12.5 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od: j, k, l, m, n, o
Część 1/3 Zdania 1a - 50e – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
1a. The library shelves were jammed (jam-packed) with thousands of books.	1b. Blackcurrant jam is rather sour and gooseberry one is quite sweet.	1c. We couldn't get into the jammed (jam-packed) concert hall.
	2a. Jealousy of her neighbour's (neighbor's) neatly maintained lawn inspired our landlady to sow new grass in her garden.	2b. Instead of feeling jealous of your friend's good marks study harder.
3a. The more they liberalized the law concerning juvenile delinquents the further it jeopardized public safety.	3b. The swarm of locusts was approaching and the farmer's corn in the field was in jeopardy.
	4a. Klara says that when she opened the case there were no jewels in it. 4b. Barbara was keen to see the jewellery (jewelry) displayed in the showcases. 4c. Ask a jeweller (jeweler) how much this golden chain can be worth.	4d. The lady hoped her jewelled (jeweled) necklace and bracelet would look impressive in the limelight.
5a. When Ellen joined the organization, she became its hundredth member.	5b. This ointment will ease the pain in your joints.	5c. The joint police forces of the two countries enabled them to catch the criminal.
6a. Not everybody (everyone) can (is able to) joke about themselves.	6b. Can you repeat that joke about a frog? 6c. What did the joker say?	6d. What did Lewis jokingly ask about?
	7a. Why don't you subscribe to a geographical journal? 7b. This university offers journalism studies at their	7d. With time you'll learn many more journalistic tricks.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	highest standards. 7c. With his linguistic talents Noel could be a journalist.
8a. We enjoyed listening to the concert.	8b. I like the way you show (express) your joy. 8c. The enjoyment of the meeting was indescribable.	8d. Katherine thanked her friends for an enjoyable evening. 8e. Provide juveniles with lots of joyful (joyous) forms of entertainment and they will be unfit for the hardships of an adult life. 8f. How many joyless hours did it take them to sort the junk mail?
9a. There are many ways of judging whether you are dealing with a corruptible or incorruptible individual.	9b. The judge asked the man what happened after he'd been lured into the house of his newly met friend. 9c. You can't afford a lack of judgement (judgment) when you intend to offer a person a job.	9d. Had they been more judgemental (judgmental) there wouldn't be so many loopholes in the judicial system.
10a. Nothing can justify betrayal.	10b. There won't be any justification for lying to me. (There'll be no justification for lying to me.) 10c. Who told you that justice is for everyone (everybody)? 10d. I can't accept (an) obvious injustice.	10e. The high mark (grade) (that) Anna got was justifiable. 10f. Sophie says that she is (being) treated unjustly. 10g. The (These) accusations are unjustified.
11a. The footballer leaned (leant) forward and kicked the ball straight into the goal. 11b. Was the advertising campaign meant to kick-start the reconciliation process?	11c. A kick in the shin is painful, isn't it? 11d. The voice coming from the loudspeakers was announcing the kick-off of the match. 11e. Like-minded people would never admit giving or taking any kickbacks.
	12a. What kind of literature is the most popular nowadays? 12b. John could at least demonstrate more kindness toward (towards)	12c. It was kind of our landlord to allow us to practise (practice) throwing a javelin in his huge garden. 12d. It was just an unintended lapse and his junior partners.	you shouldn't have reacted so unkindly.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

13a. Before you knock on (at) the door check if it's the right one.	13b. What were the immediate consequences of that nasty knock on your stomach? 13c. The doorbell doesn't work but there is a knocker. 13d. It was the knee injury that ultimately led to the knockout.	13e. One failure can have a knock-on effect and cause others.
14a. The PE (Physical Education) teacher told the pupils first to crouch, then kneel and next crawl across the gym (gymnasium).	14b. Knee injuries can be difficult to treat (cure).	14c. Monica is knee-deep in doing another jigsaw puzzle.
