears the responsibility for the future of the life on the Earth. 104h. Who is in charge of managing human resources in the company? 104i. Beware of those who skillfully use various tricks to avoid being accused of human rights violations.
105a. Would you ever call somebody a humped dwarf to humiliate that person?	105b. Not everybody treats being criticized in public as humiliation.	105c. The waitress may have felt humiliated when the boss said she wasn't groomed enough to do her job. 105d. Was it humiliating for the scholar when his colleague reiterated the inconsistencies of the theory?
	106a. If Mark had a sense of humour (humor) he wouldn't have become angry when you joked about gender and called him a female. 106b. A good humorist isn't afraid of making fun of himself.	106c. Did the joke mean to be humorous or offensive? 106d. Why has Catherine become such a humourless (humorless) person recently? 106e. Don't comment about Veronica's height when she is ill-humoured (ill-humored).
	107a. Paul's hunger for discovering something new made him forget about the pangs of hunger coming from his stomach. 107b. Aren't there more effective methods of fighting for your rights than a hunger strike?	107c. If the kids are hungry I can grate some carrots and apples and make a salad for them.
108a. How much water do they need to hydrate the cement powder? 108b. Working in the sun for many hours may dehydrate your body.	108c. Will this irrigation system secure proper hydration of the land? 108d. The diarrhoea (diarrhea) led to dehydration and a week's hospitalization.	108e. Did the dehydrated patient receive an IV (intravenous) treatment?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	109a. There is a direct connection between hygiene and the spread of diseases. 109b. Did you tell the school hygienist that you don't use toothpaste?	109c. A hygienic lifestyle can substantially prolong your life. 109d. Unhygienic conditions in which the people live cause lots of infections.
110a. Kate says that nobody is able to hypnotize her.	110b. Have you ever been under hypnosis? 110c. The hypnotist told the man to lie in a horizontal position. 110d. Can hypnotherapy cure addicts and make them give up (quit) their addiction?	110e. When the woman was in a hypnotic trance they asked her questions about the accident.
	111a. Hypocrisy is often used as a convenient tool to present yourself as a generous person. 111b. Don't judge a hypocrite by what they say but by what they do.	111c. Don't bother about hypocritical opinions.
112a. Have you got the right knowledge to hypothesize about what might happen?	112b. How are the researchers going to test the hypothesis?	112c. Watching hypothetical scenarios become reality must be extraordinary.
113a. My cats hunt at night.	113b. Whale hunting is forbidden in this part of the ocean. 113c. The hunters are in that forest now. 113d. The hunt lasted a few hours.
114a. Frost and humid air made the needles on the branches of conifers ice up immediately.	114b. With temperatures above zero the ice on the lake will soon melt. 114c. Knowing that our guest doesn't like mint ice-cream it would be imprudent to serve it. 114d. The row of icicles hanging from the edge of the roof looked picturesque. 114e. The sailors must have felt insecure when they saw an immense iceberg before their ship.	114i. Frost and humid air made the needles on conifers ice up immediately. 114j. Icy roads are slippery and can be perilous. 114k. "If you try to impose your will on us there is going to be an impasse," he said icily.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	114f. How thick is the layer of ice on the ice rink? 114g. Does Paul indeed know so much about the last ice age? 114h. Was sending an ice-breaker to rescue those on the fishing boat insensible?
115a. Don't idealize your boyfriend. He isn't perfect.	115b. Where does Frank get all those ideas from? 115c. Do you regard yourself as an idealist? 115d. Elza says that she's ready to die for her ideals.	115e. Don't you think that Mirek's opinions are too idealistic? 115f. Mary would like to be an ideal mother.
116a. Can you identify the culprit (perpetrator)?	116b. The identification of the man was difficult because it was very dark. 116c. The police didn't reveal the identity of the suspect. 116d. Didn't they demand to see your Identity card (ID card)?	116e. The boys say (that) they saw an unidentified object in the field. 116f. How is the species identifiable?
117a. You shouldn't have ignored my warnings.	117b. The man should be ashamed of his ignorance.	117c. I'm afraid your car was repaired by an ignorant mechanic. 117d. Problems ignored earlier are even more serious now.
	118a. What impact will the economic ills have on people who won't be able to find jobs? 118b. Is insomnia a sort of a mental illness? 118c. Showing ill will would mean that they are immature.	118d. Stan hated the injections he got when he was ill with pneumonia. 118e. I can't believe they want to implement that ill-conceived scheme. 118f. What if the doctors are ill-equipped for this kind of invasive surgery? 118g. Kate says that her upstairs neighbour (neighbor) is ill-mannered and insensitive.
119a. Frank disillusioned us when he stated that the copy of the painting which we regarded as	119b. An insane person might not be able to distinguish between illusion and reality. 119c. With the help of just a few items the illusionist	119d. The patient's parents asked the therapist if an illusory sense of insecurity and injustice their son was suffering from was irreversible.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

impeccable was in fact imperfect.	was performing improbable tricks.
120a. There are many examples that (which) illustrate this ideology.	120b. The book would be incomplete without in-depth descriptions and fantastic illustrations. 120c. Thanks to his innate talent and inconceivable imagination Alek has become a superb illustrator.	120d. This illustrative footage shows what the life of an iconic person may look like.
121a. How did they implicate Adam in the bribery? 121b. They implied that I am to blame, not them.	121c. The implications of crossing the border of the country can be tragic.	121d. The persons implicated in the scandal are now being questioned (interrogated).
122a. Do we really import insufficient amounts of foreign goods?	122b. Who decides what import is indispensable for the functioning of our economy? 122c. Why do importers thrive while domestic producers can’t sell their products, even if they are cheaper and better?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020