12.9 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od: t, u, v, w, z
Część 7/9 Zdania 124aa - 137oc – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
124aa. Please don't leave the freezer door open because the food inside will warm (up) and it can start defrosting. 124ab. The customers may notice that and will not buy packets with partially defrosted products.	124b. A five-minute warm-up started and the coach ordered the class to tiptoe briskly a full circle around the gym. 124c. The sunrays were getting into the room and when Oliver touched the cracking veneer of the chest by the window, he felt its warmth under his fingertips. 124d. When the journalists start asking really tough questions, the earlier announced warming of their relationships with the officials may actually not come about at all.	124ea. Ophelia says they invested a lot in purchasing the best insulating materials. 124eb. They made every endeavour (endeavor) to properly insulate the walls of their newly built house, since summers are warm where they live but winters tend to be severe, with gusty, freezing winds, heavy snowfalls and very low temperatures.
125a. Anna washed the woolen scarf and gloves, wrung them and hung on the (washing/clothes) line over a large plastic bowl so that the dripping water wouldn't wet the wooden floor in the attic. 125ba. Some barns in which the farmers kept their grain and animals were far from the river banks. 125bb. When the violent storms and flood came they weren't washed away and carried by the strong current together with all the	125fa. The Cranes' housekeeper had fallen ill. 125fb. A huge load of washing had accumulated over a few days and their home needed a good clean-up. 125fc. Mrs. Crane tried to phone the agent who (that) normally sent them the house helpers but she was unable to talk with him as the line was busy all the time. 125ga. Linda contacted the service and asked them to send someone to fix her broken washing machine. 125gb. The clerk explained to her that their engineers and technicians were busy as they all went to mend the devices in the city's launderettes (laundrettes/Laundromats).	125ia. The foreman led his people into the basement where they saw piles of all sorts of dirty uniforms. 125ib. He told them that their first job was to segregate the clothes. 125ic. They were to check what the labels on the outfits read. 125id. They were to place the washable items separately from the ones which (that) ought to be dry-cleaned. 125ja. The advertisement encourages customers to buy this delicate detergent. 125jb. If you wash your clothes using this substance, the colours (colors) will never look pale and washed out.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

garbage and debris. 125ca. As it was expected, Malcolm volunteered to wash up after the festive, grand family party. 125cb. His brothers and sisters eagerly registered to collect the dirty dishes and leftovers. 125cc. They knew exactly where the amused guests left them scattered all around the family estate, because they knew it perfectly well. 125d. Had Willy washed down the third tablet with a sufficient amount of water, it would have moved to his stomach smoothly. 125e. To wash out the stains on the trousers Timothy used the chemical which (that) the shop assistant had recommended to him.	125gc. Linda needed clean clothes for her kids so she used her washbasin and bathtub and washed her children's outfits by hand herself. 125ha. Benjamin was buying washing-up liquid in a supermarket when he ran into his old pal Karl from high school. 125hb. Karl, who came to the supermarket to buy washing powder, told Benjamin that the band of which once they both were big fans was playing a concert in a neighbouring (neighboring) town. 125hc. Benjamin wished he could go to see the concert but it was not possible. 125hd. He was just getting down to resolving some long overdue issues. 125he. He had promised his boss to see to them a long time before. 125hf. It turned out that Karl couldn't go to the concert either. 125hg. He had declared to help his wife with different jobs around the house on that day.
126a. Don't waste this chance (this opportunity) of a lifetime.	126b. The spokesperson of the manufacturer maintains that they don't store any toxic industrial waste on the premises of their factory. 126ca. A truck got stuck under the viaduct and blocked the through route to the company's headquarters. 126cb. Adam chose to take a long detour leading across a vast area of wasteland. 126cc. If he was ever to reach	126e. Don't you regret the wasted time? 126f. We must (have to) stop being wasteful of food. 126g. When will you start purifying waste water?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	his destination, it was still the shortest way for him to go. 126da. The Minister of Education calmly stated that they had been doing their best to minimize the wastage of talents. 126db. However, due to the shrinking job market, some gifted students couldn't be offered any kind of support or a chance to realize their scientific research projects at any university which (that) was under the current supervision of the Ministry.
127aa. Those who (that) watch the steps taken by The Association of Linguistic Correctness maintain that this is a very reliable, independent institution. 127ab. The observers confirm that they see no outside pressure being exerted on the members of the organization and that the decisions made by them are fully autonomous. 127ac. The observers admit that as an independent entity it has all the rights to autonomy. 127ad. Within the fields of their expertise they can conduct campaigns which (that) make the society aware of what is linguistically correct and what is incorrect. 127ae. Since	127da. The relief help watchdogs confirm they have not noticed any violation of social norms or the law. 127db. They claim that the organizations which (that) have been granted full autonomy to distribute food, medicines and other life necessities among those in need, do their jobs properly. 127e. It's natural that the cryptology watchers share the information they have obtained about the progress in the developments of new cipher codes in a company which (that) their bosses ordered them to spy on. 127f. The observers on the watchtowers say they are in contact with one another and they have a clear view over the whole area which (that) they are closely monitoring. 127ga. John, who is a known globetrotter, has an extraordinary watch (wrist watch). He inherited it from his uncle who (that) had made his fortune in the USA. 127gb. Recently the device	127ha. The athletes were under the watchful eye of their supporters and the doping control agencies. 127hb. They knew they would be punished for their mistakes so they didn't want to risk and consciously do something unreasonable.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