15a. What would they like to know about you?	15b. What kind of knowledge do we need? 15c. The unknown is intriguing. 15d. The know-how includes quick ways of tying and untying all kinds of knots.	15e. Thomas used to be a known traveller (traveler). 15f. Unknowingly, Marzena found herself among enemies. 15g. The painting by an unknown artist impressed me a lot. 15h. A cook must be knowledgeable about modern cooking utensils like a sieve, garlic press or ladle.
16a. Remember that although you both speak lingua franca, your opponent may completely lack self-criticism.	16b. The lack of an effective drug for this type of leukaemia (leukemia) inspired them to invent one.	16c. Some say this law is lacking in legitimate grounds.
17a. The kite landed on the limestone rock and when Fred jerked at the string it got stuck there.	17b. Farming the land is not an easy way of life. 17c. Growing cities require creating even bigger landfills to accommodate all the waste people produce. 17d. At this stage of the talks only a landmark ruling can result in any progress. 17e. What can discourage investors from ruining this beautiful, natural landscape? 17f. As a landscape architect Mick travelled (traveled) to many corners of the Earth in search for inspirations. 17g. Despite the fact that the latest landslide buried many houses, local people kept cutting down trees.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

18a. The coal will last us until(till) the spring comes.	18b. The last thing we would like to happen is an uncontrollable increase of the population of jellyfish in our sea.	18c. When did Henry last have similar problems with his larynx? 18d. This leaflet reads that a lasting effect can be achieved by using the medicine regularly. 18e. Lastly, the members of the jury can't have lapses of concentration.
19a. What are you laughing at?	19b. Their laughter is very loud. 19c. When Stella gets the jitters before a performance she gives a nervous laugh.	19d. It's a laughable problem, in comparison with my troubles. 19e. Billy's broken jaw and laryngitis are no laughing matter.
20a. So many new products are being launched that it's impossible to get to know all of them.	20b. Amputees and those with severe limb injuries anxiously awaited the launch of the brain-controlled prostheses. 20c. Did they install many firework launchers? 20d. The launch pad is located in a remote part of the desert.
21a. Anita is laundering her jerseys today.	21b. Perhaps Kevin left his green jumper in the launderette (laundrette)? 21c. How often do you do the laundry? 21d. The bank's president denied being implicated in various money laundering procedures.
	22a. My brother has never studied law.	22g. Can law-abiding citizens feel safe?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	22b. This woman needs a good lawyer now. 22c. Will Monty try to be a decent man and not to become a lawbreaker? 22d. Only a person of unquestionable honesty and integrity should become a lawmaker. 22e. The lawsuit should determine the forms of punishment for those liable for all the damage caused by the fateful political decisions. 22f. Lawlessness hardly ever benefits physically or mentally weak individuals.	22h. You lawlessly seized this land. 22i. Who participated in this unlawful act of violence?
23a. For this festive dinner lay the linen tablecloth edged with silk lace. 23b. As the sales of ladders were decreasing, the workers who made rungs feared to be laid off. 23c. Laying down the rules is not the matter of lesser importance.	23d. When the carpenters lifted the upper layer of wooden floorboards, they saw it lay on the surface of hard rock. 23e. Do you call Olivier a layman because he isn't a priest or because he isn't an expert in laser technologies? 23f. The voters have warned that officials who are unable to deliver what they have promised may face mass lay-offs. 23g. How long ago was the layout of the non-collision intersection (junction) presented to the authorities?	23h. The lecture about longevity should be understandable to a lay person who has little medical knowledge.
24a. While Martha was lazing about her sister was knitting warm socks.	24b. Robert says that laziness is a virtue, as it is the mother of inventiveness.	24c. Mark is a keen player and is never too lazy to play bridge with his friends.
25a. Linda wishes she'd listened more carefully to what her parents lectured her about.	25b. The lecture about leisure activities was less interesting than the one about lobsters and their habitats. 25c. The lecturer was a bit

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	jittery when he found out that his superior was to attend the seminar.
26a. Which countries legalized same-sex marriages?	26b. We're waiting for the legalization of the new law on public media. 26c. We have to check the legality of this transaction. 26d. How well does Adam know (the) present legislation?	26e. Is the possession of arms (weapons) legal in this country? 26f. These people come (are coming) here illegally.
