12.8 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od s
Część 1/8 Zdania 1a - 43p – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
1a. The man was allegedly sacked for making a sacrilegious remark.	1b. Do you know what spice is in the sack which (that) is on the stool? 1c. Are they considering sacking the foreman due (owing) to the recent slump in the sale of their products?
2aa. The gambler was asked to sacrifice his addictive habits for the sake of his family. 2ab. However, does he have enough will power to do it?	2b. The only sacrifices which (that) make sense are the ones which (that) significantly contribute to achieving a noble goal.	2c. Do you think rituals which (that) include sacrificial lambs are barbaric?
3a The fact that the stallholder had swindled a few pounds out of her younger siblings saddened Mary a lot.	3b. Those who (that) listened to the sombre (somber) sermon were overwhelmed by sadness.	3c. Learning (Having learnt) what's it like to be a scapegoat left the solicitor sadder but wiser. 3d. Sadly, the speaker's gesture was denounced by his opponents as an act of sacrilege.
4a. The soldier says that when they were sailing across the bay they saw a school of sharks.	4b. The wind hasn't filled the sails yet. 4c. Allan has been busy lately and he goes sailing only sporadically. 4d. The surface of the lake was smooth and the sailboat (sailing boat) was swaying gently. 4e. The captain summoned the sailor who (that) was at the stern.
5a. Does this answer satisfy you?	5b. James says that his satisfaction will be full (complete) when the crooks (cheats) are in prison (jail). 5c. The manufacturers' dissatisfaction with the	5d. Are you satisfied with what you've already achieved? 5e. The explanation is just satisfactory. 5f. Why was Philip profits they make constantly prompts them to design new devices which (that), they hope, will become market hits.	unsatisfied with my work? (Why wasn't Philip satisfied with my work? 5g. What am I to do with this dissatisfied customer? 5h. The financial results for the first half of the year are unsatisfactory. 5i. It is satisfying to see your staff scrutinize the methods used by your competitors.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

6a. We saved this bag of sugar for a rainy day. 6b. Their unswerving stance to safeguard the company against fraud has seemingly led to economic stagnation.	6c. Was anything valuable stolen from the safe? 6d. What will happen to our savings when the bank bankrupts? 6e. Savers are advised to keep their money in a few banks. 6f. It was easy for the superiors to stare unscrupulously at their subordinates from the safety of their headquarters. 6g. What did the refugees do to get through the checkpoint without the safe conduct (safe conduct pass)? 6h. Glen claims the whole shambles is the result of the lack of shrewd safeguards against corruption. 6i. Subsequently, the safe haven was not accessible to anyone who (that) had broken a single rule. 6j. The sergeants squabbled over (about) which one of them was to check the safety catch on the gun. 6k. The nurse protected the man's injured arm with a sling and a few safety pins. 6l. The safety valve will allow steady outflow of	6n. What will we do with the saved money? 6o. This leaking boat isn't safe. 6p. Sanctions rarely work. People are likely to keep using unsafe products if they give them pleasure or allow them to achieve their aims.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the excess steam from the machine. 6ma. The journalist insisted that the party activists should explain to the viewers how the financial safety net works. 6mb. In particular, the viewers wanted to know why some domestic entrepreneurs fall through it and become bankrupt.
	7a. What do scientists say about the phenomenon? 7b. Do you have to go to school to study (get to know) science? 7c. Willy is a good storyteller and with his sophisticated imagination he could create successful science fiction novels.	7d. Some doctors say that using leeches is unscientific. 7e. We carry out (do/conduct) a lot of scientific experiments on cells here.
8a. When you went upstairs our striker scored another stunning goal. 8b. The minister underscored the need to maintain the trade surplus.	8c. The film wouldn't be so appealing if it weren't for the startling score. 8da. The fans of the team which (that) was losing the match looked sullen. 8db. They stared at the scoreboard with disbelief. 8e. To get this lucrative contract and receive exorbitant salary Frank will have to prove he is a high scorer.	8f. Some spectators sneered because, similarly to last year's result, this year's final was scoreless.
9a. Anna has scorned their proposition as unseemly. She refused to surrender her claims to the property.	9b. Some had nothing but scorn for the sadist's practices. And that wasn't surprising at all.	9ca. Karl is scornful of shoddy tricks used by slick salespersons. 9cb. He says he'd like to unmask their harmfulness.
10aa. When the band finished playing, some shouted they wanted an encore. 10ab. Others shoved and scrambled to get out of the overcrowded	10b. Who took part in that frantic scramble for the best seats? 10ca. Scrambling up along the safety rope took Norman half an hour. 10cb. He successfully concert hall.	reached the top of the steep, rocky slope. 10d. Tina had scrambled eggs with chive and red pepper for breakfast. 10e. As usual, they turn on the scrambler to jam our radio signals and perform their ordinary acts of sabotage.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

