12.6 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od p i q
Część 1/2 Zdania 1a - 61f – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
1a. Some prankster wanted to pack a python into the box with potatoes. 1b. Be careful when you unpack the carton with porcelain cups and saucers.	1c. The package couldn't have contained precious platinum bars because it was too light. 1d. The package tour includes a visit to the palace which (that) the princess called her paradise. 1e. Julia opened the packet and took out a pink, pear-shaped bottle of perfume. 1f. Packing dozens of pairs of shoes and boots must have taken you quite some time.	1g. What if the packed peaches and pumpkins have gone bad (off)?
2a. The pensioner was deeply pained by the fact that his pension didn't allow him to pay all his bills.	2b. Why was the patient suffering from acute chest pain given a placebo? 2c. Danny went to great pains to choreograph that pantomime performance. 2d. How did people cope with pain prior to the time when painkillers were invented?	2e. The inventor wasn't put off by the perspective of a painful process of designing a portable liquid gas pump. 2f. My predecessor described the phase of the experience as painless. 2g. The physicists opted for painstaking analyses of the peculiar optic phenomena.
3a. When did the artist paint those unparalleled portraits of a pawnbroker and a poacher?	3b. Perhaps they wanted to see what is hidden underneath the upper coat of paint? 3c. Has the painting been properly preserved? 3d. The painter is known for creating surprising, curved patterns.	3e. The freshly painted wall is wet and will take an hour to dry.
	4a. Did the query concern the prince's parents? 4b. Can lenient upbringing	4e. It was plain that Chris was prudent and treated his parental duties make young people unprepared for the responsibilities of parenthood? 4c. Good parenting includes teaching your children to be suspicious of false friends. 4d. Does the fact that Ada's parents-in-law are both physicians mean that they are absolutely trustworthy?	responsibly.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

5a. You shouldn't have parked your car under the tree in which a lot of pigeons and crows were sitting.	5b. In the southern part of the park pines (pine trees), spruces and firs grow. 5c. The previous owner of the plot had a parking lot here. 5d. There are plenty of parking meters in the area so you'll find one. 5e. If you park in a no parking zone you can be pretty sure to find a parking ticket stuck under a wiper on the windscreen of your car.	5f. Was the driver you saw in the parked bus puffing a cigar?
6a. When will Frank have to part from (with) his family?	6b. Which part of the story did you like most? 6c. Do you know the party's program (platform)? 6d. Before I make a decision I have to consult it with my partner. 6e. What was your parting like? 6f. Michael knows little about Poland's partitions. 6g. Our partnership has lasted for a few years now.	6h. Was the decision of the court impartial? 6i. Adam's arguments are only partially (partly) true. 6j. I'm changing my job partly due to a bad atmosphere in the office. (I'm changing my job partly because of a bad atmosphere in the office.)
7a. The peasants who (that) participated in the march were eager to talk to the Minister of Agriculture about the principal rules according to which the system worked.	7b. The participation of the prominent celebrity in the pacification action was said to have been unplanned. 7c. It was most crucial for them to pinpoint the participants who (that) weren't supposed to enter the next stage of the contest.
8a. Does the	8b. The paediatrician	8d. What is so special in company's prospect particularize the weaknesses in its management?	(pediatrician) wanted to know the particulars of the symptoms of the disease. 8c. The particularity of the designer becomes clear once you've studied his portfolio.	this particular pearl? 8e. Children are particularly prone to infections caused by the pathogen.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

9a. We hoped the time our pet had to spend in quarantine would pass quickly.	9b. The climbers didn't expect the newly discovered mountain pass to be so perilous. 9c. Did you read the passage of the book about passive smoking? 9d. 60 per cent (percent) of the passengers on the boat were seasick. 9e. The passer-by who found the parcel on the pavement says there was a parrot inside. 9f. The passing of the new law will be of paramount importance. 9g. Why did Thomas use his pseudonym as the password? 9h. Some of the parishioners who (that) were going on the pilgrimage to Rome had to have their passports renewed.	9i. The only road leading to the quarry will be passable when the boulder that is blocking it is moved. 9j. Can you believe that none of the passing people helped the boy who was carrying a heavy plank?
	10a. How exactly was the patient deceived by the pharmaceutical company? 10b. The physics teacher is unlikely to lose patience with his pupils. 10c. Impatience won't help if you are undergoing a physiotherapy treatment.	10d. While some impatient spectators were beginning to panic, the patient ones quietly formed a queue towards the exit. 10e. Sean impatiently turned the pages to find the paragraph in which the protagonist of the novel was introduced.
	11a. "Zero quota for pesky patriots. The more palpable their desperate plight is the better," the party representative told	11c. "We'll give you back your pretty girlfriend, you'll forget about your patriotic feelings and we'll forget you are the official confidentially. 11b. Will the government promote the professor who (that) claims that there is no place for patriotism in a multicultural society?	a partisan," the officer proposed.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

