12.5 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od: j, k, l, m, n, o
Część 3/3 Zdania 97a - 147d – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
97a. The more they mocked those they disliked and muddied the issues of importance to the common people the less they were trusted.	97b. There was so much mud in the overflow pipe that clean water couldn't flow through it. 97c. If the birds build their nests in the trees that grow higher up the slope, they may not be buried by a mudslide.	97d. Was there any footage on TV of the event when a crowd of quiet beggars silently surrounded the self-confident politician with muddy hands and offered to share with him pieces of bread which (that) they were holding in their clean hands?
98a. If you use a calculator all the time you may forget how to multiply and divide numbers with the help of your mind.	98b. It's not an overstatement to say that a multitude of possibilities creates a multitude of problems. 98c. If only legislating tougher laws alone would prevent the multiplication of bad social behaviours (behaviors)! 98d. The extended multiplication table includes numbers from 1 to 20.	98e. Living in a global village means that everyone lives in a multinational and multicultural society now. 98f. How many years of intensive studying did it take Sandra to become a multilingual translator? 98g. We'll wait and see how the solutions agreed upon during the multilateral talks will work. 98h. In this multiple-choice exercise more than one answer may be correct.
99a. The suspect claims he hasn't murdered anybody.	99b. Who went to the morgue to identify the victim of the murder? 99c. The body of the murderer is said to be in the hospital mortuary (morgue) now.	99d. The newsagent handed the man a magazine with articles about murderous weapons used in the navy.
100a. Could a mild climate make this species mutate into another form?	100b. These cells affected by mutation are cancer cells which (that) proliferate uncontrollably and feed on healthy tissue. 100c. How much time will the geneticists need to compare the genome of	100d. If this organism is mutable, its offspring might have a chance to adapt to the changing environment.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the mutant and the original virus?
101a. Peter knows how to mystify his listeners, doesn't he?	101b. Do you think this mystery will be explained one day? 101c. Was the crime really committed or was it only a mystification?	101d. How will you explain this mysterious series of events? 101e. We were mystified by the President's vague statement.
	102a. They're (These are) the myths I don't believe in.	102b. Michael likes to read stories about mythical heroes.
103a. Hasn't this abandoned baby been named yet?	103b. In the application form they ask you to write your first name (forename), the middle name or names and the last name (surname/family name) 103c. Liza says she's been subjected to name-calling for so long that it doesn't impress her any more. 103d. When Fabio talked with his namesake it turned out that they both liked to mimic the sounds made by their pets and didn't like to mow the grass in the garden. 103e. Oscar couldn't give his conference presentation about the new design of oars because he didn't have his name tag. 103 f. Garry's nickname "Muted" contradicts the reality, as he is outspoken and noisy.	103g. The guide stopped to show the party of hikers the verses by a nameless poet engraved on the stone.
104a. Were consumers advised to narrow down the range of products they must buy?	104b. Narrowness of opportunities allows you to completely focus on the merits.	104c. The narrower the path you are walking along the more carefully you must watch your steps. 104d. They may lose the support they've enjoyed due to a narrow-minded treatment of the possibilities the new approach road offers. 104e. Keith narrowly avoided injuring his finger when he was nailing up the cage door.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

105a. Who wants to nationalize the mines?	105b. Every nation desires (longs for) independence. 105c. The (This) activist openly supports nationalism. 105d. What nationalities were represented at the summit? 105e. Let's listen to what the nationalists are saying.	105f. Can you sing the national hymn (anthem)? 105g. Those (The) nationalistic movements worry us.
	106a. Let's ask naturalists how to survive without using the achievements of civilization. 106b. Sabina decided to study the laws of nature.	106c. Who painted this naturalistic landscape? 106d. Joanna's reaction was unnatural. 106e. Naturally, we informed the police about everything.
107a. You have to study intensely to catch up with those who have been learning how to navigate since their early childhood.	107b. Don't cry once you realize their navigation aids got you nowhere but think how to sail without this particular equipment. 107c. As the driver always critically analyze what the navigator suggests you should do.	107d. Maurice checked that the river was navigable from that point and sailed onwards towards the sea.
108a. As the spring neared the days were becoming warmer.		108b. Who said that the near future will be decided by a close contest? 108c. They had nearly won by one to nil but in the last minutes of the match the other team scored two goals. 108d. From dawn till dusk the nearby lake was covered with a thin sheet of delicate mist.
109a. Does the ultimatum necessitate war?	109b. I doubt (about) the necessity of firing (laying off) so many employees.	109c. The government of this country says (that) outside help is unnecessary. 109d. Is it necessary for us to read this article?
110a. If you negate the existence of an agreement does it	110b. What if the negation of what they've been so strongly advocating is	110e. Expressing negative opinions to overstate the case is a convenient tool mean it's null and void?	the only option left? 110c. The banks will have to work out the way how to deal with the phenomenon of negative equity without ruining the lives of millions of their clients. 110d. Negativity can be a more efficient strategy than over-optimism.	to draw attention of the listeners away from the matters of substance.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