11a. Was the whole collection of Benjamin's swords scrapped?	11b. In that drawer the marketing manager keeps hundreds of scraps of paper with advertising slogans that (which) he has never used. 11c. What if that piece of scrap metal contained a bit of platinum? 11d. The mechanics were searching the scrapyard (junk-yard) hoping to find the parts which (that) would allow them to restore the old automobile.
12a. You may take the shovel (spade) from the shed and use it to scrape the mud off the wheelbarrow.	12b. When Helen heard the scrape (scratch) of wet sponge on the glass shield she felt shiver down her spine. 12c. Ala removed the skin from the vegetables with a scraper and made a salad for supper.
13a. The surgeon scratched his finger with a scalpel and couldn't continue the operation.	13b. When the scouts finally scrambled out of a dense grove of spruces and pine trees their faces and arms were covered in scratches. 13c. The scratchcards with hidden numbers, some of which are allegedly winning, are a solid source of income for the company that issues them.	13d. Steven thinks it was stupid to play that old scratchy recording during the jazz session.
14aa. Karla didn't sob or think about suicide. 14ab. Instead she has become stern and	14b. If you scroll the screen, you will see the tail of this beautifully speckled (spotted) salamander.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

firm. 14ac. She has also started to screen herself from an emotionally abusive partner.	14ca. Systematic screenings of the tissue samples are important. 14cb. They may enable epidemiologists to identify the tissues which (that) are susceptible to cancer. 14d. During his stay in the spa the author modified some sections of his latest screenplay (scenario/script). 14e. The screenwriter (scripwriter) should continue his work on the sequel to the documentary about the silk trade route.
15a. The cook stashed the stew in a small container and screwed the lid properly. 15b. Savvy shepherds shouldn't be easily screwed by the smiles of smart but unscrupulous wool traders. 15c. When Sophie unscrewed the jar she found in the cellar she learnt that its content stank.	15d. The statue of Santa Claus will be fastened to the pedestal (postument) with brass screws. 15e. Don't give me scissors when I only need a screwdriver.	15fa. Sean was screwed-up after failing the test at the first attempt. 15fb. Now he had no other choice except roll up his sleeves and swot for another go.
16a. I won't believe until (till) I see it. 16b. The future (that) Ramona foresees for us isn't bright. 16c. The steelworker's family spent one week sightseeing (seeing the sights) in the capital and one week scubadiving in the sea.	16d. The sight of sick and hungry children made us sad. 16e. How long will the sightseeing of the palace take? 16f. In my opinion, the information about the sighting of the Loch Ness Monster is just another gossip. 16g. Thorough insight into the composition of the sediments and smog is essential in order to subtract the most damaging substances.	16h. The solution to the problem suggested by Larry is very short-sighted. Haven't you got a better one? 16i. Now we have to deal with the (those) unforeseen problems. 16j. The opponents of wind mill farms say that they're unsightly. 16k. How did the terrorist manage to enter the building unseen? 16l. Even the foreseeable future may (can) bring profound changes.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