12a. When did you pay the last installment?	12b. We're offering you a higher pay. 12c. The payment is due at the end of the month. 12d. On pay day Sarah usually buys flour, milk and eggs and makes pancakes for her kids. 12e. You might be the rightful owner of the pay dirt but the treasure it contains can be poached, thus you will never hit (strike) pay dirt. 12f. This poor woman manufactures beautiful hand-made quilts but her protectors assure us that the company that buys her products are not good payers. 12g. "In case of a "disobedient" payee, pay him for his work less than what he has to pay you. He will file for bankruptcy and you will eliminate him from the market," we read in a government official's private notebook. 12h. Greedy and ruthless paymasters guarantee profits, as they constantly invent financial pitfalls for their suppliers from which the poor souls have no escape. 12i. Bear in mind that refusing their pay-off means peril as you are sending them a signal that they can't control you totally. 12j. What percentage of	12l. Part of this sum (amount) is payable now. 12m. The unpaid bills terrified Halina.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	participants win in beauty contests or get lucrative advertising contracts or lottery payouts? 12k. Mr Brown has a permanent job and his name is on the firm's payroll.
	13a. What should be done to change the phrase "impermanent peace" in the treaty? 13b. A peacemaker would ponder whether the principles and priorities which (that) had been presented to him were the right ones. 13c. Peacetime gave the pianist an opportunity to develop his skills and gain international prestige.	13d. Haven't they repeatedly pledged to look for peaceful solutions to the problem of social inequalities? 13e. What does this peace-loving pagan expect? 13f. The peacekeeping mission was meant to be a panacea for saving the endangered species from extinction.
14a. What are the prospects for the system which (that) penalizes the vast poor majority of people and gives all kinds of advantages to the privileged minority?	14b. So you say there are serious errors in the Penal Code but those who committed them secured their impunity by not introducing any law that allows to punish them? 14c. Is depriving a miser of any possibility to collect money a customized penalty?	14d. Are those pale prisoners standing on the platform to be sent to a penal colony?
15a. Phobias are usually perceived as unexplainable eccentricities	15b. What is a general public perception of the authorities' efforts to make up for the past wrongs? 15c. „Creatures vary in terms of their perceptiveness of true intentions of another creature," the predator said to its prey.	15d. A perceptive person should notice a difference between a puma's and cheetah's paw. 15e. The tension among the members of the club who (that) feared they might be purged was perceptible. 15f. Per capita usage of fresh water has decreased imperceptibly this year.
16a. If you are passionate about your	16b. As a gymnast Kate has achieved physical perfection.	16f. The stunt had been planned perfectly and job you are eager to perfect your abilities.	16c. Observing imperfections in the functioning of the internal organs of the parasite enabled the scientists to prevent a pandemic it could have caused. 16d. For a perfectionist being proficient in a foreign language can be a good beginning of more in-depth studies. 16e. Do perfectionism and creativity really exclude each other?	the parachute opened at the right moment. 16g. The confusion may have been caused by your imperfect understanding of the definitions given in that dictionary.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

17a. We wonder how our (racing) driver will perform (in) (the) next season.	17b. We must (have to) hire better performers. 17c. It was one of the best performances of the saxophonist. 17d. Which companies subsidize the performing arts in the country?
18a. The archeologists were permitted to set up a camp near the pyramid they intended to explore.	18b. How long have they been growing poppy in your field without your permission? 18c. Who issued that work permit?	18d. Permissive attitudes of those in power gave their peers the green light to abuse the rules and ridicule the justice system.
19a. Expose their true face and the members of this organization will persecute you relentlessly and will turn your life into hell.	19b. Did you like the puppet show about the victim of persecution who gradually began to enjoy his plight? 19c. Are the persecutors from their payroll assessed as either efficient or not per annum (annually) or per month (monthly)?
20a. Wasn't it a paradox that the more the teacher persevered with his difficult student the more resistant to pressure the student became?	20b. Introducing profound changes requires (takes) courage, passion and dogged perseverance in the face of difficulties.	20c. The quest for solving this problem requires (takes) persevering endeavour (endeavor).
21a. Do they persist in claiming that they had nothing to do with	21b. Permanence of peace is best supported by the persistence of efforts to	21c. Isn't their persistent denial of obvious facts a parody of a plea of not the outbreak of the plague?	maintain it.	guilty? 21d. The proverb states that persuasive and persisting insinuations may with time become beliefs.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

