12.8 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od s
Część 5/8 Zdania 150a - 173gb – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
150a. Sebastian should specialize in something else.	150b. You must (have to) taste this local speciality (specialty). 150c. There are few experts in this narrow specialization. 150d. When Damian becomes a specialist, he'll earn a lot more.	150e. I like to listen to ballads, especially when it rains (when it's raining) (outside). 150f. Your mother (mum/mom) baked the gingerbread specially for you. 150g. The situation is special and requires a lot of caution. 150h. Where are some specialist shops with this equipment? 150i. Achieving such results was possible thanks to the specialized technology.
151a. Did Charles specify which tasks are the most important?	151b. The specification should inform us what kind of concrete we are to use. 151c. Are they working on creating a new species now? 151d. I liked the specimens from South America (the) most. 151e. Some students might need more time to acquaint themselves with the specifics of the transition (transformation) process.	151f. Zaria doesn't know what job to choose as (because/since) her interests are unspecified. 151g. The situation was particularly specific.
	152aa. Whenever you decide to allow any performers to enter your home so that they could present you with their latest show, think of various possible consequences. 152ab. For the more people watch their spectacles and the more affected	152e. The more complex the techniques the artist needed to master to create the painting the more spectacular it is.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

	emotionally the viewers are by the performances, the more confident the creators of the shows become. 152ac. They are gaining mental powers over the recipients of their art. 152ad. Thanks to that power they can, by means of their art, manipulate the way people think. 152ae. They can impose their own hierarchy of values and decide how others are to live. 152af. To promote their ideas in the most effective ways, the artists are constantly adjusting to various needs and tastes of their viewers. For this purpose they have created and are still creating the scenes which (that) allow them to popularize themselves. 152ag. Among them there are political, economic, legal, religious, artistic, and many other scenes. 152ba. There are many reasons why spectators come to the stadiums. 152bb. One is the desire to see what will happen and to experience strong emotions. Another one is the fact that when you are with other people, you satisfy your sense of belonging. 152bc. Moreover, the show provides you with entertainment and a subject for your conversations with those who (that) have watched the same show. You can learn what others think about it. 152bd. You can also tell those who (that) have not watched the show all about it. You are the source of information for your listeners and in this way you become someone important for them. 152c. Baseball is a very popular spectator sport so it's worth making an effort to understand the rules of the game. 152d. Those special protective spectacles allow you to see more details of the object you are examining.

„Angielski dla leniwych 2" Ćwiczenia Rozdz. 12.8
Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

153a. "As long as the resentment among the farmers is just simmering, we can raise a bit the prices at which we are buying their produce," the Minister of Agriculture speculated.	153ba. One speculation can give rise to endless insinuations. 153bb. They can circulate and excite people for a long time, because people need subjects for their conversations. 153c. When speculators are sniffing around you can either give them information which (that) they will use as a pretext to spread allegations or you can politely avoid talking with (to) them.	153d. The theory has been rejected by the experts in the field and is regarded as purely speculative and based on scanty (scant) data and inadequate knowledge.
154a. Anabella has spent a lot of money on the new furniture and it took her a lot of effort to have her house rearranged.	154b. Will the bosses earn less when the institute starts reducing their spending? 154c. As far as the latest electronic gadgets are concerned, Mark loves them and is a big spender. 154d. If you have little spending money you don't waste your time in shops and you can focus on doing something worthwhile, like writing another book instead. 154e. Why does Karl give his daughter his credit card