		16m. Who says that the previous mass extinction was unforeseeable? 16n. The suspect had a scarf on but an insightful detective wouldn't have missed out the fact that the man had a scar on the back of his neck.
17a.Which artists have been selected as the country's representatives for the international exhibition?	17b. In this music shop they have a wide selection of classical music recordings. 17c. You may not get a swift answer from the selector.	17d. Emma has very selective taste, there are few things she likes.
18a. In the United States more people are selling their houses than buying now. 18ba. It is reported that the negotiations between the famous tenor and his publisher have reached stalemate. 18bb. The singer has decided to sue the company for underselling the records with his greatest hits. 18c. Were the organizers of the games surprised that the tickets hadn't sold out? 18d. You wouldn't sell out this script to a TV soap opera or a sitcom, would you?	18e. The sale of tickets for the Champions League took place through the Internet. 18f. A salesperson advised me to buy this mobile (cell) phone. 18g. How has the sales department reacted to the complaints from the retailers regarding the quality of the sausages they produce? 18h. The new drug, which will go on sale shortly, is meant to substitute the steroid the pharmaceutical company has been promoting up to the present day. 18i. To prove that everything can be for sale they started to run a clinic where surrogate mothers gave births to children to which they had no parental rights. 18j. Has the Treasury already announced the upsurge in the sales tax on luxury goods? 18ka. The sales representatives declined the suggestions that things had slipped out of their control.	18p. These brown bananas aren't saleable any more. 18ra. If stale bread is unsaleable, they will use it to make sandwiches. 18rb. They will be giving them away and will expect to be admired for how generous they are. 18s. Search the bottom shelves carefully. You might find unsold stainless steel sieves there.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	18kb. They assured their interlocutors that the stumbling blocks could be overcome and the sides would work out the strategy which (that) would suit them all. 18l. What will happen to the employees of the state-owned copper and silver mines when the sell-off to a foreign investor takes place? 18m. It was a hot day so the sorbet and soda seller had lots of customers. 18n. The products with sell-by date approaching are at the front of the shelf. 18o. When the economy stagnates further, the selling price for such items might change.
19aa. Eleonor says her spouse was constantly reminding her to salt the sardines. 19ab. That's why she forgot to add pepper and lemon juice.	19b. When there is a lot of salt in the dish you may tend to ignore the fact that there are other flavours in it as well. 19c. Can all species of salmon reside in salt water?	19d. Salami is usually more salty than other cold meats.
20a. If it hadn't been for the sniffer dogs your sister may not have been salvaged from under the rubbles (debris).	20b. What should Tony do to convince you to accept him as a member of the salvage team? 20c. Clive is terribly stubborn. What's more, he says he will seek his salvation through the struggle against (with) the world's evils.
21aa. The troops were very tired after hours of sandbagging the embankment to protect the town against the floodwater. 21ab. They staggered	21b. The sand was extremely hot so the scouts put on their socks and sandals before they started walking across the beach. 21ca. An old man bent low under the weight of	21j. This sandy soil is not fertile. It is usually very dry as rain water easily sinks through it.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

to their barrack.	the sandbags he was carrying on his shoulders. 21cb. When a stranger with shaggy hair offered him a helping hand, the old man firmly rejected it. 21d. While the kids who were playing in the sandbox (sandpit) were fighting over who was to hold the biggest bucket, their mothers were exchanging recipes for quick and cheap dinners. 21e. The beauty of the shrine carved in the wall of sandstone stunned the tourists. 21f. The stairs have been smoothed with sandpaper and are very sleek. Watch out when you walk down. 21g. The skeleton of the prehistoric amphibian was accidentally uncovered (unearthed) in one of those sand dunes. 21h. When a sturdy boy approached us and said he would smash our magnificent sandcastle we began to scream and threatened to spank him. Then the intruder ran away. 21i. When the wind intensified and a cloud of sand grains was swirling around the explorers, they knew the sandstorm was coming.
	22a. Mental activities like problem solving or learning new languages will preserve your sanity for years to come. 22b. Now, when all your friends know you have pried, spied, lied, cheated and abused others so that	22c. A sane person wouldn't go on a shopping spree and spend all their money when they have a mortgage to pay off. 22d. If this highly regarded academic keeps denying obvious, scientifically proven facts, he risks

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	you yourself could live in comfort, not seeking redemption would be sheer insanity on your part.	being declared insane, doesn't he?
23a. When you sanitize (sanitise) the soiled rooms remember that some microbes can play a useful role in fighting the more harmful ones.	23b. Kate avoids crowded places to protect herself from possible infections resulting from poor sanitation.	23c. The more sanitary the new houses are the less likely the recurrence of the disease is. 23d. It took the investigators quite some time to learn why a stunningly handsome businessman would look for a collaborator in such an unsanitary (insanitary) district.
24aa. Those who satirize (satirise) a given system may not at all be interested in changing it. 24ab. It provides them with a great deal of ideas for their comic shows, doesn't it?	24b. Satire can teach you what you shouldn't do if you don't want to be ridiculed by your enemies. 24c. Would satirists make fun of themselves in public if it didn't bring them fame or money?	24d. The smear campaign included savagely satirical images of their opponents.
25a. Having saturated the market with their starch sprays the company director suggested they could start producing cloth (fabric) softeners.	25b. What is the saturation point for sulphur (sulfur) in this chemical mixture?	25ca. Some stubbornly insisted on pouring water into the already saturated solution. 25cb. Arguably, they were doing it so that they could dump even more toxic waste into it. 25d. Unsaturated fats are said to be easily digested.
	26a. The sauce is very spicy so a full scoop of it may be too much. A teaspoonful will suffice. 26b. If you are hungry, help yourself to the spaghetti and soya beans which (that) are in the saucepan. 26ca. The steward brought us nicely looking strawberries on a porcelain saucer. 26cb. When we tasted them they turned out to be bitter-sour.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