27a. Don't labour (labor) away over those problems (tasks) for too long.	27b. How much do you pay your labourers (laborers)? 27c. What costs you more: labour (labor) or materials? 27d. The better skilled the labour (labor) force the greater their expectations are. 27e. How will the government counteract the instability in the labour (labor) market if the economy stagnates?	27f. Irene laboriously read every word of a long text. 27g. Not every article was laboured (labored).
	28a. There is little likelihood (that) the musicians will perform together.	28b. It's unlike your father to forget to buy batteries. 28c. Those who bet on that mare won a lot because she was an unlikely winner. 28d. Is Agnes likely to get the job? (Is it likely that Agnes will get the job?)
29a. Who will lend you so much money?	29b. You can join the loans from different banks into one. 29c. The lender smiled ingenuously and said I had no other choice but to repay the borrowed money together with the due interest. 29d. Can't you find a financial institution which offers lower lending rates? 29e. Who can build a secure future for themselves by lending and borrowing?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

30a. What if they misled us with their hints (clues)? 30b. Where does this road lead to?	30c. Which driver is in the lead now? 30d. With so (such) weak leadership this party doesn't have any (a) chance of survival. 30e. Let's find a better leader. 30f. We'd better make sure that the tools in the kit don't contain poisonous lead.	30g. Who played the leading role in reforming the organization? 30h. You misleadingly gave me the wrong telephone number. 30i. Unleaded (Lead-free) petrol is said to be safer for the environment than the one containing lead.
31a. The jar is fractured and that's why some jelly leaked from it.	31b. The leak of this confidential data to the press is being investigated. 31c. Has anybody estimated the leakage of water from the pipe?	31d. The plumber was asked to make a list of all leaky taps in the building.
32a. This youngster in a leather jacket is dangerously leaning out of the window.	32b. Arthur has always demonstrated a leaning towards (toward) choosing the most advantageous business opportunities.	32c. They were embracing themselves for rather lean, in terms of profits, years.
33a. When did you learn this (it)?	33b. Dorothy claims (maintains/says) that learning is great fun. 33c. Learners who use the method should regularly do ordered exercises.	33d. Is there a learned man here who would explain it to me?
34a. The earthquake levelled (leveled) the poorly built houses to the ground.	34b. They might have hidden the loot at a lower level of the underground corridors.	34c. Let's find a level piece of ground and have a picnic. 34d. A level-headed person would use the leverage the sound knowledge of the subject gives them.
35a. No one can liberate you from the obligations you voluntarily imposed on yourself.	35b. What kind of justice and liberty were they fighting for? 35c. Legalized liberation from slavery can be just the beginning of a long struggle for the actual one. 35d. How did the liberator reply to your letters? 35e. Frank calls himself a libertarian and he says he enjoys doing what he pleases.	35f. After ages of ideological indoctrinations the liberated people might not be able to recognize what for them the lesser evil is.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

36a. Who licensed the firm to produce the substances which (that) are harmful to our health?	36b. If the quality of the drug doesn't meet our expectations, the licence (license) you have to produce it will be taken away from you.	36c. The owners of the licensed guns may not like the tightening of the liberal law.
37a. If you are tired you can lie down for half an hour. 37b. The keeper was cleaning the cage while the wild cat was lying idle after being fed. 37c. How long has the lad lain on the floor? 37d. The knight couldn't have lied to his soldiers about his legacy.	37e. Could the librarian have told you all those lies?
38a. Don't let anybody (anyone) limit your freedom. (Don't allow anybody to limit your freedom.)	38b. This (The) runner on (with) the prosthetic legs proves that you can overcome almost every limitation. 38c. Where are the limits to his competences?	38d. We have limited knowledge about it. 38e. The imagination of some people seems limitless. 38f. They say that he has limitless power. (He is said to have limitless power.)