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

	if he claims she is a spendthrift?
155a. The drink must have been spiked with something because shortly after the man swallowed it he felt very weak and lost his consciousness. 155b. When the pastry is in the baking pan, spike its surface evenly with a fork.	155c. The spikes along the graph indicate that the sales of the mobile phones were at their peaks. 155d. When Florentyna was young she used to wear spike heels, because, as she says, she thought she looked great in them.	155e. The branches sagged under the weight of spiky chestnuts. 155f. The runner in the spiked shoes didn't slip on the wet grass and safely got to the river bank.
156aa. When Margaret left the kitchen the soup in the pot was simmering. 156ab. She didn't expect the soup would start boiling violently and spilling over. 156b. Watch out when you are carrying the cup. Someone may nudge you from behind and you will spill your coffee.	156c. If the oil spill (spillage) coincided with the species' sprawling season, the fish that inhabit the area might be in real danger due to the poisoned environment. 156d. Additional containers have been ordered in case of the spillover effect – should the radioactive liquid somehow leak from the underground reservoirs.	156e. Why would one cry over spilt (spilled) milk or cry foul when one is at last given a unique chance to set free the lawlessly imprisoned innocent people?
	157aa. The spine injury is a very complex one, but the initial results of the therapy are very promising. 157ab. You can follow the spec (specification) the full treatment consists in. 157ac. It includes an explicit set of requirements: the materials, the design, products and services. 157b. The spinal cord transmits neural signals between the brain and the rest of the body and, among other functions, independently controls numerous reflexes.	157c. If the spinal nerve has not been damaged there is no risk of paralysis. 157d. The snag is that spineless creatures will quickly start changing the shapes of their bodies to look exactly the same as those with resilient back bones.
	158a. Capitalistic propaganda fosters entrepreneurial spirit so no wonder that a lot of people	158d. "To boost our sales, we need spirited, young people like you," said the manager and shook want to run their own businesses. 158ba. Crooks discovered it a long time ago: money, love and spirituality are very powerful incentives. 158bb. Give people free access to them and evil will spawn itself uncontrollably. 158bc. All the crooks need to do then is to be at the right place at the right time with the services and goods people would like to have. 158c. As a very pragmatic person, Helen shows scant regard for spiritualism.	Mike's hand. 158e. The audience were leaving the theatre disappointed. One man yawned and said: "It was a spiritless drama, indeed." 158fa. In church people can participate in spiritual rituals. 158fb. Such experiences make them feel fair and cleansed.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

159a. Look, the little boy has put a handful of pebbles into his mouth and now his mum is asking him to spit them out. 159ba. Actually, it was no use paying much attention to the owner of the battery farm. 159bb. He spat the usual dose of venom at those who (that) had different from his opinions and went for dinner to an expensive restaurant.	159c. When we were walking along the spit we saw a lot of anglers sitting near the water and fishing in the sea.	159d. There used to be a well within spitting distance of the house but it has dried out, I'm afraid. 159e. Robert is not exactly the spitting image of his twin brother.
160a. The servers got jammed up with the spillover of data and the computers were unable to process it in the due time. 160b. Some said the action was launched in order to spite someone.	160ca. The board member regarded as the spearhead of the idea of the company's thorough overhaul has declared that actions inspired by spite or hatred are absolutely inadmissible. 160cb. Those who (that) ignore clear instructions and act in spite of them, do it at their own peril.	160d. Peter is not a spiteful person. He can't have cast slurs on any of his colleagues.
161a. Ted splashed his sweating forehead and temples with cold water and cooled	161c. Elton dived into the pool with a minimal splash.	161d. Splashy graffiti on the walls attracted attention of the passers-by.

„Angielski dla leniwych 2" Ćwiczenia Rozdz. 12.8
Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

himself a bit. 161b. Can Cathleen afford to splash out on the latest edition of the encyclopedia?
	162aa. The captain cannot expect much splendour (splendor). His ship was stranded on the shallow (sandbank/shoal) between the rocky isles. 162ab. However, he had been advised to navigate away from the danger zone, hadn't he?	162b. If it hadn't been slurred it could have been a splendid speech. Was the speaker drunk?
163a. Jane and Marcus were so different that it didn't surprise anyone that they eventually split up.	163b. The split within the party leadership can only weaken the organization. 163c. How can Mira become a dancer when she can't even do the splits? 163d. The spike in the share price at the stock exchange lasted only for a split second on that day.	163e. A splitting headache may stifle thinking so if you have a creative job to do now, take a painkiller or postpone the work till the pain wears off.
164a. The silence was spoilt when we heard someone slurping his iced tea from a mug.	164ba. The nation must know what partition means as they have experienced it a few times before. 164bb. The occupiers will divide up the spoils and will govern the country through venal loyalists of their regimes. 164bc. If you are a patriot and are determined to oppose another partition, remember that your life is the most precious commodity now. 164bd. As long as you are able to use your brain power to fight against the occupation, the hope of independence exists.	164c. The parent who (that) smothered their baby with a pillow is a painful reminder of how badly spoilt (spoiled) the ripe fruit of modern civilization can be. 164d. The documentary reminds us that there are still a few unspoiled (unspoilt) places left in the wild.
165a. Who will sponsor our team an expensive training camp in the Andes?	165b. Without a new sponsor the handball club will not survive. 165c. The exhibition could take place thanks (due/owing) to the sponsorship of a few known companies.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