27a. When Adam was sawing a plank, a large knock suddenly shot towards him. Adam was lucky to get off scot-free (unscathed).	27b. In those days lumberjacks (woodcutters) had only mechanical saws at their disposal, so the deforestation didn't proceed very fast. 27c. The kids shouldn't skip the skipping rope near that stack of smouldering (smoldering) sawdust because they can get burnt. 27d. The native explained that the screeching sound was coming from the sawmill which (that) was on the other side of the stream.
28a. I wouldn't say it's impossible to heal the sore.	28b. The constructor of this personalized schedule schemer should have the final say on how to fix it as he knows the device the best. 28c. As the saying goes: "It's never too late to place a righteous guy at the steering wheel." 28d. The minister's say-so may determine the fate of the employees of the steelworks.	28e. Words of sorrow remained unsaid and the peasants quietly started the clean-up after the heavy rain.
29aa. The economic growth forecasts have been scaled down significantly. 29ab. Now the government has come under close scrutiny. 29ac. People want to know how the rulers are going to financially protect the working class. 29b. The mountaineers claim they scale the most	29ca. Having been squandering public money on a grand scale for years, the senators spontaneously decided to set a good example. 29cb. They announced they would live in Spartan conditions, on meager incomes and scanty food supplies. 29da. During the meeting the surreal scales of justice were presented. 29db. It was said that the hazardous mountains because the fact that their summits exist, is a challenge for them.	good deeds placed in one pan should overbalance the faults of the culprit placed in the other one. 29e. Other scavengers must have been here before us. All we found were fish scales.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

30a. Some are reluctant to mature and grow out of scandalizing (scandalising).	30b. Was it a coincidence that the scandals broke simultaneously? 30c. Scandalmongers often resort to scathing criticism of the objects of their remarks.	30d. Don't you bother about the scandalous lack of good manners the celebrity presented?
	31a. We live in an era of the abundance of goods and information and scarcity of job opportunities and trust in those who (that) rule us.	31b. With a few slices of bread left, the skinny orphans thought it was scarcely a possibility to feast. 31c. Scarcely had the man finished eating his huge steak when he started to devour an enormous dessert. 31d. The scarcer the precious resources the more thoughtfully we should exploit them.
32a. Bobby scared his mother when he made a sling. The woman feared her son would throw stones at birds.	32b. Did you succumb to the scare some journalists were spreading that satanic forces had overpowered the hermit? 32ca. When from afar we spotted a strange silhouette holding a scythe we thought it was a reaper. 32cb. Yet when we came closer, we saw it was a scarecrow with long arms made from twisted sticks. 32d. It's crucial to differentiate who is a scaremonger that (who) makes a lot of fuss to gain popularity for themselves and who warns you	32e. The scared face of the trader may indicate that he is unsure about the effects of his subsequent actions. 32f. Does this scary fairy tale about a big-eyed slug that (which) together with its relatives became entangled in a spider's web and was striving to break free end well for the protagonist and its family?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	because you are in danger.
33a. A huge swarm of hungry fleas scattered over the whole house so if you take a seat in the settee (sofa) you can be bitten by several of them.	33b. The sky was gray so only a scatter (scattering) of sparkling heavenly bodies were visible. 33c. If they are such scatterbrains, perhaps someone smart should organize their life for them? They might not be able to do it by themselves.	33da. The kids can't get out of the playroom leaving the scattered building blocks on the floor. 33db. They must collect all the pieces and put them in the suitcase that (which) is on the bottom shelf.
34a. Some squatters have no income so they are forced to scavenge through the garbage bags to get something to eat.	34b. Scavengers, like crows, play a useful role in their habitat as they clean the area from carrion.
	35a. The drug dealer's spies are everywhere so when any of his customers overdoses, they are bound to arrive at the scene immediately. 35b. Organizers of mass events like a rock music concert at a stadium must plan how to avoid the worst-case scenario, like a stampede. 35c. The sea was shallow so wearing snorkels and goggles we could admire the unique underwater scenery.	35d. The brochure advertised the place as the land of enchanting scenic beauty and the travellers (travelers) spontaneously chose to go there.
36a. The dog scented a squirrel and rushed after it but the animal climbed up the oak tree.	36b. When the saffrons flower (blossom), their soothing scent will fill the air.	36c. When Danny takes a shower he uses this scented soap and what's why his skin smells so nice.
	37a. As a born sceptic (skeptic) Chris wouldn't solely rely on good luck if he were to confront another strife. 37b. The sports commentator expressed his skepticism (skepticism) whether the stuntman would	37ca. Nick says that since the water subsided only a thin sheet of silt has remained on the meadow. 37cb. Richard is rather skeptical (skeptical) of it.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	perform a somersault while riding a scooter.
38a. Are there more job interviews scheduled for this afternoon? 38b. The speech of the seminary's dean in the senate may have to be rescheduled.	38c. The pace of the reconstruction of the sanatorium has been sluggish. Work has fallen far behind the schedule. Has the chairman apologized for it?	38d. If it's a scheduled operation, it will be conducted according to the plan. 38ea. It was the film star's unscheduled visit to the metropolis's slums. 38eb. There she handed out small souvenirs to the youngsters who (that) squat in a shabby tenement house.
39a. The man is a schizophrenic. He keeps telling his doctors that his colleagues are scheming to supplant him.	39b. Have you heard about the scheme? It is supposed to improve the collaboration between the pedagogues who (that) update the school syllabus and the school teachers. 39ca. To hold his post a schemer may use unsophisticated tactics. 39cb. For instance, he can maintain that you should carry highly radioactive materials in your bare hands. 39d. Only after watching the whole series of didactic movies very attentively, was Abraham slowly beginning to understand the methods of advanced scheming.
	40a. Routinely, they carry out the full sequence of all the necessary chemical reactions. They don't leave anything to blind luck. 40b. Be careful. There could be a surge in the number of scholarship applications in this semester.	40c. If a scholarly person is not a fan of their association, they deny that individual an opportunity to develop their intellectual potential.
41a. Do you want to be tough? Be able to stave off the danger of	41b. School is a good place where you can find those who (that), while still very being bribed and blackmailed? If so, you need to constantly school yourself in perfecting your techniques of self-defence (self-defense).	young, exercise implicating others into their scheming, as well as those who (that) are careful and don't easily get involved in intrigues. 41c. School age children are usually trusting. They may be easily influenced by experienced manipulators. 41d. The schoolboys deliberately waited until (till) a naïve plodder steps into a web of intrigue schemed by their reliable girlfriends. 41e. Many schoolgirls are more interested in boys and gossip than in learning. 41f. Do schoolchildren who (that) learn full sentences in a foreign language by heart make fewer syntactic errors when they communicate in that language than those who (that) learn grammar rules? 41g. When your best school friend (schoolmate) encourages you to put more sugar in your tea than you really need, you'd better be suspicious of them. 41ha. Is your child incapacitated by domineering friends, who (that) decide what games they play together? 41hb. If so, perhaps it's time for a change in your child's schooling.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

