12.3 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od d i e
Część 1/3 Zdania 1a - 64d – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
1a. Sebastian claims that stress damaged his health.	1b. How much damages did they pay the Kowalskis? 1c. How long will it take you to assess (estimate) the damage?	1d. We were lucky that our house remained undamaged after the hurricane. 1e. Strenuous exercises can be damaging to your body.
2a. The merger of those firms may (can) endanger our position in the market.	2b. How real is the danger of the outbreak of riots?	2c. In this zoo they have (got) a lot of animals that are endangered species. 2d. Is this virus dangerous?
3a. When the sky darkened they knew the storm was coming.	3b. Bogdan says he isn't afraid of the dark. 3c. The prisoner might try to escape under cover of darkness.	3d. When it gets dark, you can see bats flying in the air.
4a. How many pensioners did the alleged businessman deceive into lending him money?	4b. You'd better not get involved into this web of deceit. 4c. Magic is based on deception. You believe what you see, because you don't see what's really happening. 4d. Watch the salesman very closely. He may be a decent person, but he can also be a deceiver. 4e. The board member declined to comment on the allegations of deceitfulness.	4f. "I want what is best for you," the stranger said deceitfully. 4g. Why don't you reject the advertising slogan if you realize it's deceptive?
5a. Did Monty defend himself against the attackers?	5b. Did the jury feel sorry for the defendant? 5c. Our defence (defense) wasn't effective enough. 5d. Someone condemned the defender for not being firm enough.	5e. Why do they attack defenceless (defenseless) children (kids)? 5f. If you want to win, you can't be defensive. 5g. The civilians shouldn't have been left undefended.
6a. If you default on one obligation, try to make up for it by doing something noble.	6b. If a company is in default on its loan, it means that it has become a debtor unable to pay back what it owes. 6c. Don't assume by default	6e. Somehow, the faulty mobile phones have to be got rid of.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	that it's impossible to decontaminate polluted air. 6d. In default of dairy products local people had to rely on vegetarian diet.
7a. As it was expected, the favourites (favorites) defeated their rivals in the semi-final.	7b. Despite widespread condemnation of their handling of the affair, they refused to admit defeat.	7c. The defeated contender left the building through the back door. 7d. Is Tony still an undefeated champion?
	8a. When the crisis deepened there were deficiencies in many necessities.	8b. The patient's condition will decline (deteriorate) if his diet is deficient in vitamins and minerals.
9a. The disabled dancer defied all the odds and won with healthy contestants in a competition.	9b. No one wants to see peace activists going on hunger strikes in defiance of conducting nuclear tests.	9c. Before the fight the boxers looked defiantly into each other's eyes. 9d. The defiant stance presented by those who occupied the building worried the police officers gathered outside.
10a. The news will not deject Waleria. It will delight her because she likes to learn new skills.	10b. To the delight of the parents, the children enthusiastically embraced the new board game.	10c. The pianist was delighted when we asked her to play. 10d. It was a delightful picnic in the park.
11a. Let's see how Janusz will democratize (democratise) the functioning of his institute.	11b. Democracy obliges you to respect other people's opinions. 11c. The democrats opted for more deliberation on the merits of each solution. 11d. Their defiance may delay the process of democratization.	11e. How can you become successful if you live in a democratic system but you don't have enough money to compete with those who have? 11f. The accusations that they have an undemocratically elected president are unfounded.
12a. Karol denied deliberately deleting the files from his colleague's computer.	12b. An official denial of doing something wrong may raise suspicions that in fact the opposite is true.	12c. The delay in the realization of your order is undeniable and we apologize for it.
13a. What time did the coach depart from London?	13b. Gerard looked at the departures board and saw that his flight wasn't delayed.
14a. Monica says that Robert destroyed their happy marriage.	14b. The scale of destruction caused by the earthquake horrified everybody (everyone). 14c. Does the navy really	14d. Your aggression can be destructive for Ola's sensitive psyche.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	need new destroyers?
15a. What will your decision depend on? (On what will your decision depend?)	15b. How can we decrease (lower) our dependency on fossil fuels? 15c. Are your children still (your) dependants?	15d. Frank can do little if he's financially dependant on somebody (someone) (else). 15e. How independent are Alice's opinions?
16a. We have to determine the deadline for supplying (delivering) the applications.	16b. Eva has enough determination to learn another foreign language.	16c. The student couldn't name the determining factors for the reaction and failed the exam. 16d. Why is Anna determined to divorce?
