12.9 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od: t, u, v, w, z
Część 2/9 Zdania 31a - 49cx – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
31a. What did you think then?	31b. Gienia's thoughts concentrated on her trip to Italy. 31c. The thinking behind thrift is very simple. The less of the dwindling resources you consume, the longer you survive. 31d. Sean is a serious thinker and his observations concerning theology are enlightening. 31ea. When a think tank can't make a unanimous decision and the tug-of-war continues you don't toss a coin to choose the solution. 31eb. Someone reliable must put a stop to the endless discussions and say what each person should do.	31f. Going mushroom picking and not taking a basket with you would be a rather thoughtless behaviour (behavior). 31g. Anthony presents a very thoughtful approach to (doing) shopping. 31h. Not long ago such catastrophes were unthinkable. 31i. Theoretically, reasoning mammals should have an advantage over less intelligent animals, in regard to controlling and defending their territories.
	32aa. "The concept presented by my competitors doesn't suit me at all. I could get trapped," the recurring thoughts tormented Henry. 32ab. "I must analyze the topic rationally. Instead of vetoing the notion of my rivals I should find a convincing and viable way out," Henry pondered. 32ac. "I am a popular public figure and I have mastered the abilities to mask my shortcomings. 32ad. Additionally, people have no idea that my knowledge of that complicated theory is shallow and inadequate.	32ba. "You tainted the samples, carried out a thorough investigation and the verdict is "not guilty"? 32bb. What do I pay my task forces for? Whom can I trust?" the wicked trickster raged. 32ca. Simon knows that he is unable to negotiate a better deal for himself. 32cb. His friend Murry advises him to thoroughly accept the honest conditions he is currently being offered. 32da. The specialists from the lab confirm that they have the know-how,

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	32ae. Therefore, they can't possibly realize that I have no authority to question the thoroughness and accuracy of the concept." 32af. Henry grinned and mused: "I will recite seemingly valid arguments and on this basis I will bluntly dismiss the whole idea. 32ag. I have no other option anyway. If people believe in the theory, my career will be over. What's worse, I might even become bankrupt."	experience and facilities necessary to conduct proper genetic tests. 32db. They will allow to determine authoritatively whether the examined animal is a thoroughbred zebra or a hybrid which (that) looks like a zebra but behaves like another animal.
33a. Who threatened (that) they would set fire to your storehouses (warehouses)? (Who threatened (that) they would burn down your storehouses (warehouses)?) (Who threatened to burn down your storehouses (warehouses)?)	33b. You seem not to worry at all about those threats. (You seem not to worry about those threats at all.)	33c. The man was talking something about the threatening emails (e-mails).
34aa. The performance of the artist aroused excitement in the audience and this fact thrilled the vain performer. 34ab. "They are buying what I'm doing. Thanks to that I can have them under my thumb. 34ac. These people admire me, so they will make me famous and rich. 34ad. I feel I am the victor. Now my wallet will always be filled with money and I'll be able to do whatever I	34ba. The thrill you experience when you eventually succeed is like lightning and thunder. It lasts only for a short while. 34bb. The pleasure of the struggle while you are trying to find a solution to a complex problem resembles pushing a heavy stone always up the slope. 34bc. Such constant effort keeps you preoccupied for a very long time. 34ca. In the thriller the stalker managed to bring the harassed tenant to the verge of a nervous breakdown. 34cb. The harasser achieved his goal by playing the tape with the horrifying sounds	34d. It was thrilling to realize that it was possible to produce snakebite serum which (that) would render the venom of the reptile harmless. 34ea. The tangerine seller was thrilled at the opportunity he was offered. 34eb. He was allowed to appear during the break in the speech of the activist of equal rights. 34ec. He informed the people who gathered at the rally that on that day they could buy the fruit at his stall at a bargain price.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