	166a. For some sport is business. Others practise (practice) it to exercise their bodies so that they can feel fit and strong. 166ba. The speeding sports car was stopped. 166bb. The policeman thought the driver looked suspicious so the officer wanted to use a breathalyzer to check if the man was sober. 166bc. The device didn't work so the officer sniffed at the driver to check if he could sense the smell of alcohol. 166c. Now this former sportsperson's popular programme (program) is shown at a prime time slot on a private TV channel. 166da. As a dedicated sportsman Osborn doesn't understand what it means to be in low spirits. 166db. He confirms he occasionally experiences short spells of fatigue. Otherwise he is always in high spirits, ready to work hard. 166e. In the special guest spot we have an established sportswoman who (that) will answer questions from our callers. 166fa. If the representatives of the HJ stream succeeded in completely destroying the sense of personal dignity of an individual and the sense of national affiliation which (that) orders to fight for	166i. This year's sports events at our sports centre (center) include volleyball and basketball tournaments. 166j. The shirt is too sporty for a formal reception.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

	independence, the members of the HJ stream would fully and with no restrains control every aspect of life of every single inhabitant of the area which (that) remains under their control. 166fb. They exercise their powers by means of devoted and efficient operators whose role is to collect knowledge about people and to exert intense emotional pressure on them so that they behave exactly the way the operators wish them to. 166fc. The strength of representatives of HJ stream consists in the fact that they act in perfectly organized groups and are extremely loyal towards one another. 166fd. They cunningly provoke individuals about whom they want to know everything and whom they want to control fully. They observe their reactions and in this way gain valuable knowledge about them. 166fe. This knowledge allows them to work out supreme systems of controlling people. They also constantly perfect the ways of influencing the behaviours (behaviors) of others. 166ff. Individuals who do not surrender to the existing systems of control constitute vital research material. For if one escapes from their imprisonment security system, one proves that the system is still imperfect. 166fg. Therefore the representatives of the HJ stream experiment on the individuals with a particularly strong sense of independence in order to create ever more effective systems of domination. 166fh. For absolute power means controlling also those who (that) are exceptionally resistant to any forms of external guidance. 166fi. Thus systems of banking, commerce, education, sport and entertainment, mass media or virtual worlds of computer games and the Internet with social networking sites are constantly being reformed in order to counteract ever growing threats posed by the fighters of independence. 166ga. Sportswear manufacturers respond to the latest fashion. 166gb. They also watch what sports champions are wearing this season. 166h. Johnny was a real hero on the sports day. He won in five athletic disciplines.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

167a. I know you are a perceptive person, but take your time and look very attentively in order to spot all the tiny differences between the two pictures. 167ba. To get people's attention, a journalist usually starts with finding a potentially	167c. When it's time to spawn, the fish swim up the river to the very spot where they hatched. 167da. Whenever a new novel by this popular writer is published, it immediately comes under the spotlight. 167db. That's why to stage the play based on the fiction the director hired the best performers.	167f. When you are wearing a spotless white dress it's risky to even get near the pranksters standing by the garden fountain who (that) are drinking red wine from their glasses. 167g. The hygienist reminded the boy's mother that she must teach her son how to take good care controversial or intriguing topic. 167bb. He then cleverly spotlights it and waits for people's reactions. 167bc. If the topic captures attention and polarizes opinions, the journalist will keep raising the same issue on different occasions. 167bd. Such subjects allow him to successfully pursue his well paid job.	167ea. The body of personnel managers at HJ have approved a unanimous conclusion. 167eb. They have agreed that they already have excellent fault spotters. 167ec. Yet as far as their talent spotters are concerned, they should perfect their skills. 167ed. If you are a parent of a talented child, bear that fact in mind.	of his face skin long before it becomes spotty. 167h. This spotted white and khaki blouse and dark gray trousers match each other surprisingly well.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