the Association doesn’t act under the influence of any outside powers, it is its management that takes the full responsibility for the actions they undertake and the opinions their members express. 127af. Those of the members who (that) do not oblige to the status of the Association, violate their rules of conduct and commit blunders and offences must be held accountable. 127ag. They will be judged by the commissions, comities or any other body established within their organizational structure. 127ah. Such establishments must therefore possess all the necessary authority to punish for acts of disobedience and crimes, according to their own, autonomous rules which (that) the members of The Association of Linguistic Correctness have voluntarily agreed upon. 127b. Nancy says she always watches for educational documentaries and feature films which (that) shed new light on the problems which	has begun to behave strangely. 127gc. It sometimes shows the time perfectly correctly, on other occasions it is either too slow or too fast. 127gd. John turned to many specialists in different places in the world asking them to fix the piece to which he is so emotionally attached. 127ge. Each of them told him the same thing. 127gf. John needs to find the original watchmaker. 127gg. Only the person who (that) designed and manufactured this one of the kind timepiece can find the cause or causes of the fault in its functioning and is able to repair it.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

(that) not long ago seemed completely unsolvable. 127c. It is easier to avoid imminent threats if you know exactly what kind of danger you are to watch out for.
128a. This plant used to flower beautifully twice a year but its owner stopped watering it regularly and it started to lose its leaves and wither. 128b. You can't waterski if you can't afford to pay the guy who (that) owns a motorboat to tow you, can you?	128c. In order to control the purity of the water running from the tap, the employee of the administration regularly collects the samples and takes them to the laboratory to check the contents of the liquid. 128da. The art dealer was willing to offer the artist's watercolour (watercolor) for sale in his gallery but he didn't like some details in the work. 128db. The artist was interested in starting a business cooperation with the merchant and agreed to make the alterations. 128e. You can enjoy the spectacular view of the waterfall together with the surrounding scenery even more if you watch it from a greater distance. 128f. We are afraid that to satisfy his unquenchable, selfish ambitions the entrepreneur wouldn't hesitate to spoil the waterfront which (that) is now teeming with natural life and will want to build a port that will cause environmental destruction and the sea and land pollution. 128g. The increasing population of waterfowl in the lake district is good news for conservationists who (that) care a lot about saving	128na. Fiona wants to record the underwater wildlife. 128nb. Before she dives she needs to have her camera tested to check if it is really waterproof (watertight). 128oa. It's one of those rare watertight cases and the opponents might find it very difficult to undermine the credibility of the affair. 128ob. Yet this fact does not at all exclude the possibility that they will find their way to dismiss or discredit the entire story. 128oc. They have proved numerous times before that the impossible was suddenly and completely unexpectedly becoming the reality. 128od. Even the slightest mistake on your part can give them the advantage which (that) they will immediately get hold of and will make it work for their own gain. 128p. Actually, our seniors prefer watery meals since, as they say, they are easier to swallow.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the endangered species from extinction. 128h. Winston's girlfriend asked him to fill all their watering cans so that on the next day she could water the vegetables growing in their garden. 128i. Why did Aron encourage those careless boys to swim in the pond and pick the water lilies if he knows they are a protected species? 128ja. "Remember that the fact that you have built that watermill on your own land, completely by yourself, only because you want to earn your own living, means nothing to us," the fat man said with a sneer. 128jb. "We are capable of diverting the stream so that it flows through our fields and we will deprive you of the water supply. 128jc. You will have to invent some other way to earn money to feed your family, unless you want to starve," the man added. 128jd. He took a cherry pit out of his mouth and thrust it towards the turning waterwheel. 128ka. The waterway is commonly used by the locals and nobody has ever complained it is unsafe. 128kb. If you read the code of conduct which (that) everybody here obeys and follow the safety precautions, you can navigate your boat all the way to the place you want to get to. 128l. More and more circles of ripples, from small to bigger and bigger ones, were slowly moving radially outwards from the point where the stone hit the smooth surface of the lake. 128ma. “Once you become popular, all you need to do is to arrange the things around you in a clever way,” a fan of sweet fruit and snacks said to his son. 128mb. “When a farmer has ripe watermelons in his field, arrange a deal so that one of your friends, let’s call him friend number 1, brings one of the fruit for you as a gift. 128mc. Then treat your other friend, let’s call him friend number 2, with the fruit and discretely show him some sort of alleged evidence which (that) might testify that your friend number 1 is a fierce enemy of friend number 2. 128md. Afterwards you can cleverly suggest that in exchange for the financial support of friend number 2, you can help him in the fight against his enemy, which is your friend number 1. 128me. Remember that whatever the circumstances, it’s your friend, not you, who (that) actually articulates the offer of your mutual collaboration. 128mf. In case of any trouble, you have the evidence that it was him who (that) started the whole affair, not you.”