wish," the artist daydreamed.	over and over again.
35aa. Joe threw the shatterproof mirror, telescope, umbrella and kitchen utensils into a big trunk and locked it. 35ab. Then he loaded it together with his other stuff into a truck and told the driver to take everything to his ranch. 35ba. Don't throw away this extraordinary tricycle because your daughter has grown out of it. 35bb. Take it to the storage room on the top floor and keep it for your grandchildren. 35ca. The football umpire was fortunate that he threw up (vomited) the contents of his stomach and cleared his body from poison. 35cb. Thanks to that he was able to lead the testimonial game in which so many outstanding players presented their skills.	35d. If an athlete crosses the white line drawn on the tarmac, his throw doesn't count. 35e. Is the man who (that) has come to the party with his turtle pet a discus or hammer thrower?	35fa. Your opponents already know that they have to toughen the rules of the game. 35fb. Next time they won't launch any new throwaway product unless they have well trained specialists and recycling technology which (that) utilizes such an article effectively. 35fc. They must be a hundred per cent certain that nobody will be able to transgress the established regulations and that they are fully capable of turning every single product into a utilitarian article which (that) serves exclusively their purposes. 35fd. They know that the thing which doesn't meet those requirements must never see daylight. 35fe. They are also convinced that under no circumstances can their most guarded secrets be unravelled (unraveled).
	36aa. All hotel guests are informed when precisely the high and low tide occur. 36ab. They can watch the water rise and fall from their terraces overlooking the ocean. 36ba. The patrons enjoyed the friendly atmosphere of the bar, chatted about sailing holidays and drank exquisite tea.	36c. Those volatile tidal currents can be treacherous as they can suddenly and unexpectedly change the direction and can hamper your moving forward.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	36bb. The threat of a tidal wave seemed completely surreal to them.
37a. When did they tighten up the rules on buying alcohol by young people?	37b. Will you put on brown or black tights?	37c. Even a mouse won't sneak through their tight security. 37d. Did you tie the knot tightly? 37e. Jane is tight-lipped about her sponsors.
	38a. If the job is of titanic proportions, you need to use your time in the most efficient way. 38b. An hour seems a reasonable time frame needed to learn how to operate an ordinary till. 38c. Eleonor wears this expensive timepiece only on special occasions. 38da. There can be countless ways of pointing who the disobedient individual is, so that your colleagues learn about their existence and so that your friends can be warned of them. 38db. For example, if you are a critic, you can evaluate the works of that person at a slightly lower level than they actually deserve it. 38dc. If you are a coach, you can exclude that person's training sessions from your timetable for a while. 38dd. Yet, if you operate within a relatively long time span, before you send the warning signal to your cronies, consider whether the timing for doing so is right. 38e. At what speed should the vessel which travels full circle around the earth move, if it goes eastwards, stays at the same latitude, and so that the clock on its board always	38f. Working on a new version of the thesaurus was time-consuming but the very positive opinions from its users were most rewarding. 38ga. "Just as we have been warned, it does appear to be a timeless phenomenon which (that) won't stop haunting us," the HJ's team boss announced with a smirk. 38gb. After the statement, the VIPs who came to the meeting began to fidget nervously in their chairs. 38gc. "On the one hand, that strange little creature has some value to us, because it is smart and thanks to it we can learn about essential things," the media representative pointed out 38gd. "On the other hand, whomever we have deployed to break that wretched being down, no matter how venomous our messengers have been in their efforts to humiliate that individual and however cleverly and virulently they have been provoking it, the creature has remained completely incapable of trespassing the bounds of decency," the ombudsman