17a. We hope that Alexander will decide to join us.	17b. His indecision means that David can't be the leader. (David can't be the leader due to his indecision.) 17c. Quitting the job wasn't the wisest decision. 17d. Decisiveness can bring desirable results if it's based on strong foundations.	17e. Why is Kate undecided about marrying Charles? 17f. What was the decisive argument? 17g. I wouldn't characterize (characterise) your mother as an indecisive person.
18a. Who did the novelist dedicate his latest book to? (To whom did the novelist dedicate his latest book?)	18b. Thanks to the dedication of the teachers our class is the best in the school.	18c. Steven is a dedicated cardiologist.
19a. We have to define where the limits of our responsibilities are. (We have to define where are the limits of our responsibilities.)	19b. There are many definitions of happiness.	19c. We're still waiting for the definite decision of the commission. 19d. Undefined technical norms didn't stop (prevent) ancient architects from creating wonderful structures. 19e. We're still waiting for the definite decision of the commission. 19f. You can get used to indefinite uncertainty. (You can get accustomed to indefinite uncertainty.)
20a. Why didn't you delegate Derek?	20b. Where will we meet the foreign delegation? 20c. Our delegate was very well prepared to (for) the talks.
21a. The view of	21b. How long did Frederick	21c. Not being able to help destruction depressed us.	fight with depression?	those people was depressing. 21d. You shouldn't become depressed because of such a trivial thing. 21e. Home arrest can be depressive.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

22a. How much do the kidnappers demand?	22b. We can't expect that the demand for goods will grow constantly. (We can't expect the demand for goods to grow constantly.)	22c. Do you have a demanding boss? 22d. Now Alice would like to do something undemanding.
23a. How did they demonstrate their power?	23b. Did Rachel take part in the demonstration? 23c. How many demonstrators did the police stop?	23d. Arnold was demonstratively hostile, wasn't he?
24a. You can decorate the cake with fruits.	24b. Christine made these Christmas decorations herself. 24c. Why don't we take a decorator?	24d. Damian's wife looks very decorative, doesn't she?
25a. Peter declared himself (as) a non-smoker.	25b. You still haven't signed the declaration.	25c. Your declared support helped me a lot.
26a. When did they destroy the statue of the former commander?	26b. The horror the woman went through caused (the) destruction in (of) her emotional life.	26c. Graham didn't withstand the destructive power of his opponent's arguments. 26d. The prophet's vision was so pure that it seemed indestructible.
27a. How did Barbara describe their first meeting?	27b. I can't find the description of this famous battle.	27c. It's an indescribable story. 27d. I liked one descriptive fragment in the book.
28a. Tell the future-teller what you desire and they will tell you if you will get it.	28b. Seweryn was driven by a strong desire to become an acclaimed playwright.	28c. The government of a heavily indebted nation wondered how to achieve a desirably low budgetary deficit by reducing public spending. 28d. The decrease in the number of their customers was undoubtedly an undesirable phenomenon. 28e. Why hasn't the desired effect been achieved?
29a. As the inhabitants returned to their homes	29b. His despair can't have been caused by the deletion	29e. How desperate is Hugo to win this contract?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

after the earthquake they despaired when they saw their desolate village.	of important files or undelivered SMSes. 29c. Giving up your ideals would be an act of desperation, wouldn't it? 29d. A desperado has nothing to lose and therefore can be very effective.	29f. Instead of hearing a despairing sigh we saw Ellen's smiling face.
	30a. People vary in their opinions on who or what controls one's (your) destiny. 30b. Haven't they reached their destination yet?	30c. Everybody thought that the prodigy child was destined for a remarkable career.
31a. The scene depicts the moment when the sailors are deserting their sinking ship.	31b. Nights can be chilly in the desert. 31c. When it's getting warmer and warmer more areas will undergo the desertification process. 31d. The army deserters were kept in jail. 31e. When the civil war started the number of cases of desertion increased. 31f. The depiction of the man's life on a desert island was very accurate.	31g. How long did the travellers (travelers) stay in that deserted cottage?
32a. Did the tiles which detached from the wall break?	32b. A scientist needs to develop critical detachment in order to draw the right conclusions.	32c. Does Klemens live in a detached or a semi-detached house? 32d. Autistic children are detached and unemotional. 32e. Did Konrad take this jacket with a detachable hood with him?
