12.5 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od: j, k, l, m, n, o
Część 2/3 Zdania 51a - 96h – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

| zdania z czasownikami | zdania z rzeczownikami | zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami |
|---|---|---|
| 51a. How do you localize your potential customers?51b. Where did they locate their ill (sick) grandmother (grandma/granny)? | 51c. Perhaps (Maybe) we should change the location of the new plants (works)? | 51d. What are the local attractions?51e. The hotel is located at the foot of a mountain. |
| 52a. Anna put her valuables into the safe and locked it. | 52b. After the break-in Alex decided to change all the locks in his workshop.52c. Don't forget in which locker you are leaving your bag. | |
| 53a. The thieves lowered their voices so that nobody from the outside could hear them. | 53b. The temperature suddenly rose, the snow drifts started to thaw violently and within a few hours the lowland found itself under water.53c. When did the unemployment reach the record low? | 53d. Do the low prices guarantee the producers the revenues thank to which they can survive?53e. What does the fact that somebody belongs to a lower social class literally mean?53f. This healthy diet includes lean meat and low-fat dairy products.53g. The media weren't interested in the festival as it was regarded as a low-key event. |
| | 54a. You can significantly facilitate your luck if you make wise use of all your diplomatic leverage. | 54b. It was a lucky coincidence that one of the passers-by turned out to be a locksmith who opened the jammed door in Tim's car.54c. Unluckily, the lever broke and Stanley didn't move the heavy wardrobe. |
| | 55a. Isn't it strange that Ewelina doesn't like luxury? | 55b. This luxurious interior may (can) impress you. |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 56a. To examine the microbes which (that) can cause meningitis watch them through a microscope that (which) magnifies them to 1000 their actual size. | 56b. What magnification does this lens have?56c. Moreover, the mirror is also a magnifier which (that) enables us to see many details.56d. Let's look at the moth and the mosquito through a magnifying glass.56e. Did they talk about the magnitude of the damage the malpractices lead to? | 56f. Making this magnificent outfit must have taken a lot of meticulous work. |
| 57a. Will they stop making those outdated motors? | 57b. This make of typewriter can be seen in a museum.57c. No face make-up can change your genetic make-up.57d. The maker of the machine knows best how to fix it.57e. The makeover wasn't supposed to simply hide the fungi, mould and moss on the walls under a layer of paint, was it?57f. Unlike ordinary people, millionaires can live in a make-believe world.57g. Which factors influence the minister's decision making process? | 57h. Can a man-made monument overshadow a similar one designed by nature?57i. Why does Berta's nephew live in a makeshift hut? |
| 58a. How long did your father manage this institution?58b. Will Adrian manage to qualify for the Olympics? | 58c. The management must (has to) make a quick decision.58d. You'd better talk to (with) the manager. | 58e. I admire the woman's managerial abilities.58f. Is this process really unmanageable? |
| 59a. What kind (sort) of tools would you like to manufacture? | 59b. What will the washing powder manufacturers discuss (be discussing)?59c. Are we able to further modernize the manufacture of goods? | 59d. We already have too many manufactured goods. |
| 60a. Does Marian really need to maintain a few houses and cars? | 60c. The maintenance of the factory now exceeds the profits (that) it generates. | |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 60b. This man maintains that somebody stole a Picasso (that/which) he kept in the cellar. | | |
| | 61a. Did Tom say that out of malice? | 61b. Marianna ignores malicious people. |
| 62a. Your nosy next door neighbour (neighbor) might use the obtained information to manipulate you. | 62b. Who might want to overthrow the government by such a cynical manipulation with the facts?62c. The nun said the man was modest and talked about mutual respect and that's why she didn't realize that he was a manipulator. | 62d. Thanks to his manipulative skills Stan quickly repaired the mower. |
| 63a. The new pills are marketed as a miraculous medication for malnutrition. | 63b. Market-driven economy will thrive as long as the majority of people earn enough money to buy products without which they can live.63c. Watch carefully what they will do when even the best marketing fails to boost their sales.63d. Did you buy the mushrooms at the local marketplace?63e. The merchant mentioned that when mended, the market value of the marble sculpture will grow notably. | 63f. The novelist thought an attractive cover will make his book more marketable. |
| 64a. The niece marvelled (marveled) at the outstanding performance of her aunt. | 64b. The doctors and nurses have done marvels to cure the couple's only child. | 64c. Everybody in the neighbourhood (neighborhood) was talking about Karl's marvellous (marvelous) house. |
| 65a. "You can mask the fact that you're overweight by wearing loose clothes, ma'am (madam)," the saleswoman said. | 65b. The odour (odor) was overwhelming so the motorists put on their oxygen masks. | 65c. Did you understand what the masked man wearing a mackintosh (mac, mack) murmur? |