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	shows the same time, regardless of the time zone in which the vessel currently finds itself in?	uttered with a detectable trepidation in his voice. 38ge. “This naturally left us with no other choice but to go well beyond the bounds of decency ourselves,” the commander responsible for law enforcement interjected vivaciously and winked meaningfully. 38gf. “Apparently, even those specially designed cameras didn’t provide us with sufficient evidence of any misconduct, down there on the ground,” the chief technologist snapped. 38gg. “We can’t prove that a meaningful act of treachery has been committed. That’s why no warrant has been issued,” the chief justice stated with a somber tone in his voice. 38gh. “Looks like our acclaimed tortuous diplomacy has led us nowhere and has turned out to be an utter failure,” the chief of staff inferred. 38gi. “So now, are we to leave that ugly, outrageous, painful, open wound which (that) taints our impeccable image to our future generations, as our visionary suggested long ago, or has the time come to get down to sorting it out and make some tentative steps towards friendship?”, the Trade Union member asked. 38ha. “This decorative plant is destined for our physiotherapist. 38hb. If you wished, you could go to her home, give it to her and tell her it’s from all of us," the wife said to her husband. 38hc. "You could tell her we all thank her for her effort and everything she has taught us and our children," the woman added fondly. 38hd. "Should I not touch the leaves of the plant?" the husband asked consciously. 38he. "As you well know, it would be better for you if you did not do it," the wife replied with a forgiving smile. 38hf. The woman swallowed saliva to clear her throat and explained: "Our secret, vigorous, miniature worms are well hidden on the underside of the leaves so the physiotherapist can't possibly spot them." 38hg. "You mean the ones that are so famous for their vitality?" the husband joked. He visibly livened up and his temples began to throb. 38hh. "These are the enhanced variety. First they whet the appetite for different whims and then allow the virulent form of addiction to develop very quickly," the wife stated intelligently. 38hi. "I've heard about the sort. As yet, no one has proven (proved) resistant to it," the husband remarked seemingly indifferently, as he tried to temper his emotions. 38hj. His wife suddenly changed the subject of their talk. 38hk. "The spiritual leader of HJs talked to me in private. Presumably they have a problem with some concealed valve. 38hl. Apparently, someone should control it. Open or close it at a given time,” the woman was whispering softly into her handsome husband’s ear. 38hm. “So that’s what everybody is gossiping about now!” the husband snapped nervously with a wry smile. 38hn. “He mentioned that they appreciated loyalty and rarely missed to notice a timely preventive action which went smoothly,” the wife continued. 38ho. “My plastic surgery clinic can cope with a much bigger number of breast implant operations. There is no doubt about that,” the man suddenly raised a new theme. 38hp. “Talking about work, our son is applying to assist the professor in his pioneering kidney transplant operation which (that) includes the use of a new method of transfusion,” the wife announced and put a teapot with freshly brewed tea and two cups on the table. 38hr. “And our daughter would like to be a violinist in the opera orchestra,” the husband sighed and poured some tea into his cup. 38hs. “All the pros and cons must be carefully considered,” the man pondered. 38ht. He looked at the plant which (that) stood there, in the middle of the table, on the white tablecloth. He wasn't sure he liked it very much. 38hu. The pot looked good, though. It was wrapped in elegant, shining, golden wrapping paper. 38i. The (trade) unionists can actively participate in preventing similar untimely, unfortunate events from happening.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

39a. Even the most durable material tires with time.	39b. Despite (In spite of) tiredness the mountaineer continued his climb to the top (summit/peak).	39c. Sylvia is never tired of working with children. 39d. Cleaning (up) the silverware was quite tiring. 39e. I don't know anyone (anybody) as tireless as Matthew. 39f. The sound the electric saw is making is really tiresome.
40a. What are the parts of the trilogy titled?	40ba. Nobody knows if the officials purposefully have not asked the vendors what sort of titles they have to the properties here. 40bb. It is only known that the traders profit from selling their toys in the area. 40c. The title-holder in gymnastics said he would never have his body tattooed.	40da. It was a huge, smooth, gray wall. On the left there was just one small painting signed: "Untitled". 40db. Next to it, a sign read: "We have built the wall and left this vast space on it specially for you. You can give your own title to the work you see here." 40dc. On the shelf below there were several white felt-pens waiting for those who (that) wanted to write their titles to the painting on the wall.
41a. You shouldn't have tolerated the way he treated you.	41b. Intolerance is the cause of many conflicts. 41c. Is there religious tolerance in your country?	41d. With age Adonis was becoming more and more tolerant. 41e. Wise people are rarely (seldom/hardly ever) intolerant. 41fa. Alice got into the room and sat in the last row to watch and listen how the HJs who (that) gathered there were going to find the remedies for xenophobia. 41fb. Unfortunately, as usual, each participant firmly defended their unilateral declarations. 41fc. Apart from that, the vocabulary was becoming savage and remarks venomous. It looked like each of the partakers wanted to steal the show for themselves. 41fd. The speakers started drifting away from the main topic and a bitter feud set in. Evidently strong emotions ran away with the participants of the meeting. 41fe. “The level of hostility they demonstrate towards one another is hardly tolerable,” Alice thought. 41ff. “They are not able to reach a consensus,” Alice wondered. She looked through the window. 41fg. “Nor are they able to notice that a perilous storm is just coming. 41fh. I guess it’s best to stay calm and leave them wrangling and settling their differences. 41fi. Fortunately I didn’t get implicated in that preposterous show,” Alice thought, took her bag and quietly walked out of the room. 41fj. She wanted to get home before the storm was going to start.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