22a. We're trying to personalize our services.	22b. Wouldn't you like to be a better person? 22c. A lot has been written about the difficult personality of the artist. 22d. Who will talk to the personnel?	22e. You take it too personally. 22f. Big hospitals often treat patients impersonally.
23a. Now you'll have to persuade also me. (Now you'll also have to persuade me.) (Now you'll have to persuade me also.)	23b. At last Jola gave in to her friends' persuasions.	23c. Your mother's arguments weren't persuasive enough.
	24a. In the preface the author says that his pessimism was a pretext for trying to become a pathfinder. 24b. You may expect that a pessimist would take all reasonable precautions in order not to get to the point when he had to pawn his last gold watch.	24c. Don't be so pessimistic. An honest person may have found your purse and will soon return it to you.
25a. The thought of a high premium he had to pay every month pestered Larry.	25b. Pests will thrive as long as the creatures they feed on (off) remain passive and are unable to protect themselves against their eaters. 25c. Having a picnic in the meadow isn't a good idea as farmers have just been spraying pesticides in the area.
26a. Did the pedestrian who (that) photographed paparazzi chasing the singer sell his pictures?	26b. The photographs (photos) of POWs (prisoners of war) which (that) are on display in the National Gallery are compellingly poignant, aren't they? 26c. The photographer took several pictures (photos) of	26f. You can borrow the necessary photographic equipment from your pal, can't you?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the panorama. 26d. If you can't make your career in photography, don't quit the art but treat it as a wonderful pastime. 26e. Photographic memory is very useful when you are learning the contents of the periodic table.
27a. Dorothy picked the white pedigree puppy with a brown patch on its muzzle. 27b. They are coming to pick me up at nine and we're going to the Main Market Square to watch the parade.	27c. Is it already known who the pick of the bunch is? 27d. Can't your pal lend you his pick-up to get the peas and parsley to the market place? 27e. It's not enough for a pickpocket to admit that stealing someone's belongings is improper. 27f. The porter told me that in the past he worked as a strawberry picker.
28a. How did the employer picture the prodigy child once they realized they would never be able to profit from his creations?	28b. How did the artist achieve the effect of great disproportion between the size of a peanut and a pear in the picture?	28c. A gripping plot and a picturesque setting are vital to the success of a movie.
29a. The method has pioneered a much more efficient way of learning foreign languages.	29b. Paving the way for this pioneer design was a painstaking and perilous process.	29c. Mishandling this pioneering work on infant mortality would be unpardonable, wouldn't it?
30a. The fruit seller told the reporter he was barely making his ends meet because his e-books were being pirated and he was making almost no money out of them.	30b. The pirate told the craftsman that he would spare his life if the man keeps churning out his artefacts (artifacts). 30c. If piracy no longer guarantees them prosperity, what does?
31a. Do you want to be the one who is forever pitied for having a dead end job?	31b. Did Amelia take pity on the injured, always hungry beast with long, sharp fangs?	31c. Allowing the fire to spread and not containing it would be a pitiable act. 31d. We peeked inside and we saw that the penthouse where the parliamentarian lived was in a pitiful disorder. 31e. How was it possible that pitiless tyrants, like the emperor Nero, kept petrifying and sentencing to death people for so long? 31f. A pitying grimace appeared on the boss's face when he saw the pile of paperwork on his clerk's desk.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

32a. Did Allan choose the right place to plant the seedlings?	32b. What was the role of the most decorative plants in their garden? 32c. Only those who were taking care of the plantation were allowed to take part in the harvest. 32d. Is the earth in the plant pot top quality?
33a. Not only do they have money to play with but also well equipped and devoted followers.	33b. In the original version of the play there was the crucifixion and the resurrection. 33c. Each player must learn to recognize which team another player belongs to. 33d. The more you know about the kids that come to this playground the better. 33e. How rare is an opportunity to take part in a play-off? 33f. Did the playwright know how the plot would end when he was in the middle of writing the script?	33g. Playful Andy hoped he would join the party when they serve the best desserts.
34a. If Ian pleases to eat pizza, he can do it. 34b. Your daughter wanted to please you, that's all.	34c. What kind (sort/type) of pleasure are you talking about?	34d. To befriend you they are pleasant and try to pamper you to make a preliminary assessment of how easy it will be for them to manipulate you in the future. 34e. The more immune to their incentives you become the more unpleasant the nasty pranks they are systematically experimenting on you are. 34f. Those words were pleasing to my ears. 34g. We'd be pleased if you visited us. 34h. Can learning (how) to paint be pleasurable?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