42a. It took mother nature millions of years to sculpt those splendid stalagmites and stalactites and humans have no right to destroy them.	42b. Put sculptures of bewildering beauty on display, declare them sacred, crowds will flock to see them and then you can preach the virtues of your ideology. 42c. Is the sculptor still looking for apprentices who	42d. This beautifully sculptured alabaster statue may weather quickly when left outdoors.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	(that) would help him pre-shape those enormous blocks of granite?
	43a. Who are those that (who) attempt to stealthily contaminate the sea? 43b. The most expensive mansions were strewn along the sea front. 43c. Do the islanders sell a lot of their seafood to the inhabitants of the continent? 43d. You shouldn't mistake a seagull for a stork as they look very different. 43e. If Patrick continues his sedentary lifestyle, he can't expect a sea change in his health. 43f. When the expert stammered (stuttered) the information about the possibility of a sudden rise of sea level in the aftermath of a seismic shock, there was a sulky silence. 43g. Stella isn't going to buy this dried sea horse to decorate her bathroom wall, is she? 43h. The skirmish (clash) between the two sea lions ended soon. They skidded from the iceberg and swam in different directions. 43i. Seashells of this size can be used to serve soup. 43j. No doubt the shrimp mongers who (that) are at the seashore have received the signals sent by the crew of the submarine submerged a few miles off the coast (a few miles offshore). 43k. The weather is not very good and the sea water is very cold today so	43n. Those who (that) easily get seasick shouldn't go to sea. 43o. When they got out of the swamp they headed seaward. 43p. While the divers were carrying out the undersea search for duds, the snipers were securing the beaches.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the holidaymakers have decided to have a good time in one of the many entertainment facilities that (which) are at the seaside. 43l. There were so many smelly spinach-like seaweeds in the water near the shore that even the keenest swimmers decided to keep off them. 43m. We have a solemn confirmation from the builders that the sea walls will withstand even the most severe storms.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020