42aa. It’s not a taboo subject any more and the actress openly admits that she owes her father a lot.	42ba. The topsoil is very moist. 42bb. Probably that’s why the tiny pieces of this seaweed, which the waves have been	42ca. Firstly, once you share the news with another person, you lose your exclusive right to it. 42cb. Secondly, thanks to

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

42ab. She depicts him as a wary, noble and generous man. 42ac. Though she realizes that he has had to top his bosses' glasses on several occasions to maintain his post, he has always been a strong supporter of the teetotal movement. 42ad. It's him who (that) bought her that big white car which (that) is at an underground parking lot in one of the most prestigious skyscrapers. 42ae. Her father keeps it there for her. Whenever the actress comes to town to visit him, she can whisk freely and independently wherever she wants.	constantly bringing to land, are starting to grow their roots. 42bc. Looks like they are here to stay. They seem to be adapting to the new habitat very quickly.	today's technology, top secret information, like, for instance, the whereabouts of the newly discovered whizz at the computer science, spread as quickly as wildfire. 42cc. Top-level news hunters usually get it first. 42cd. In this way they gain temporary advantage over those who (that) still have not had it. 42da. It's every businessman's dream to have a monopoly on a product that sells very well, like a popular smartphone or a top singer. 42db. In the era of free market and vicious competition such a dream almost never comes true. 42dc. For if a successful product appears on the market, similar gadgets are bound to crop up very soon. 42dd. Plenty of small time hustlers will distribute them all around to get their share of the pie. 42de. It's worth noting, though, that while copycatting even a very complicated production technology is relatively straightforward, replicating a successful human being seems much more complex. 42df. In a situation when a firm already has a popular product on the market, guarding the successful technology becomes their topmost (utmost/uttermost) priority. 42ea. Many examples of effective marketing techniques and the ways of securing the well selling product from it being taken over by the competitors can be found in the world of mass media. 42eb. For instance, it's a dream of every financially independent film producer or broadcaster to have top-ranking performers work exclusively for them. 42ec. For top stars attract huge audiences and thanks to that, directly or indirectly, can generate huge profits for their employers. 42ed. Celebrities with authority are valuable also because they can present the opinions of people and therefore the democratically elected decision makers treat them very seriously. 42ee. TV programmes (programs) in which the stars appear have a chance to become top-rated shows. 42ef. This in turn draws in advertisers who (that) are ready to pay enormous sums of money for the privilege of showing their products on prime time television. 42eg. The circle closes. We know the role of celebrities in the material world and we understand why the phenomenon of the chase after the stars appears in the first place. 42eh. Maintaining the monopoly on a top performer is, in the reality of the free market economy, very difficult. 42ei. In order to continuously profit from the popularity of an artist, the persona must be entrapped in a shatterproof glass ball which (that) is invisible for an outside observer. 42ej. In other words, they must be imprisoned in a perfectly functioning, absolutely hermetic, inaccessible from the outside, closed system. 42ek. The performer must become completely dependent on the system and there can be no possibility for them to sneak out. 42el. The HJs recognized the necessity of having an effective and transparent system of managing human resources of this kind a lot earlier than anyone else would have thought of it. 42em. They started creating it centuries ago and, in the course of developing it, they have been systematically perfecting its functioning and modernizing the ways information has been quickly conveyed within the system. 42en. Their experience in the field and the complex infrastructure which (that) they have developed and which (that) they manage very productively are extremely valuable and can prove very useful, particularly at the moments of social troubles. 42eo. Yet, could the HJs be allowed to act in order to solve social unrests peacefully? 42ep. Due to the enormous risk involved in such a venture, even under the assumption that every step they take is scrupulously controlled, extreme caution would still have to be maintained. 42er. For it must always be remembered that their desire and determination to profit at the expense of others remain the ulterior motives behind every decision they make. 42es. The areas in which social disturbances occur are ideal places for the HJs to act since these are the perfect conditions for them to realize their goals. 42et. It is in their vested interest to go to a volatile region in the world. 42eu. They use their skills to manipulate people there and they gain popularity thanks to populist slogans. 42ev. People naively put their trust in them, vote for them and choose them as their leaders. 42ew. In return, they cunningly seize power and reign the given area supreme afterwards. 42ex. They always perform such actions thoroughly prepared – with the help of the money needed for the election campaigns and popular personas whom they can later use as their figureheads. 42fa. Now the HJs are aware of the fact that they are being constantly watched and controlled and that people are able to recognize the motives of their activities better and better. 42fb. Instead of brutally persecuting those who (that) dare to disagree with their tricky ideology, the HJs could offer people to realize the ideas which (that) they have been hypocritically preaching about. 42fc. They might try to convince others that they do know how to implement fraternal love, peace and harmony between different nations and races, or how the human rights should be observed. 42fd. They might be delighted to be given such an exceptional opportunity to make use of their know-how and the highly trained staff that have all the necessary skills and experience in steering others. 42fe. They might think that restoring peace and order in the place which (that) is now teeming with social tensions would constitute a valid warranty of their actual usefulness. 42ff. They might calculate that if they used their professionalism for the noble causes, their good deeds could redeem all their past wrongs. 42fg. They could reckon that, to start with, they ought to consider all the pros and cons concerning one set of socio-economic reality versus another. 42fh. Then they would weigh the foreseeable consequences of different decisions and would choose the solution which (that) would guarantee the end of the socio-economic disagreements. 42fi. They could suppose that, if necessary, they should withhold their support for individuals who (that) could incite others to hatred and violence, because this could trigger even more social unrests. 42fj. They could consider enlisting such persons in one of their numerous rehabilitation programs financed, for instance, by independent NGOs. 42fk. They might think that they could proceed to deliver on their promises of building a prosperous society. 42fl. They could contemplate putting up textile plants to create new jobs and employ many single mothers, in order to improve the public image of the HJs. 42fm. They could hope to guarantee proper wages for hardworking people and decent life conditions for ordinary, honest citizens. 42fn. They might wish they could establish a just and incorruptible legal system. 42fo. Among all the wishful thinking, they would definitely have to take into consideration the fact that if they missed the opportunity to redeem themselves, they would have to blame no one but themselves for that.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