111a. Don't neglect to clean the oven regularly or otherwise you will smell something burning every time you bake or roast in it.	111b. They say you won't prove that there is a direct link between consumerism and the alarmingly growing number of cases of negligence on the part of parents. 111c. Would you like to live through the age of decay and neglect again?	111d. After walking several miles the wanderers got to a settlement with many neglected farmsteads. 111e. What do they understand by a negligible quantity of the performance enhancing substance in the blood sample? 111f. Calling Julian a neglectful coach is a gross exaggeration. 111g. The inspectors stated that the firm was negligent in verifying if the product consisted exactly of the ingredients listed on the label.
112a. "Let's negotiate the terms of your employment," the rich man suggested.	112b. Isn't the idea of a negotiating table the creation of a cunning mind which (that) discovered a clever way of how to avoid responsibility for the committed errors? 112c. After countless rounds of fruitless negotiations few believed it was the right method to settle the argument. 112d. The negotiator was trying to neutralize the feelings of apprehension present on each side of the conflict.	112e. The date of the completion of the construction of the main module of the machinery is still negotiable. 112f. How did they react to the non-negotiable conditions?
113a. We still haven't decided who (whom) to nominate for	113b. The actor's nomination for governor didn't surprise everybody the award.	(everyone). 113c. Zack didn't expect to find himself among the nominees.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	114a. Non-fiction documentaries can be very instructive. 114b. The lecturer approached the blackboard and drew a loop inside which he wrote three terms: non-proliferation, non-aggression and non-intervention. 114c. As their faith forbids them from admitting to the fact that they have created the system of nonsense, they have to prove that the system makes sense. 114d. Non-smokers might be for outlawing smoking, but how would smokers react to such a law? 114e. Can you switch the game into a non-violence mode?	114f. The milestone they were supposed to find there turned out to be nonexistent. 114g. What if the costs of running the non-profit charity far outweigh the actual value of their achievements? 114h. Can Roger still change any of the clauses in his non-renewable contract with the company? 114i. This example proves that even the most nonsensical theory may find an enormous number of supporters. 114j. Let's take a seat in a non-smoking compartment. 114k. The participants of the non-violent action against lab tests on rats wore navy-blue uniforms. 114l. Did Jessica pass the oral exam in non-verbal communication?
115a. The temperature in the freezer will soon normalize at about minus 18 degrees Celsius.	115b. Do they repair the items which (that) don't meet the quality norms? 115c. Normality meant that everyone knew what they were to do. 115d. What steps is the firm taking towards the normalization of the control procedures? 115e. What kinds of heart abnormalities are curable?	115f. Is it normal that young and educated unemployed people outnumber the much older ones who are out of work? 115g. Is this an abnormal size for a kidney?
116a. At first Agatha didn't notice that somebody (someone) was watching her.	116b. I left my notes on the desk but they aren't there now. 116c. Why don't you place your ad (advert/advertisement) onto the noticeboard?	116d. Damian's perfect accent is noteworthy. 116e. Kinga was noticeably moved by an emotional greeting.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