33a. The instruction details the detoxification (detox) procedure.	33b. Adam was keen to give us more details about how the doctors had managed to detoxify him.	33c. I don't understand why they want to deter the researcher from conducting a more detailed study of this interesting phenomenon.
34a. I wonder why they didn't detain the leader of the rebellion.	34b. Where is your brother's detention place? 34c. The detainees complain about the terrible conditions they're held in. (The detainees complain about the terrible conditions in which they're held.)	34d. Doesn't a detained person deserve decent treatment?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

35a. We need the right (correct) metre (meter) to detect radioactivity.	35b. The detection of this kind of doping turned out to be practically impossible. 35c. How does a lie detector work? 35d. Who was the most famous detective?	35e. Such sounds are undetectable by man.
36a. Was the youngster really possessed by a devil when he devastated the dial of the tower clock?	36b. Will the devastation caused by the mudslide serve as a deterrent preventing forests from being cut down?	36c. Diabetic complications can be devastating for your health. 36d. The devastated area was sealed off so we had to make a detour.
37a. Teresa devoted most of her life to her children.	37b. I admire the devotion the nuns take care of the sick (ill) children with. (I admire the devotion with which the nuns take care of the sick (ill) children.)	37c. Elwira declared herself (as) a devoted Christian.
38a. When did you develop these skills in yourself?	38b. Industrial development is our blessing and curse. 38c. How many families will the developer force to leave their homes?	38d. Underdeveloped countries are the chance of survival for some corporations. 38e. Those living in economically developing societies should be aware of what will happen to their indigenous citizens. 38f. Highly developed technology can greatly help to solve many urgent problems.
39a. Are you sure Dominic was diagnosed with diabetes?	39b. Doesn't the diagnosis shed new light over the reasons for the patient's sense of desolation?	39c. This diagnostic test will assess the density of the fibre (fiber).
40a. Did they reach an agreement through a dialogue or one of the sides dictated the terms?	40b. The pupils say it was a difficult dictation. 40c. What tests had this man undergone before he became a dictator? 40d. "Dictatorship can be a lesser evil than democracy" is a challenging thesis, isn't it?	40e. The occupiers have been exercising their dictatorial skills with great dexterity.
41a. You will quickly digest this vegetarian meal. 41b. Let's give them	41c. Can you prepare a digest of various reports on the subject? 41d. Anna has a good	41f. Try to cook more digestible food for your children. 41g. The boys' indecent more time to digest the news.	digestion. 41e. Has Albert been suffering from indigestion?	behaviour (behavior) turned out to be indigestible for their mentor. 41h. The physician will examine your digestive track through scanning.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

42a. How will you discipline the manager for wanting to discard those useful containers?	42b. Cecylia has imposed strict discipline on herself. 42c. The disclosure of the fact that Kate is a disciplinarian who strongly believes in self-discipline amused everybody.	42d. A disciplined member of an organization would never disclose their internal problems. 42e. The disciplinary hearing proved John's innocence and showed that he'd been wrongly discharged from his job. 42f. You should differentiate between undisciplined players and those with temporary injuries.
43a. Who has been spreading the false visions that encourage people to express their discontent at the dire straits? 43b. Whose duty is it to discourage people from doing things which can bring disastrous consequences?	43c. Steven treated the award as an encouragement to intensify his charitable activities. 43d. No discouragements or discord will deter Tim from looking for a peaceful way out.	43e. Why weren't you discouraged by their deliberate criticism? 43f. We felt encouraged when we discerned their positive attitude towards us. 43g. A discerning person wouldn't view any new experience as discouraging. 43h. Calls for mutual respect and understanding sounded encouraging.
44a. Does the fact that the boss has discredited what you've done for the company disillusion you?	44b. Disillusionment (Disillusion) with the status quo may be the starting point of profound changes.	44c. Greta soon became disillusioned by (with) the discrepancies between what they were saying and what they were actually doing.
45a. Why did the Prime Minister dismiss the Internal Affairs Minister?	45b. Nobody (No one) expected the dismissal of so many secret service officers.	45c. The spectators didn't like the referee's dismissive gesture.
46a. Did the man die of natural causes?	46b. We have to determine the time when the death of the victim occurred. (We have to determine the time when the victim's death occurred.)	46c. This new, deadly disease attacks mainly small children. 46d. Is the worm dead?