39a. People obediently lined up in a long queue and waited for free loaves of bread to be distributed.	39b. Vertical longitude lines and horizontal, parallel to the equator latitude lines, allow us to locate any place on the globe. 39c. Is this luxury cruise liner to let?	39d. They were used to steady, linear growth of their salaries. 39e. The image of the lined face of the man Vincent met in the jungle lingered on in his mind.
40a. Let's do something to liven up the party. 40b. Who lives in this house?	40c. A farmer's life isn't boring (dull) at all. 40d. What would your son like to do for a living? 40e. After the cyclone thousands of people lost their livelihood. 40f. The more you can learn in the course of your lifetime the luckier you are. 40g. What was the life	40h. Have you ever been a live-in housekeeper? 40i. It was a live interview. 40j. I took part (participated) in a lively discussion.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	expectancy in the Middle Ages?
41a. It was getting dark so we lit the lamp. 41b. Can the bank lighten this family's debt so that their financial situation becomes less severe?	41c. The light is burning in his room so Charles is probably in. 41d. Before the storm with lightning starts you'd better go into that house with a lightning conductor. 41e. Who is in charge of the lighthouse now?	41f. Grandpa picked up his granddaughter, put her on his lap and said: "She is as light as a feather". 41g. Lighted candles showed us the way out of the cave. 41h. Who is this light-hearted boy leaping around the terrace? 41i. The man in a light-coloured (light-colored) jacket who is juggling the balls is Susan's brother-in-law.
42a. For the time being you can link the bike to the fence with a leash.	42b. Is there any evidence for a causal link between the facts? 42c. The linkage between motivations and actual behaviours (behaviors) of a person can be complicated.	42d. The commercial success of the new generation of lenses is closely linked to the efficiency of the advertising campaign.
	43a. How widespread is computer literacy in that country? 43b. The activists of the voluntary movement leapt at the opportunity of taking part in the worldwide action aiming at eradicating illiteracy.	43c. A literate person is probably more likely to learn a variety of new skills. 43d. Are they illiterate because they can't read and write or because they don't know any craft?
44a. The leaves the wind blew in through the balcony door littered the floor of the lounge.	44b. The more we manufacture the more litter is dropped in every place which (that) is accessible to humans. 44c. Did all the puppies from the litter look the same?
45a. Lever the lid off the barrel and load it with rice.	45b. The lorries can carry heavy loads, can't they? 45c. Since the lot was sold to a mining corporation loaders have been working there every day.	45d. This steel-like lump of metal is loaded with chemical elements.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

46a. Are you going to lengthen your stay in (at) the hotel? 46b. We all longed for a rest.	46c. What's the length of the river? 46d. Modern medicine has a big influence on longevity. 46e. Do you know the longitude of this capital?	46f. Long-haul flights can be tiresome. 46g. It's a long story. 46h. Only pensioners have enough time to listen to lengthy debates. 46i. Well planned and long-running efforts can bring extraordinary results. 46j. Where do they keep their long-range missiles? 46k. When one side presented their long-sighted policy they expected the other side to do likewise.
	47a. Do you think John is a loner? 47b. Loneliness must be terrible. 47c. Is it a lone-parent family?	47d. I read this ad (advert/advertisement) in a lonely hearts column. 47e. Renata doesn't feel lonely when she's working (when she works). 47f. Was this girl (at) home alone?
48a. To a greater or lesser degree, everybody looked amused by the leapfrog sketch.	48b. Was the sentence so lenient due to the offender's innocent look? 48c. Helen's lookalike (double) has a little narrower lips, doesn't she? 48d. The watchdogs will keep a lookout for any positive changes in their approach to the underprivileged members of the society.
49a. Frank loosened his belt. 49b. This scandal will loose a barrage of speculations.	49c. Someone saw the elk on the loose in (on) the street.	49d. Why don't you put on this loose sweater? 49e. We talked (were talking) about it rather loosely.
50a. Brenda won't take the risk because she has too much to lose.	50b. Usually, you become a loser on your own wish. 50c. This year we can expect financial losses. 50d. There is a special office where you can report your lost property.	50e. Barbara doesn't accept the existence of lost hope.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020