35a. Who will replace our priest? 35b. Where will we displace those people after closing (the closure of) the factory? 35c. I can't place this event in time.	35d. This is a perfect place to build a house. 35e. Did you calculate the cost of the replacement of all the windows?	35f. Not all (of the) parts are replaceable.
36a. Once Martin plumbed the depths of the jet engine construction he began to think how to improve its efficiency.	36b. The plumber poured special dissolvent to clear the siphon (syphon) under the sink. 36c. Will they use plastic or copper pipes in the plumbing?
	37a. Will Martha be able to learn this long poem by heart for tomorrow? 37b. The poet said peeling potatoes is a petty activity not worthy of mention. 37c. Not every portion of poetry is easily palatable.	37d. The scene which (that) frightened you and sent your pulse racing was, in the director's opinion, the most poetic one in the film.
38a. We're pointing at the necessity of carrying out the reforms.	38b. Try to look at it from another point of view.	38c. Persuading the father turned out to be pointless. 38d. The plug is pointed, as is the hole it fits. 38e. The actress refused point-blank to be photographed but a paparazzo took a series of snapshots anyway.
39a. The crime rate has been reduced to almost zero because	39b. The police didn't have to pacify the crowd as nobody violated law and the area has been regularly policed.	order. 39c. Did the police officer make sure nobody had tinkered with the padlock? 39d. The documents can't have perished at the police station, can they? 39e. Can a community function lawfully without policing?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

40a. What percentage of the vote did the proponents of social justice poll?	40b. They will react depending on the results of the opinion polls. 40c. How many promises have they made before polling day? 40d. The pollster asked the man if his wages kept pace with inflation. 40e. Wait a moment as the polling booth is being occupied. 40f. What time do polling stations close? 40g. Samantha claims that the solution chosen through polling will most likely prove to be completely inefficient. 40h. Will you take part in the polls?
41a. What another social problem will they politicize?	41b. A politician without charisma shouldn't be chosen (as) the leader. 41c. What external policy does the opposition propose? 41d. Politics is a common subject of men's talks (conversations). 41e. The structure of modern society has become so complex that political sciences have had to be created to find ways how to manage it. 41f. Political scientists develop methods how to polarize people's opinions	41g. What's the use of all those political discussions?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	and how to gain public support for certain ideologies.
42a. The land is populated mainly by tortoises and pelicans.	42b. What's the current (present) population of this country?
43a. How are you going to popularize an economical (a thrifty) lifestyle among rich people?	43b. Our aim is the popularization of an active lifestyle. 43c. What caused the popularity of these ideas?	43d. Our biology teacher is very popular with the students. 43e. Such a decision of (from) the Health Minister will be unpopular with the patients.
44a. Due to (As a result of) the earthquake they lost everything they possessed.	44b. He was charged with illegal possession of narcotics (drugs).	44c. Is this woman really possessed? 44d. John is possessive and can't stand the fact that somebody (someone) earns more than he does.
45a. How many parcels have you posted today?	45b. Your complaint may have got lost in the post so you should have delivered it personally. 45c. Is this a proper candidate for the post? 45d. Mick saw this poster at the post office. 45e. Henia checked the postcode (postal code) through the Internet. 45f. Why was the post person questioned by the police patrol? 45g. The letter was very thick and when Celia poked it into the postbox it got stuck in the slot.	45h. Are postal charges going to increase again?
46a. Why don't we empower Randal to represent us? 46b. The car is powered by electricity and petrol.	46c. Their military power is impressive. 46d. Is a bonfire the earliest example of a power station that (which) supported humans in their development? 46e. What will happen to the economic powerhouses that (which) have built their might	46f. Psychological tortures are powerful and dangerous weapons. 46g. We are powerless against the degradation of the environment that we've caused. 46h. You know who sold you this calculator lying to you that it is on deception and unscrupulous exploitation of the naivety of the governments of other countries, once the free market economy proves to be a cardinal sin?	solar-powered, don't you?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