47a. You'd better disobey all those	47b. The captain must have been dismayed by (at)	47c. The most disobedient kids disguised themselves as immoral rules.	the crew's disobedience.	angels and made their teachers laugh.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

48a. Have you heard that the baker who has been dispensing bread to the poor has gone bankrupt? 48b. A judge can dispense justice, a doctor can dispense a prescription and a modern mobile phone can dispense with the need for a camera.	48c. Can you show me how this soap dispenser works?
49a. How are they going to dispose of the nuclear waste?	49b. Our sewage disposal system should work more effectively. 49c. What facilities were at your disposal when you were staying at that hotel? 49d. It's not pleasant to work with someone of a nervous disposition.	49e. Producers of disposable articles like gloves, razors or syringes are in a relatively comfortable situation. 49f. Are you favourably (favorably/ well) disposed towards (to) moderating the disparities existing within a society?
50a. "You are distorting the truth and I distance myself from the disorder you've caused," the politician stated firmly.	50b. How many long distance runners turned up despite all the disincentives? 50c. You are safe as long as you keep your distance from that man.	50d. In those days nobody thought of the possibility of the disintegration of the empire, even in the distant future.
51a. Don't distract Camilla from the main topic of her lecture.	51b. When you're studying, remove all (the) distractions.	51c. Distracting thoughts didn't let me (allow me to) work effectively. 51d. Charles dismayed his coach when he said he'd been so distracted by the photos on the walls that he couldn't concentrate on the game.
52a. The children's (kids') loud conversations (talks) disturbed their father while reading a (the) newspaper.	52b.The construction of the bridge finished without further disturbances.	52c. The coach would like to finish his statement undisturbed. 52d. Goya's engravings presenting (depicting) (the) dark sides of human nature are disturbing.
53a. We'll distribute food among those who need it most.	53b. Who will take care of the distribution of leaflets (fliers)?	53d. What is the distributive capacity of your firm?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	53c. We have too few distributors in the region.
	54a. How are people coping with the disaster?	54b. Ignoring warning signs had disastrous consequences.
55a. In that scene the dishonourable (dishonorable), dismal monster looks into his victim's eyes and says: "Our paths will never diverge and you will love me forever!"	55b. Why didn't the captain order the diversion of the course when he saw the iceberg in front of the ship?	55c. While some thought the show was diverting, others were absolutely dismayed by the message it was conveying. 55d. Why was Emil distressed by the divergent approaches to the dilemma?
56a. Simon should diversify his diet.	56b. The diversity of life forms seems limitless. 56c. Equip yourself with even more distrust when they start talking about greater diversification of their efforts.	56d. Sunbathing causes diverse effects.
57a. What disgusted you most in the behaviour (behavior) of the man?	57b. Mary looked at the filthy room with disgust.	57c. The rude comments from our opponent were disgusting. 57d. Wasn't Diana disgusted by being treated so dishonestly?
58a. Without glasses I can't distinguish a wasp from a bee.		58b. Few people expected that you'd become a distinguished writer. 58c. The boxer's style of fighting is easily distinguishable.
59a. How does their plan differ from ours?	59b. I don't understand the indifference Marian is talking about the disaster with. (I don't understand the indifference with which Marian is talking about the disaster.) 59c. How many differences between these two pictures did you find?	59d. The leader can't be indifferent to the problems of common people. 59e. Try a different approach to this task.
	60a. Brian is good at dealing with difficulties.	60b. It wasn't difficult to get used to luxury. (It wasn't difficult to get accustomed to luxury.)
61a. How long did you discuss politics?	61b. How many people participated (took part) in the discussion?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

62a. Nowadays more firms merge than divide.	62b. Johnny is good at division.	62c. It's a divisive issue. 62d. Is it true that the poorer the society is the more divided it is?
63a. Who did you direct that mother with a sick (ill) baby (child/kid) to? (To whom did you direct that mother with a sick (ill) baby (child/kid)?)	63b. Women usually don't have a good sense of direction. 63c. What did the director say after the premiere of his film?	63d. The drunken (drunk) driver was taken directly to the police station. 63e. Did he tell you this indirectly?
64a. Did your son's school report disappoint you? (Did your son's report card disappoint you?)	64b. Lydia should be prepared for disappointment.	64c. Michael was disappointed when he heard the refusal. 64d. How disappointing were the holidays (vacations)?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020