43aa. The HJs will not	43ca. “You are talking about	43da. However tortuous

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

only torture and humiliate you. They will also rip you off your every virtue. 43ab. To top it all (On top of it), they will try to rewrite history claiming, for example, that your theory has all been their own idea and that you have had no part in it. 43ac. The HJs always want to come out on top and believe that, sooner or later, they can profit a lot from uniqueness. 43ad. If you become an author, champion or another celebrity, you are automatically their target. 43ae. They will do anything to subordinate you to themselves and have you under their absolute control. 43af. They will cleverly entangle you in their cobweb and will never let you out of it. 43ag. If they succeed, you will become a token. They will skillfully and openly juggle it, just like they tinker with pieces of news, to test public mood and opinions in order to achieve their diverse purposes. 43ba. The painter was looking at his picture and reckoned: “I’ve examined the issue from top to toe. 43bb. There is only	the pains of adulthood, responsibilities and tackling the real world adversities while one can prosper in the world of telecommunication, television (telly), computer games and virtual reality? 43cb. What sane person would consciously choose torture instead of enjoying carefree, ever-lasting childhood?” the forty-year-old bachelor twittered.	the path through the maze can be, the HJs will try to control every inch of it. 43db. They will keep a close eye on everyone who (that) might have the key which can unlock the door to the chapel in which the trolley with the precious contents is. 43ea. The commander summoned his best investigators to his office and told them: 43eb. “At the moment that fellow is tortured and disregarded. Yet one day he may find himself at the top of the tree. 43ec. I’ve heard that some claim that he still appears to be an enigma to you. 43ed. Admitting that fact would be tantamount to confessing to your ignorance. 43ee. Consequently, you need to continue to try to figure him out.”