47a. They claim that thanks to this technology they won't pollute the soil and ground water.	47b. How do you measure the level of air pollution in the centre (center) of town? 47c. Obviously, this cattle farm is a polluter. 47d. Can you name a few chemical compounds that (which) are pollutants?	47e. It's (the) cheapest to take the polluted substances abroad. 47f. Keeping the area unpolluted may require quite an effort.
48a. They poisoned the spy with the (a) radioactive substance.	48b. We mustn't (can't) allow the poison to leak into the river.	48c. Poisonous substances are kept in lead containers.
49a. What can we do (so that) not to impoverish the soil?	49b. Dominic says that in the future more and more people will live in poverty.	49c. Poor people are sometimes happier than the rich ones. 49d. These shoes are poorly made. 49e. Farmers are impoverished and the middle-men are richer and richer.
50a. How long did you practise (practice) this piece of music before the performance?	50b. Is it difficult to prove a lawyer legal malpractice? 50c. What did your general practitioner say? 50d. In practice, we exchange (the) faulty products with new ones. 50e. If the device wasn't designed by one of them, they will be vehemently undermining its practicality. 50f. They know very well that practical jokes can even a saint make seem ridiculous and stupid.	50g. Edward's advice was very practical. 50h. This huge hat is rather impractical. 50i. Is Norbert still a practising (practicing) actor?
51a. They praised their queen as she represented the values they strongly believed in.	51b. They say that if you care for the pastures, you can win high praise even from your adamant critics.	51c. The party spokesperson characterized the attempts to tackle corruption as praiseworthy.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

52a. Let's ask the women from that parish what they pray for.	52b. The greedy villain was pronounced guilty, thus his prayers for failing to notice his crimes must have been ignored.
53a. The priest preached that the wrongdoers who repented and made up for their misdeeds would be pardoned.	53b. The preacher hoped the sinners would take their chances and transform themselves into righteous and trustworthy individuals.
54a. Presented conclusions were preceded by over fifty years of research and attentive observations of the particles and their interactions with other molecules.	54b. The shepherd says that securing the well-being of obedient and peace-loving sheep should always take precedence over securing the vested interests of the predators that attack them. 54c. Precedents are special because they necessitate the invention of new procedures.	54d. This version of the equation is unprecedented because the variable "y" is placed outside the parenthesis (brackets).
55a. Why didn't Leo preside at the debate?	55b. During his presidency our company flourished (thrived). 55c. Being the president is a great responsibility.	55d. Let's listen to what the presiding judge (has) decided.
56a. To start the device press this button.	56b. What (how much) pressure will this tyre (tire) withstand? 56c. Do you believe in all the gossip in the press about Sophie?	56d. Delivering pure water to the survivors is the most pressing issue (matter) now. 56e. None of my shirts are pressed.
	57a. Only robots will guarantee the high precision of making the details.	57b. Can you tell me more precisely what happened? 57c. The results of the survey are imprecise. 57d. What was the precise cause of the accident?
58a. Would you prefer not to work this Saturday?	58b. Our clients' preferences are the most important for (to) us.	58c. I don't expect (any) preferential conditions of employment. 58d. We'd like to stay for a week, preferably in a room overlooking the sea. (We'd like to stay for a week, preferably in a room with a view of the sea.)

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

59a. We'll closely watch if the employer prejudices the foreman against a disabled mechanic.	59b. When Romney pieced together all the facts he admitted his nephew didn't show any prejudice against the office staff he supervised.	59c. If the only thing the authorities offer desperate domestic entrepreneurs is taxing their savings, you get the impression that the state officials are prejudiced against their hard-working compatriots. 59d. They can easily prove they are unprejudiced by promoting the grandmother's various recipes for pork, pastries and home-made pasta in their popular weekly show: "Tempt Your Palate". 59e. Allowing those who (that) hold power to resign will free them from being held accountable for the errors they've committed and, in effect, will be the most prejudicial to the very victims of the unjust system.
60a. The thoughts how to provoke his friend to step into the puddle preoccupied Winston for a long time.	60b. Anthony's constant preoccupation is inventing what to do to ruin public image of the opponent he hasn't managed to bribe.	60c. When her student was talking about breeding penguins, his teacher was preoccupied with developing better teaching methods.
61a. The best way to prepare for the future is to keep those in power right where they are and not allow them to avoid responsibility for the state to which they've led their homeland.	61b. The preparations for the construction of the new road that runs parallel to the existing one should be underway (under way).	61c. Every detail must be carefully examined during the period of the preparatory studies. 61d. The pony had the saddle on and was prepared for a ride. 61e. Some doctors were unprepared for treating the new strain of pneumonia. 61f. The speech must have been ill-prepared as the audience were leaving the room.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020