

3.16 Zastosowania czasów – podsumowanie – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

1. What didn't you tell them then?
2. I think this experiment will succeed. (I think this experiment will be a success.)
3. We wanted to recommend our products.
4. Jack still hasn't decided if (whether) to go abroad.
5. After it stops raining, we'll go to the garden (yard). (After it's stopped raining, we'll go to the garden (yard).)
6. In ten minutes we will have been waiting for our doctor for two hours!
(In ten minutes we'll have waited for our doctor for two hours!)
7. When I was watching the stars in the sky, I noticed that strange, violet object.
8. Has Justine never been to any farm?
9. We'll do what we think is the best.
10. The director will meet our new client at 4 p.m.
(The director is meeting our new client at 4 p.m.)
11. It's warm. Johnny has been wearing shorts recently (lately).
(It's warm. Johnny has worn shorts recently (lately).)
12. If you eat too little, you'll lose (take off) weight.
13. While we were walking in the woods, someone was robbing our car.
14. I won't take part in the game!
15. Victor has run his own business before.
16. When the guests come (arrive), we'll light the candles on the cake.
17. My father will be dissatisfied even if I do it the best I can.
18. I surf (on) the Internet every day.
19. Some children (kids) don't like to go to school.
20. Haven't we delivered those bricks to them yet?
21. Magda was doing a crossword puzzle then.
22. His clothes smell of cigarette smoke.
23. What does your brother mean?
24. It's the third time they've tried to explain it to you.
25. If you are late, we won't let you in.
26. As soon as you stop crying, I'll give you a lollipop.
27. The policeman then sees (meets) the drug dealer (pusher).
28. We finish our trip on the 22nd of September.
29. I've just written a letter to the editors of this weekly magazine.
30. Michael is hovering (vacuum cleaning) his room now.
31. Aren't they building in our city too many new shopping malls (centres)?
32. Our headmaster normally goes (gets) to work by car, but this spring he's going by bus.
33. We're flying to New York in June.
34. The man who lives opposite us is never saying "Good morning".
(The man who lives opposite us never says "Good morning".)
35. Sarah is seeing her godmother today.
36. Chris has lost his wallet.
37. By seven p.m. we'll have instructed you how the program works.
38. What has Ian prepared (made) for dinner?

39. Our son hasn't lived with us for some time now.
(Our son hasn't been living with us for some time now.)
40. Your cousin has always been nice (kind) to us.
41. I wasn't eating anything sweet all last week.
(I didn't eat anything sweet all last week.)
42. When you've finished taking your shower, come to the kitchen.
(When you finish taking your shower, come to the kitchen.)
43. We've been calculating production costs of our new toothpaste.
(We're calculating production costs of our new toothpaste.)
44. You've been tinkering with the lock, that's why I can't open it now.
45. I've been checking (correcting) my students' tests since (the/this) morning and I've checked (corrected) thirty of them so far.
46. Your girlfriend left ten minutes ago.
47. Catching the mouse took us all night. (It took us all night to catch the mouse.)
48. First we discussed contemporary music, then we talked about the policy of our new government. (First we were discussing contemporary music, then we were talking about the policy of our new government.)
49. If you changed your mind, you should let me know about it.
50. The day before yesterday at six a.m. Adam was standing in (on) the street in front of your house.
51. We were wondering if you could clean the carpet for us.
52. Suppose people weren't watching television at all.
(Suppose people didn't watch television at all.)
53. By the time our plane with food gets to the desert, those people will have been left without any help for nearly (almost) a week.
54. They were getting engaged then and were planning their wedding.
55. When (After) the street riots ended (had ended), some owners returned to their shops.
56. What programme (program) were you watching then?
57. By the time I chop the onion, my daughter will bring (get) me mayonnaise from the shop.
58. By the time the media got interested in the fate of the entrepreneur, his firm had gone bankrupt.
59. The woman was constantly interrupting me!
60. When our yacht gets to (reaches) (the) land, we'll be exhausted but happy.
61. Paul had (already) trained weightlifting for some time when he decided to try to break the national record.
62. Whenever you're sad, I'll cheer you up.
63. My grandma asked me if I'd grown tomatoes before.
64. The boys will be playing field hockey now.
(The boys are probably playing field hockey now.)
65. We've been sending our correspondents to this country for some time now.
66. Ala isn't singing at the concert on Sunday.
(Ala isn't going to sing at the concert on Sunday.)
67. She was 80 and was very rich. She regretted she hadn't married that poor boy (that/who) she'd loved.
68. While I'm frying the chicken, you'll be peeling the potatoes.
69. The taxi will come soon (right away).
70. What if the fox had had rabies?
71. How long had Tom been unemployed before he started an Internet firm?
72. By tomorrow you'll have got (gotten) rid of that cough.

73. The scouts had been singing that song for years so they knew the lyrics well.
74. What trees will you plant by the pond? (What trees are you going to plant by the pond?)
75. James didn't write a lot because he hadn't read the book the composition concerned (was about).
76. We'll be informing you about the progress of the elections.
(We'll inform you about the progress of the elections.)
77. If you'd been recording the conversations, you would have been able to present them to the court. (If you'd recorded the conversations, you would have been able to present them to the court.)
78. I'm not going to support that candidate.
79. The customs officer said (that) he'd checked the tourist's baggage (luggage) very thoroughly (carefully).
80. I won't deal with it till (until) you tell me how much you'll (you're going to) pay me.
81. I asked Michael why he wasn't going to buy the shares.
82. What will you be working on (at) this time the day after tomorrow?
83. Father says (that) work and passions bring (give) happiness.
84. Children will be learning (how) to use the computer at an earlier age (when they are younger and younger).
85. On Thursday Waldek won't have had any news from his daughter for a year. (On Thursday Waldek won't have heard from his daughter for a year.)
86. When I come back (return), we're going to bake delicious cookies.
(When I come back (return), we'll bake delicious cookies.)
87. What time does their plane land?
87. How will they be producing artificial snow in the future?
(How will they produce artificial snow in the future?)
89. We haven't been to the mountains for three years.
90. Eva was going to invite us.
91. Who is going to wash the windows before Easter? (Who will wash the windows before Easter?)
92. Since when (How long) hasn't there been any rain in this region?
(Since when (How long) hasn't it rained in this region?)
93. You'll have to answer a few questions.
94. It's ages since I last was in the opera.
95. Will people be choosing better leaders for themselves in the future?
(Will people choose better leaders for themselves in the future?)
96. We haven't been arguing (quarreling/fighting) with each other since last month.
(We haven't argued (quarrelled/fought) with each other since last month.)
97. This outfit is going to be very elegant (smart). (This outfit will be very elegant (smart).)
98. When his father (had) lost his job, he started living in (on) the street.
99. How much money have you invested in that venture up to the present moment (up till now/so far)?
100. In the evening Klara was reading a book, as usual. (In the evening Klara read a book, as usual.)
101. Have men ever understood women?
102. The prosecutor was just going to issue a warrant to stop that politician.
103. When did the high waves flood the village?
104. Has our friendship ever really mattered to you?
105. How long has Barbara been a member of this organization?
106. We expect (that) you won't disappoint us.

107. When we were at the lake, we canoed every day.
108. How many loaves of bread have we given away to the homeless today?
109. They've been preparing for the event very carefully.
110. The storm and the falling trees had cut off the electricity supply and the villagers had to cope without it.