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

one sensible conclusion. 43bc. I will never and at no price allow that merchant to deviously steal from me my copyrights to my unique work which (that) I have created all by myself.”
44a. The number of earthquake victims totalled (totaled) fifty thousand.	44b. Did you compare your totals? 44c. Can you name a few features (characteristics) of totalitarianism?	44d. David says that in a totalitarian system people can (may) feel safe. 44e. Only a total victory will satisfy Barbara. 44f. Norbert was totally surprised when they chose him CEO (Chief Executive Officer).
45aa. The tins which (that) are on the windowsill did move, although (though/even though) the magician didn’t touch them at all. 45ab. He claims the tins have shifted along the window sill thanks to his telepathic abilities and the power of his mind. 45ba. A small problem appeared, but luckily there was a vet (veterinarian) on board the plane. 45bb. He took professional care of the distressed widow’s dog, before they touched down. 45bc. The animal had its tail injured because somebody had accidentally stepped on it.	45ca. Nowadays, any information can become available practically at the touch of a computer key. 45cb. When it gets into the hands of venal individuals, they may want to use it immediately either to meet their own ends or to smear their opponents. 45cc. If irresponsible individuals manipulate information, any news can do a lot of harm. 45d. You don’t praise the pilot before a safe touchdown, particularly when a tornado is raging nearby.	45ea. This vivacious girl has a volatile personality. 45eb. When she is overwhelmed by a tide of strong emotions and somebody criticizes her she tends to be touchy. 45fa. If the matter you are working on concerns the prospects of survival of many persecuted nations and you have to take into consideration the possibility of touch-and-go situations, you focus on developing systemic solutions. 45fb. You are not interested in organizing a one-time victorious action. 45ga. If you are touched by the fairness of fierce criticism of your actions and you remain untouched by the cruelty of an unfair, superficial and scathing assessment of your work, you can feel privileged. 45gb. For you have managed to work out the right mindset regarding yourself and your critics. 45h. Has the director found another touching and evocative, full of surprises story which (that) he intends to turn into his next successful movie? 45ia. The base of the system the HJs have created and which they have been deftly managing is love, in all the variety of its forms. 45ib. They've been delighted that generally people have accepted the hierarchy of values which (that) the HJs have imposed on others. 45ic. The system they have created perfectly secured all their vested interests. 45id. Moreover, it has worked ideally. The members of the ruling clan usually have fulfilled their desires and achieved successes unhindered. 45ie. However, some of the people who (that) have lived in the communities which (that) have been supervised by the HJs have concluded that the existing order forces them to play the role of the slaves of love. 45if. They have decided to save themselves and protect their children from the possessive HJs. 45ig. They didn't want to become completely enslaved to the currently reigning sovereigns and their faithful worshippers of the cult of love. 45ih. They wanted to separate themselves from them and regard them as untouchable.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