117a. If you know where this man is, notify the police.	117b. We didn't get any (an) official notification.	117c. Is such a fact notifiable?
118a. What are these (the) animals nourished with? (With what are these (the) animals nourished?)	118b. Mary cares a lot about proper nourishment.	118c. Homeless and malnourished children in (on) the streets of Indian towns are a common sight.
	119a. Did you like the part of the novel in which the boy grabbed the mane of the lion, jumped on its back, embraced its neck and took a long ride across the prairie? 119b. Doubts whether he would find a publisher nagged the novelist. 119c. In those days an artificial nitrogen fertilizer was something of a novelty. 119d. Every novice was reminded that they were not permitted to sell or otherwise distribute the mobile equipment they were given.	119e. When will they present this novel method of forming molten glass into bottles of different shapes?
120a. Those who passed the exam outnumber those who failed. 120b. The group numbered fifteen people.	120c. What's the exact number of casualties?	120d. We noted numerous complaints about the standard (quality) of your service.
121a. It was relatively easy to nurse the injured, orphaned cub as it was an omnivore.	121b. The nurse brought the moaning patient the pill which (that) would alleviate the pain. 121c. When we visited the nursery the children had a lot of fun. They touched the flowers and leaves of the plants grown there with their noses, smelled (smelt) them and sneezed. 121d. The headmaster at the very expensive nursery school was encouraging Anthony to educate his son there pointing out that the sooner the kid learns how to nudge his way through the crowd the better. 121e. Meg can be very successful in a nursing career because she is caring and selfless. 121f. This nursing home with rehabilitation facilities is a perfect place for Larry's lame grandfather.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	122a. The farmers whose fields were seized by foreign investors for industrial development say their children suffer from a nutrient deficiency because they can no longer produce enough food to feed their families. 122b. Our nonagenarian recommends an active lifestyle and proper nutrition. 122c. In today's programme (program) a nutritionist will talk about major disadvantages of being obese.	122d. The chef is preparing a nutritious meal of raw and cooked vegetables, mashed potatoes and mince beef.
123a. Tina objected to the way of treating lab (laboratory) animals.	123b. Paul had objections to selling our firm. 123c. Helping others is a noble objective.	123d. Did you assess your students objectively?
124a. What does this rule oblige me to do?	124b. With such a big (large) number of obligations Patrick has very little free time.	124c. I'd be obliged if you positively answered my request. 124d. Filling in (out) the form is obligatory.
125a. This woman is obsessed with my brother.	125b. (The) obsession with her weight led Gina to anorexia.	125c. Isn't Monica obsessively engaged in this activity?
126a. Olek obeyed the ban and didn't smoke in the pub.	126c. How do you punish disobedience? 126d. They told me they'd	126e. I can't believe that Bogdan used to be a disobedient boy.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

126b. Which rule did Henry disobey?	reward my obedience.	126f. A soldier has to be blindly obedient.
127a. In which country do they observe this festival? 127b. Why did the secret service observe that officer (official)?	127c. The observance of rituals is very important for (to) this community. 127d. After many years of (making) observations of (the) butterflies, Emma wrote an interesting book about them. 127e. Did you read the report prepared by international observers? 127f. Sebastian is in the observatory now.	127g. I'm afraid I'm not very observant. 127h. This planet is observable after midnight.
128a. You consume junk food because your awareness of the danger it poses to your health is obliterated by the pleasure you experience by eating it.	128b. The obliteration of the memories of the national tragedies can lead straight to another struggle for the nation's independence. 128c. What happened with the invention after it had been consigned to oblivion?	128d. With a charming smile the salesman offered me a beautiful diamond ring at a fraction of its market price hoping I was oblivious of the previous incident when he cheated me.
129a. Suddenly several giraffes appeared and obstructed our view of the site where a group of elephants mourned for the dead member of their family.	129b. You may need to foresee every obstruction imaginable your competitors will create to prevent you from entering the market in which they operate.	129c. Will they opt for removing or dissolving the obstructive sediment in the canal?
	130a. All the fuss is caused by the fact that they want to mark the occasion in a special and memorable way.	130b. Such monstrous waves form occasionally and you may try diving underneath (under) one before it hits you and swim back to the surface when it passes.
131a. I won't occupy your computer for long.	131b. Philip has some (a) strange occupation. 131c. What was your life like under (the) occupation? 131d. Perhaps we should befriend the occupant?	131e. What is the occupational risk (hazard)? 131f. Now Anna is preoccupied with polishing her nails. 131g. How long did you live in the occupied zone? 131h. Why is this room unoccupied?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