| 66a. A racing driver | 66c. Wasn't the martial arts | 66h. Everybody laughed at |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| must master the ability to manoeuver (maneuver) while riding along an obstacle course.66b. The engineer who masterminded the meter thinks it can be further optimized. | master's monologue a bit too monotonous?66d. The mastermind of the merger of the companies outlined their plans for the future output.66e. By sheer negligence they could have failed to protect that monumental masterpiece.66f. Neither of them has seen the mathematician's Master's degree diploma.66g. From their employees they expect mastery of several manual skills and mobility. | the masterful (masterly) mockery of the famous musical. |
| 67a. Will blue mascara match Kate's green eyes? | 67b. An octopus is very intelligent but it's no match for a human who can easily outwit it.67c. Did the editor of the magazine decide to publish the essay by the matchmaker?67d. Fred outdid his competitors as he built the highest well from matchsticks. | 67e. Didn't they overcharge Marianna for those porcelain plates with the matching mugs and napkins?67f. The ombudsman is known for his matchless oral fluency. |
| 68a. During the meal the little boy asked his father why the miracle hadn't materialized. | 68b. Is there enough material for those who work overtime?68c. What can materialism mean to a nomad?68d. A materialist would first check if he can pay less for the overhaul of the machinery. | 68e. If you have the basic material needs secured you can undertake a mission which would give your life a meaningful sense.68f. They merge into the communities of native inhabitants, promote materialistic mentality and create conditions which guarantee them that mainly they themselves will profit when it's widespread. |
| 69a. Will this obstinate, naughty boy ever mature and stop behaving like a madman? | 69b. Maturity means that instead of demonstrating your outrage or complaining about the ordeal you have been through you undertake | 69c. Would a mature man show off by flexing his muscles while at the same time he massively overdrew his bank account? |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | sensible actions to overpower the monster which (that) has muzzled your mouth. | |
| 70a. They say they introduced martial law to maximize security of orderly citizens. | 70b. We hope you didn't exceed the maximum price we agreed to pay. | 70c. When you overdose the medicine you might not achieve the maximal effect you were aiming at.70d. Please don't turn up the radio to its maximum volume. |
| 71a. The orchard was meant to be a model example of up-to-date agriculture. | 71b. Hubert says he is trying to find a mean between modesty and excessive outspokenness.71c. If Albert overuses his financial means he may not be able to repay his mortgage.71d. It turned out that the onlookers had varying opinions about the meaning of the mural depicting an ostrich in an oasis. | 71e. Remain neutral, offer a mean person your generosity and wait for their reactions.71f. The passengers who didn't board the plane as the flight was overbooked waited for a more meaningful apology.71g. A statement that they regret the overfishing they've been involved in, which is not supported by stopping the harmful activity, is meaningless, isn't it? |
| 72a. The foresters measure the heights of the oak trees and other deciduous trees in the area every two years. | 72b. What measures has the management of the zoo taken to punish those responsible for the maltreatment of the monkeys and other mammals?72c. John was taking the exact measurements of the conference room and (meanwhile) (in the meantime) the sound engineer was installing a new microphone.72d. This message reminds you to buy a measuring tape. | 72e. Regardless of the mood you are in, you are supposed to respond to any nagging question with measured calm. |
| 73a. Almost any technological process can be mechanized. | 73b. After mending the engine for several hours the mechanic is now taking a short nap.73c. The major task for | 73e. Creative minds have to master the ability to meddle with mechanical thinking in order to invent something completely new. |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | the journalists is to expose the corruption mechanisms in present-day sport.73d. Gerard wouldn't have overloaded the dumper truck if he'd understood the rules of mechanics. | |
| 74a. How many new words are you able to memorize in one day? | 74b. Who is this memorial dedicated to?(To whom is this memorial dedicated?)74c. Does your memory never fail you?74d. You can't learn mathematics (maths/math) only through memorization.74e. We're looking forward to the publication of the singer's memoirs. | 74f. Tell us about that memorable day.74g. Myths have been fascinating people from time immemorial. |
| | 75a. Nobody could believe they were capable of showing no mercy to the lab animals on which they carried out those cruel medical tests. | 75b. The minors repented of the bad things they had done, took an oath that they would make up for their sinister acts and were treated mercifully by the judges.75c. Merciless weather conditions forced the members of the expedition to abandon their ambitions to advance northwards, towards the North Pole. |
| 76a. Do you think the device malfunctions because Oswald has messed something up again? | 76b. How much time can we give those who have led the economy into that terrible mess to restore economic growth? | 76c. As long as they have our mandate to govern they are obliged by law to investigate and explain, in an understandable to a lay man manner, all the messy issues that corrupt the functioning of the society. |