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

129a. Your competitor may not have tried to weaken every possible element of your defence	129ba. Watch that public discussion carefully in order to assess whether the journalists are prying for any opportunity to facilitate a war

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

(defense) system yet.	of nerves. 129bb. They may be on the lookout for some signs of weakness which (that) the participants of the game are revealing. 129bc. Your weaknesses can play into the hands of your interlocutors. 129bd. They can give them the arguments which (that) they will use immediately. 129be. They will present a problem which (that) will allow them to undermine your credibility. 129bf. Only if you have no weak points and when you have clear conscience, you needn't worry about anything.
	130aa. Frank had really good intentions. He honestly wanted to help his friend Leon out and lend him the money Leon had asked for. 130ab. Frank was expecting a hefty return from his recent investment on the Stock Exchange. 130ac. He decided he could share part of his wealth with Leon, who found himself in temporary financial hardship. 130ad. However, despite the fact that Frank's stockbroker had assured him that the transaction would yield huge profits for Frank, the price of the stocks he had bought went down. 130ae. Not only wasn't he able to lend Leon the money his friend so badly needed but he himself suffered a substantial financial loss.	130ba. Apparently Agnes would like to separate herself completely from some of the members of that wealthy and influential family. 130bb. Some of them are said to have a terrible reputation. 130bc. There are also many question marks and unexplained allegations concerning the ways and circumstances in which they accumulated their fortunes. 130bd. Agnes claims they will not manage to avoid explaining to the people how they have become so rich and powerful. 130be. From within their own ranks they may choose wise individuals with relatively clean hands. 130bf. Such persons should easily identify their domestic crooks and criminals and then prove their guilt.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

131aa. Little Chris and a bit older David were playing in a sandpit and their mothers were watching them from a bench. 131ab. Chris filled his plastic truck with sand, drove the vehicle to the other part of the sandpit and unloaded the cargo. 131ac. He told David, who was playing with his fire engine in the opposite corner of the pit, that he was accumulating material to build a sports stadium. 131ad. For some reason, David decided to overtake Chris's construction site. 131ae. He came over to Chris, pushed him out of the sandpit and placed his fire engine on top of Chris's sand mound. 131af. Chris, who was weaker than David, felt helpless and began to cry. 131ag. Then David's mother approached her son and told him that his aggression was intolerable. 131ah. David had to remove his fire engine from the pile of sand Chris had formed and apologize to Chris for being a bully. 131ai. Moreover,	131ba. If instead of a warm welcome your invention gets a cold and indifferent reception from those who, in your opinion, would benefit from using it, you have no reason to worry. 131bb. As rightful citizens they have the free choice and may not accept your gift, if that's what they wish to do. 131bc. Take your device back home and think how you can further improve it so that a great many more people can make a good use of your invention.	131ca. Time will tell whether the steps taken by the government will bring the welcome changes. 131cb. People expect corruption and cronyism in the job market to be eliminated and discrimination of moral and honest persons who (that) work hard in order to earn their living to be stopped. 131cc. If the government representatives make these expectations become reality, the officials will be respected and appreciated by the nation. 131da. Welcoming gestures and smiles of your would-be business coordinator give you the reason to be optimistic and can be a good prognosis. 131db. Yet they don't change the fact that if you make decisions which (that) are against the interests of the firm you represent, the boss who (that) has sent you to negotiate the best deal will be very angry with you. 131ea. The Prime Minister knows that his premature resignation from his post would be unwelcome. 131eb. He has made numerous promises to his nation and now everybody is looking forward to seeing the vows materialize. 131fa. Many people around the world suspect that you can't expect anything really good and honest from that