132a. If something unexpected occurs, like an unidentified, oblong object in the sky, take your camera and film it.	132b. Some scholars claim that in this manuscript they found the first occurrence of the use of ordinal numbers along with the cardinal ones.
	133a. The odds might be against Bruce but he is unlikely to give up. 133b. In this culture making irrational choices is treated as an oddity. 133c. When you play “The odd man (one) out” you select the item which for some reason doesn’t fit the others, which belong to the same category.	133d. It’s most odd that they chose more expensive and less efficient software, isn’t it? 133e. Oddly enough, the woman the main character of the film was madly in love with refused to marry him.
	134a. I’ll show you to the office. 134b. Where are all the officials?	134c. Unofficially, Sophie’s daughter is getting married soon. 134d. The boss sent me official congratulations.
135a. Tell us who offended you.	135b. What offence did they charge you with (they accuse you of)? 135c. The offender will spend a few years in prison. 135d. We should strengthen our offence.	135e. No wonder Derek felt offended. 135f. Our offensive actions failed. 135g. How offensive were their remarks?
136a. What mark did the student who omitted questions 13-15 get?	136b. To avoid omission from the team Simon, who normally accepts only what benefits him, agreed to whatever the captain said.
137a. How many members of Parliament oppose this project?	137b. Is criticizing the government the main role of the opposition? 137c. Fortunately, my opponent was tired. 137d. I’ve forgotten what’s the opposite to “polite”.	137e. Who was sitting opposite you? 137f. The opposing side didn’t want to compromise. 137g. Why are you opposed to building a motorway (highway/speedway)?
138a. They should have operated on the boy right (immediately) after	138b. The operation turned out to be very complicated. 138c. Where is the operator of the crane?	138d. The new terminal still isn’t fully operational. 138e. The patient is now undergoing post-operative

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

the accident.		treatment.
139a. How long did they oppress their victim? 139b. Don't oppress me with the information about what else I have to do.	139c. The state is notorious for using oppression against its political enemies. 139d. Did you hate your oppressors?	139e. Are national minorities oppressed in some way in this country? 139f. What oppressive methods did they use against you?
	140a. Being an incurable optimist Gregory boldly charged at the bull. 140b. Mobilization of the intellectual potential and optimism are essential when you undertake a scientific mission.	140c. Was Josephine optimistic when her manager assured her he would use his best endeavours (endeavors) to promote her artistic career?
	141a. Norma confessed that for a woman with so strong maternal instincts, like hers, abandoning her children is not an option.	141b. Additionally, we have a few optional subjects from which you can choose the one you prefer to study.
142a. The better you organize your time the more effectively (efficiently) you'll work.	142b. The organizers of the fair guarantee numerous attractions. 142c. As far as I know it was a secret organization.	142d. Malwina is a rather disorganized person. 142e. We're talking about a very well organized criminal group. (We're talking about a very well organized group of criminals.)
143a. The concept of abusing the weak might have originated when some species chose to live in groups rather than as loners.	143b. Winston says the origin of a citizen is less important than their usefulness for the community they live in. 143c. There was an overpowering feeling of jubilation among the members of the samba school when they got the prize for the originality of their performance. 143d. Is it possible to distinguish between a copy and the original?	143e. Will Graham stand by his original plan?
144a. Apparently, the fact that she was orphaned at an early age had a dramatic	144b. The orphans expected something more from the government than only the announcement of impact on her psyche.	a day of mourning for their parents who had lost lives in the factory fire. 144c. What are the overall conclusions from the analysis of how orphanages were run in those days?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

145a. Isabella overestimated the appetites of her guests and bought too much food. 145b. When Violet's eyes were no longer moist with tears, she clearly understood that she had underestimated the cruelty of those who were attacking her.	145c. According to the results of the survey, there has been an overestimation of the magnitude of the demand for the services. 145d. Who is to blame for the underestimation of the wild cat's determination to dig a tunnel under the wall and escape from the enclosure?
146a. How would Gabriel feel if he didn't pay back what he owes his creditors?		146b. Does Henry deny that a substantial sum of money is still owing on the loan? 146c. Owing to the risk of contracting a contagious disease parents are advised to protect their children with the greatest caution.
147a. The man says he'll get off scot-free because all the property is owned not by him but by various members of his family.	147b. The overwhelming majority of the owners of the stalls came to the meeting to discuss the height of the rents. 147c. Only somebody we trust can confirm your ownership of the land.	147d. Does the suspect persist in claiming that the burglary happened through no fault of his own?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020