| | 77a. It's a nuisance if somebody disturbs you when you are in the middle of the realization of an important project.77b. Did Toby in his late middle age compose this romantic lullaby about | 77g. Taking the middle course means that the employees aren't going to strike and they give the management of the company time to use all their financial means, including the privately held ones, to |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | a mole living in a flowery meadow?77c. What's the outlook for the highly skilled, middle-aged professionals who would like to remain part of the middle class?77d. The middlemen can build their might by consequently blocking the manufacturer's access to direct consumers.77e. The established middle ground states that neither side is interested in a momentary improvement but in the long-term positive outcome, which is a thriving economy and substantial reduction of unemployment.77f. Midterm elections can be called only if any of the opposition parties presents a feasible program how to get out of the economic and social crisis. | get the firm back on track.77h. Didn't the mentor warn Julian not to overtake a mighty vehicle when he is midway along a narrow lane? |
| 78a. Did the woman who complained that her colleague had misbehaved misjudge his intentions?78b. The ongoing investigation will assess whether the CEO of the drug distribution network mismanaged (mishandled) the firm's budget.78c. I must have mispronounced the name of the dish from the menu as the waiter brought me not exactly what I had meant. | 78g. Leaving the prisoners in numbing cold for hours was a common example of mistreatment.78h. No tolerance for misbehaviour (misbehavior) means that nothing by any means can free the board members from being held accountable for disappointing the voters who put their whole trust in them.78i. In a democracy you can openly complain about your business misfortunes or the misuse of power which affects you to the party representatives operating in your | 78k. The monks admitted that instead of getting out of the maze they had got lost in it due to the misplaced confidence in their guide. |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 78d. Sophie had her misgivings about her one-time friends and thought they might mistreat her so she avoided contacts with them.78e. Only a mad man (lunatic) or someone very naïve would misuse so skilled manpower he had at his disposal.78f. Jerry says he started to mistrust his fiancée when she refused to go to the cinema with him to watch the newly released film "The Sold Bride". | constituency.78j. They must now be aware of the fact that by a democratically taken decision the referendum of public mistrust will be held and it may result in stripping the officials responsible for the failure of the reforms of their privileges and confiscation of all their material possessions. | |
| 79a. The foreigner nodded but also used some obscure phrases so you may have misunderstood him. | 79b. We don't want any misunderstanding in regard to what genetically modified (GM) maize is. | 79c. One misunderstood noun can change the sense of the sentence. |
| | 80a. They grew their oats, picked nuts, talked merrily while repairing their nets and nothing indicated that they lived in misery. | 80b. Has William ever felt miserable as an outcast? |
| 81a. I'll miss our interesting discussions.81b. If Natalie had hurried up, she wouldn't have missed the bus. | 81c. We can't afford so many misses. | 81d. Does Wacek still think about that missed chance (opportunity)?81e. What does the missing guinea-pig look like? |
| 82a. People have always migrated in search for a better life.82b. Why did Conrad emigrate to Austria? | 82c. What are the conclusions from observing the migrations of different species?82d. Immigrants live in the (this) camp sometimes for a few years.82e. The civil war caused a mass emigration from | 82f. Victor knows a lot about this migratory people. |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | that country. | |
| 83a. Manuel wouldn't mind helping the medical personnel to prevent the outbreak of an epidemic, would he? | 83b. Would Kristy like to spend the New Year's Eve and the New Year's Day with someone who has such a moody mind?83c. How effective is the camouflage of the mindset resulting from the fact that one achieves the greatest satisfaction when one sees the anguish of someone else? | 83d. Only risk-minded managers would accept those enormous overheads and not bother about the overdue payments.83e. A priest is mindful of the magic power of faith.83f. The memories of needless losses and mindless decisions kept reappearing in Colin's nightmares.83g. The consequences of the miser's activities are of mind-boggling gravity. |
| 84a. Will the company invest overseas to mine for rare minerals?84b. Nevertheless (Nonetheless), they can't overrule the notion that the northern part of the terrain has been mined. | 84c. Does the pollution come from the copper mine in the neighbouring (neighboring) region?84d. The mine overturned when the loader was digging a hole in the ground.84e. The miners were numb as they couldn't move in the small space in which they were trapped underground but were happy because the rescuers were already very close.84f. Will they again muffle the voices of protests against excessive mercury mining? | |
| 85a. The screens will minimize the negative effects which (that) the oncoming wave of radiation from the outer space can cause. | 85b. Jo merely got a required minimum to pass the test.85c. Have you overlooked the information in the paper that the Labour (Labor) Minister announced lowering the minimum wage? | 85d. How long will they maintain the minimum charges for servicing cars?85e. The detector will trace even a minimal amount of moisture in the air. |
| 86a. Has the government got any idea how to mitigate | 86b. The newspaper wrote that in mitigation, the defence (defense) lawyer | 86c. What mitigating circumstances were presented to the court in |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| the negative consequences of outsourcing, which is so harmful to our national interests? | said his client had embezzled public money as he wanted to secure a better future for his children by educating them at an expensive and prestigious university abroad. | the case of the father who sold his sons and daughters as slaves to the emperor of a foreign empire? |