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

David was forbidden to further disturb Chris in the realization of his project. 131aj. Chris's mother welcomed David's mother's sensible and agreeable initiative.		unwelcoming, expansive nation. 131fb. The representatives of this tribe deceitfully grab the lands which (that) belong to other peoples and lawlessly call them their own territories. 131fc. They usually claim that their forefathers had already been there before and therefore it's them, not anybody else, who (that) have the right to the soil. 131fd. Moreover, decent people clearly perceive that the representatives of that nation ruthlessly exploit their employees and co-operators, particularly if they are of different nationality than they themselves are. 131fe. Now the leaders of that exceptional nation have a unique opportunity to prove everybody wrong. 131ff. For this to happen they need to respect the rules of the international law and voluntarily abandon the realization of their illegal construction projects. 131fg. They are carrying them out on the terrains which (that) they illegally occupy, thus they should withdraw from there immediately.
132a. Emma has (got) a few nice rings, but she doesn't wear them. 132ba. There is no lift in the tower. The steps inside it will wear away quickly because many people	132f. The wearers of our boots say that the footwear protect their feet well. 132g. Sports wear is very popular now. 132h. Cotton underwear absorbs sweat better than the one containing artificial fibre (fiber).	132i. You won't put on those worn out jeans, will you? 132j. Philip has had a few wearing job interviews today. 132k. You must feel weary of constantly escaping (running away from) walk them up and down. 132bb. If the steps become smooth and their edges blunt, visitors will instantly forget why it was essential that the steps have very sharp verges. 132bc. For this reason, every step which (that) begins to smoothen must be immediately replaced with a sharp-edged one. 132c. Only your adamant persistence can wear other contenders down and convince them that you are never going to give up competing with them. 132d. Because Diana has a lot of work in the garden she wears out a few pairs of protective gloves every spring. 132ea. The coach of the winning team knew that the effects of the miraculous drug which (that) almost everybody was using to enhance their performance would wear off sooner or later. 132eb. He had the alternative strategy ready and was only waiting for the moment when the drug starts losing its original power to		paparazzi. 132l. These worn shoes are the most comfortable. 132m. The jacket on the hanger looked very nice so Isabelle tried it on to check if it was wearable.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

initiate the realization of plan B.
133a. The ship crew wanted to prepare themselves properly to weather the possible future storms.	133ba. The weather may soon start changing in a more unpredictable way. 133bb. Therefore those who (that) are responsible for protecting the area against the elements need to consider all the likely scenarios. 133bc. They need to plan the alternative adjustment strategies well before the new weather patters create natural conditions which (that) are very different from the present ones. 133bd. The people who (that) inhabit the area should know how they need to behave so that they can function normally. 133c. Had anybody recorded all the weather forecasts the weatherman has presented for the last year, the special commission would have had the material which (that) they could examine in order to decide if the man had made any obvious mistakes.	133da. Perhaps you are an ordinary, weather-beaten sailor and you realize that you can't trust the captain and his navigators. 133db. Moreover, your ship is crossing the rough sea and you are afraid that the captain and his navigators would like you to take part in another battle. 133dc. If you become aware of the fact that under his orders you will participate in an unfair, losing battle, don't risk your life fighting for the interests of the irresponsible commander and his venal collaborators. 133dd. You'd better think pragmatically and sensibly what you and the other members of the crew can do to save your ship from sinking. 133e. The stony walls of the old castle proved weatherproof and they remained almost intact after a few hundred years since its construction.
134a. The newspapers are teeming with speculations that the TV anchor is going to wed the famous fashion designer, but the rumours (rumors) are unconfirmed.	134b. Francis says she is glad she went to the wedding of her acquaintances because she met a lot of nice people from the families of the bride and the bridegroom there. 134ca. The wedding cake was about to be served when Olivier received an emergency phone call from his office. 134cb. He was informed that he had to go there immediately.	134f. If you are wedded to your job which (that) is your passion at the same time, you are never bored and you are hardly ever tired of what you are doing.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	134d. Marica dreamed of a modest but stylish wedding ring and it wasn't easy at all for her to find what she was looking for. 134e. Is it known what percentage of children is currently born out of wedlock?
	135a. How many movies does a film critic have to watch every week on average to be up to date with the potentially meaningful world production? 135b. "I'll be in my office. Too much is going on to relax and not work at the weekend," Norbert told his manager. 135c. A lot of weeklies have disappeared from the newsagent's stands since the Internet news services have become more and more popular. 135d. If it's a weekday and it's before eight p.m. Fred is most likely in his repair workshop fixing another electronic device.	135e. Jordan's weekly duties include checking if all the reports delivered to him by the accountants from different departments are comprehensive and compatible with one another.
136a. How much did you weigh before that miraculous slimming diet?	136b. Amanda checks her weight every day. 136c. Why did Paul decide to train (in) weightlifting? 136d. Is being in the state of weightlessness pleasant?	136e. Were there any weighty reasons of your break-up? 136f. What do you actually like in those underweight models? 136g. You won't be overweight when you limit the amount of food you consume (eat).
	137aa. Leonard says that reasoning depends on the ability to associate different details. 137ab. Sometimes it is essential if you remember who made certain remark. 137ac. It may, for example, concern a particular quality of someone's hair.	137ba. It was the beginning of the semester and all the students were well advised to study hard as well as do their homework properly and regularly. 137bb. They knew what they must do in order to pass the final exams and be able to participate in