46a. “What better way of proving my supremacy over the employer than to show him how easily I can intoxicate his wife with my deep passion for her and make her leave her husband and children and escape with me?” daydreamed the young, ambitious gardener while he was trimming the vine shrubs in his master’s field.	46b. “Prove that the toxin has the potential to generate future profits for us and we’ll provide you with the necessary financial backup, so that you can develop your technology,” the world distributor of chemicals said to the aspiring chemist. 46ca. Due to the high toxicity of the varnish, the manager ordered the female workers to paint the office floors with the poisonous substance. 46cb. The men who (that) worked for the company did not have the power to contradict their boss and stand up to protect the women, because they all were his inferiors. 46cc. The women had no choice but to do what they were ordered. They had to work to feed their children and themselves. 46da. Toxicology experts have been on a constant high alert. 46db. They’ve been ready to supply the patients with their own, well tested medicine. 46dc. They’ve been determined not to allow their competitors to offer a different kind of remedy. 46dd. By no means have they wished to be eliminated from the market they have known so well. 46ea. ”What good can a new intoxicant do to me?” the inhabitant of the neglected tenement house thought to himself. 46eb. “As soon as a momentary	46fa. This toxic liquid is thought to be highly volatile. 46fb. Its particles mix with the air molecules. 46fc. If you breathe them in, they will systematically poison you. 46ga. Suddenly Danielle felt as if she was in a hypnotic trance. 46gb. She was intoxicated by the beauty of the untouched wilderness. 46ha. The vicar claims he would like to regain his sense of freedom. 46hb. That’s why he tries to stay out of touch with the envious gossips and an intoxicating aura of the surroundings in which they operate.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	intoxication wears off, you realize that nothing will improve, just by itself. 46ec. The owner of the building says he hasn't got the money to repair the wobbly stairs or to replace the broken windowpanes. 46ed. Therefore, it's better to team up with those who (that) are not afraid to face the woe. 46ee. If we toil together we will turn this untidy place into a clean home."
47a. The booklet traces the origins of the use of wax in making candles and describes how people coped when there was no electricity in the village.	47ba. A tip-off led the investigators to an abandoned wagon. 47bb. They found traces of volcanic ash and wool there but they didn't find any zinc they were looking for.	47ca. An early warning sign can be an instinctive fear of your child of certain individuals. 47cb. Such signals are traceable and they should alert the parents. 47cc. For they may warn you that masked sexual predators are nearby. 47cd. Yet the parents, as if completely unmindful of the danger those persons can pose to their children and to them, often don't pay sufficient attention or ignore such signals altogether.
48a. The electronic tag allows to track every move of that wolf and when the animal finds itself in the vicinity of human settlements, their inhabitants are warned. 48b. With the help of a helicopter and fast police cars, the police officers quickly tracked the van down and blocked it the way out of the tunnel.	48ca. I don't think there were any moments when Steven thought he was on the wrong track. 48cb. I am convinced that he has always been certain that he's been on the right track. 48d. "You are not good at any of the track and field disciplines but you may have a chance to excel in science," the coach said. 48e. The experts will trace the track record of that popular athlete back to the early 1960s to look for guidelines, how to successfully deal with similar cases in the future.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	48f. The searchers wouldn't have found the missing person without experienced tracker dogs. 48ga. Mark is in his favourite tracksuit today. 48gb. He practises (practices) regularly on this running track around the football pitch, as he wants to be on top form.
49aa. The press bureau openly trades in all sorts of information and they want to be reliable. 49ab. Yet almost always there is a probability that the news they obtain from their sources is incomplete or that it's an outright lie. 49ac. Therefore they need to constantly verify whether what they've learnt is true. 49ba. The customer's weakness seems the most obvious feature on which a seller hopes they can trade. 49bb. If you limp, they will try to sell you a walking stick. If you are hungry and you have tinned food, they will offer you a tin-opener. 49bc. If your clothes are old and tattered, they might encourage you to try on an attractive looking uniform. 49bd. Before you put it on, check if you can easily take it off, for its lining may contain glue which (that) will	49ca. The HJs always want to correctly react to various social phenomena. 49cb. For that purpose, they observe and analyze them systematically and try to understand them thoroughly. 49cc. For example, the fact that more and more people live on the planet necessitates the steady creation of a greater and greater number of jobs which (that) can guarantee their survival. 49cd. This prompts the need for a steady economic growth. 49ce. HJs' economists believe that to boost economy, people should buy more and more products, while international trade ought to develop constantly. 49cf. The HJs assume that their role is to fully control any kind of production and trade, as well as to decide about every aspect of humans' lives. 49cg. However, they realize that some may not want to subordinate (submit) themselves to their leading role. 49ch. Such individuals may be a nuisance for the HJs. 49ci. For instance, entities that possess a variety of skills may tend to be self-sufficient and independent and may refuse to buy products which

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

stick to you for good.	(that) are being offered to them by the HJs. 49cj. They may want to trade in their own products. 49ck. HJs don't want it to happen. Such a situation would constitute a major obstacle for the concept of the development which (that) benefits the HJs. 49cl. The HJs by definition do not allow their rivals to enrich themselves. 49cm. For the HJs, the world which (that) surrounds them is a place which (that) should flourish with opportunities for them to get rich, become professionally successful, be awarded and become powerful. 49cn. It should also enable them to sell goods and services which (that) people purchase out of their own will, because they desire, need them or because they got accustomed to using them. 49co. That is why self-contained individuals are not good business partners for them. 49cp. You can't sell them a lot of things as they prefer to use the products which (that) they have developed and manufactured by themselves. 49cr. Such entities can even pose a considerable danger for the HJs. 49cs. For it may happen that the HJs have no other choice but to co-operate with such individuals. 49ct. If they couldn't find the way of suppressing them and making them completely dependent, instead of profiting from such collaboration, the HJs might run into serious trade deficit. 49cu. The most obvious way of eliminating such danger is getting rid of the inconvenient competitors. 49cv. However, in some cases, the realization of such an idea may not be advantageous for them. 49cw. So what can the HJs do, if despite all the precautionary measures, they are unable to subordinate someone to themselves and, at the same time, they have to co-operate with them? 49cx. They can conceal the maverick so carefully that the subversive individual does not cause any harm or pose any threat to their commonly recognized and accepted ideology.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020