| 87a. How long am I (supposed) to mix the (these) ingredients? (How long should I mix the (these) ingredients?) | 87b. Do you like this mix of styles?87c. What's the recipe for the mixture? | 87d. The exhibition arouses mixed emotions among the visitors. |
| 88a. Don't mistake a pretended friendship with (for) the (a) real one. | 88b. Did you again make the same mistake?(Did you make the same mistake again?) | 88c. Angelica will unmistakably tell the difference between the original and a fake of this chocolate.88d. Can you give me an example of a verdict in the case of mistaken identity? |
| 89a. The noise will moderate when pneumatic hammers stop working. | 89b. As a moderate Paul wouldn't use force or threaten his adversaries in any way.89c. At the press conference the official called for moderation explaining that they may have overlooked the fact that any theft of national property had taken place.89d. Who told the moderator that it could be implied that the other side did their utmost to pretend they knew nothing about the discovery of a new heavenly body? | 89e. A nicely dressed mill owner said to the guest sitting next to him that he had moderate expectations regarding the number of dishes on his daily dinner table. |
| 90a. The reporter will have to modify the text as the verdict has been overturned by the appeal court. | 90b. The outgoing supervisor says that the modification of the communication system he has been introducing would further improve the co-operation between the companies. | 90c. They were eager to present their modified views on the issues of great importance, different from the one-sided ones they had formerly held. |
| 91a. If nobody stops | 91b. Studying how | 91e. Their spiritual leader |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| them they will completely monopolize the sphere of social life. | monopolization develops will help to work out ways of counteracting it.91c. How does this monopolist deal with the complaints his customers make about the products?91d. What will the group do now to maintain the monopoly on the services they provide? | reminded them that both men and women play vital roles in perfecting their monopolistic practices. |
| 92a. The boss is bound to moralize that overhearing people's private conversations is unethical. | 92b. Did the critic talking about the nude scenes in the film analyze the director's morality?92c. When the kids got sick they remembered that the moralist had warned them not to play naked in the cold outdoors.92d. The staff was told they must keep their morale high even if they don't get paid for the job.92e. Your opponent also knows what the moral of the story is.92f. Can Rupert lose a lucrative position in the military if he can't prove that his inferior was leading a life of immorality? | 92g. Acting according to your moral courage means that you do what you think is right.92h. The producer of disposable needles tried to mobilize his labourers (laborers) to work harder, saying that there was nothing immoral about wanting to earn more money.92i. Being greedy, amoral and dishonest were the key factors that allowed Samuel to make his millions.92j. The comments made by the journalists after the mob had demolished the offices were a bit moralistic, weren't they? |
| | 93a. Thanks to the new safety procedures they are mildly optimistic about reducing road accident mortalities.93b. Martyrs believe in the immortality of the ideas they sacrifice their lives for.93c. Show business can significantly contribute to securing immortality of the great deeds. | 93d. It would be unwise to try to do away with the phenomenon which has already become immortal.93e. Will a vet kill the animal which is not mortally ill? |
| 94a. The desire to be independent motivated Christine to act. | 94b. His motives are unclear to us.94c. Can you name the motivators that drive you? | 94d. This young man seems (to be) very motivated to realize his dreams.94e. Leokadia's initial |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| | | successes were very motivating for her. |
| 95a. The pressure on the decision makers is going to mount so they must use all their abilities to solve the economic problems, as their voters persistently support them and nobody else will stand in for them to do their job. | 95b. You can’t climb Mount Everest when you have only onions and mustard to eat.95c. Observe the other climbers from the peak of the mountain and inform them about every error they are making so that they can correct it and continue their journey upwards.95d. The mountaineer looked at the moon to make sure he was hiking in the right direction.95e. If you treat mountaineering seriously you choose the trail which (that) will lead you successfully straight to the summit. | 95f. Did anybody present at the party with plates overflowed with food mention about a mounting concern that poverty may be difficult to eradicate?95g. If you live in a mountainous terrain you don’t complain about the monotony of the landscape.95h. It was a misty evening and at first we didn’t notice the mounted policemen. |
| 96a. How fast did the object move? (How fast was the object moving?) | 96b. How long will I wait for your move?96c. Someone (Somebody) said that motion is a relative notion.96d. What initiated that social movement? | 96e. When you pose for a portrait you have to stand motionlessly.96f. We couldn’t stop that moving robot.96g. It’s a pity this toy doesn’t have movable parts.96h. Don’t read your daughter this moving story because she will be overwhelmed by feelings of sadness and will find it difficult to fall asleep. |

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020