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	137ad. This fact may help you understand a totally different issue which (that), seemingly, has nothing to do with hair.	the classes in the following semester. 137c. A well balanced review focuses on the strong and weak points of the analyzed work. 137da. Being well born can be burdensome. 137db. You are being watched closer than an ordinary person and your behaviour (behavior) is constantly being assessed and commented on. 137e. Brandon is well built and he could practise (practise) wrestling, but if he is not keen on the sport, he won't take it up. 137f. A well done job, particularly the one you yourself decided to do, can give you an enormous personal satisfaction. 137ga. In Eva's opinion, distrust of certain individuals is perfectly well founded (well grounded). 137gb. It's good that you are suspicious of the persons who (that) are incapable of noticing their own errors and blame others when something wrong happens. 137gc. Those who (that) don't admit to their own mistakes do not draw positive conclusions for themselves for the future. 137gd. They are most likely to continue to function like ill-programed (ill-programmed) automats which (that) produce flawed parts to a complex machine, which will eventually cause its breakdown. 137ha. The situation was becoming tense and it was about time to make a difficult decision. 137hb. Sadly, the well informed decision-maker did not have enough imagination, wisdom, knowledge, common sense and courage to choose the lesser evil. 137hc. He appears to have chosen the greater evil. 137ia. If an opinion of a well known person is completely different from your own, you should think the matter over in order to decide who is right. 137ib. If after a lot of musing you conclude that you are right and he is wrong, you should know why you think so. 137ja. Apparently the manuscript is well preserved. It is allegedly very precious and for that reason it is kept in a safe. 137jb. Its electronic copies are available through the Internet, though, so everybody can get to know what it contains. 137k. Claire is a well read person. You can ask her what she knows about that writer. 137l. Certain well rounded economist admits that he himself wishes he knew more about the law which (that) rules the free market economy. 137m. When you are watching a well thought out performance you are grateful to its creators and executors for allowing you to learn the truths of life by observing the action which (that) is unfolding smoothly and consequently. 137na. The story is about a group of close friends who (that) care a lot about being popular and well thought of. 137nb. They stick together in order to act effectively and help each other, in case aid is needed. 137nc. Thus far they have managed the masses of ordinary people very skillfully and without major disturbances. 137nd. Yet now they have begun to suspect that their subjects are beginning to comprehend what mechanisms of their cooperation have made them so efficient in grabbing power, taking someone else's wealth over and taking advantage of fame in a cunning way. 137ne. They are a bit afraid that the commons could understand how they cleverly reduced certain individual to the role of a homeless beggar. 137nf. Thanks to their endeavour (endeavor), the only way to earn his living is to stand a vigil by the entrance to a church and ask faithful parishioners for a few coins or a slice of bread. 137ng. In such a situation, they, the managers, would have to react suitably together, to adapt to the new circumstances in the best possible way. 137oa. Only the well worn path seemed safe enough for Anthony, Rita and Zachary. 137ob. They had followed it many times before and they knew every twist and turn along the way. 137oc. They felt good and secure since they could enjoy each other's company and travel together.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020