168a. The movie was good but a fifteen-minute commercial slot sprawled to unbearable twenty five minutes.	168ba. Urban sprawl creates perfect environment for the vermin population to expand quickly. 168bb. There is abundance of private possessions on which the creatures can parasite. 168bc. If you want to get rid of the unwelcome inhabitants of your home, you might think that you are unable to do it all by yourself. 168bd. Yet if you call for an outside exterminator, beware. It's in his interest to leave behind a few specimens alive and hidden. 168be. The exterminator hopes that once the pests re-proliferate you will again ask him for help.	168c. If the family chose to buy a house in that sprawling suburb, we need to find suitable neighbours (neighbors) for them. 168d. When Roman entered the living-room his dog, that (which) was sleeping sprawled in his master's favourite (favorite) armchair, opened his eyes and wagged his tail.
169aa. Sleaze in that particular community spreads by means of negative selection and performs like a chain reaction. 169ab. Those who want to be promoted, and there are plenty of	169ba. Our competitors will by all means be halting the spread of knowledge concerning our breakthrough. 169bb. We must watch them to learn how they are doing it.	169c. Impoverished indigenous people, appalling social inequalities and an environmental catastrophe will be the legacy of the spreading plague known as "The Common Free Market and Steady them, must first deprave someone else. 169ac. The depraved person is then in many different ways encouraged to deprave another individual. 169ad. Many of those who (that) have been depraved voluntarily give in to a financial incentive, promise of a reward or another temptation. 169ae. Some comply with the rules of negative selection because it's the only way for them to survive. 169af. This simple mechanism functions well and the number of sleazy individuals in the community in question is steadily growing. 169ag. To conclude, the demoralized who (that) deprave others have good chances to move upwards in their social pyramid. 169ah. Those who (that) refuse to demoralize others remain at the base of the pyramid.		Economic Development."

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

170aa. The older boys were provocatively inciting the naughty ones to spring into action. 170ab. Yet the latter were sitting silently in their seats.	170ba. It's good you quickly identified which spring had fractured and replaced it with a new one. 170bb. It was the weak link in the machinery. Check if there are any others. 170ca. The gardener must have cut down the shrub by mistake. 170cb. Yet the roots remained and the next spring we saw the stems of the plant appearing from the ground again. 170da. Is it known how exactly that dodger slipped through the net? 170db. Everybody knows that he has little respect for others and treats people as a convenient springboard to his own career. 170ea. Then springtime came. Gales and violent storms felled (knocked down) many colossal trees. 170eb. We saw that the trunks of some of them were rotten at their cores.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

171aa. It's a small bonfire. To extinguish it (To put it out) try to sprinkle water over it. 171ab. If it doesn't work you can smother it with that old blanket.	171ba. The dry spell continued and there were shortages in fresh water supplies. 171bb. The use of sprinklers in gardens was therefore forbidden. 171c. A sprinkling (sprinkle) of herb spices will add new flavour (flavor) to the dish.	171da. When you sprinkle the leaf with water, the tiny dark speckles on its surface will be visible even better. 171db. The leaf tissue has been attacked by infectious fungi.
172aa. If a theory doesn't square with the facts you can ignore it. 172ab. If what you are doing doesn't square with your conscience you should change your behaviour (behavior).	172b. The Town Hall is in the middle of the Main Square. 172ca. The square root of that figure is an irrational number. 172cb. You will never finish reciting it because it has an infinite number of digits after the decimal mark (point).	172d. How many tomato plants can you grow in a greenhouse of fifty square metres (meters)? 172e. The reporters got their cameras ready and when the boxers looked at each other squarely in the eye, hundreds of flashes followed.
173a. The sailors waited for the weather to stabilize.	173b. Economic instability discourages customers to spend money. (Economic instability discourages customers from spending money.) 173c. How many horses do they keep in those stables?	173e. The senator's health (condition) is very unstable. 173f. Will Andrew ever lead a stable life? 173ga. Blanch tends to be unstable emotionally. 173gb. Sometimes she

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014

	173d. What kind of stabilizer am I to use?	simply can’t resist spilling out her problems to her friends.

„Angielski dla leniwych 2” Ćwiczenia Rozdz. 12.8
Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2014