12.9 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od: t, u, v, w, z
Część 8/9 Zdania 138a - 155cc – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
138a. Had you been aware of how they were going to westernize your nation, you would never have allowed those people to govern you and you would never have allowed such methods to be commonly used in your country in the first place.	138b. A lot of people in the West still feel happy because their right to consume has not yet been severely restricted due to economic hardships. 138ca. Many westerners would find it hard to live in the conditions you do. 138cb. This gives you an advantage over them since you are more resilient and persistent than they are.	138d. The drought in the western part of the tundra may force the animals that live there to move east in search for water. 138e. The fishermen decided to sail westwards to trawl for bigger fish.
139a. After the strenuous match the tennis players wetted (wet) their towels with cold water and cooled their sweating foreheads.	139b. As the explorers were treading a treacherous path across the wetland they carefully watched the ground in front of them since they didn't want to step on a frog, lizard or some other friendly, small animal. 139c. A thick wet suit will keep your body warm even in freezing water and will protect you from possible bites of leeches or crabs.	139d. It was obvious that Kirk had trodden into that muddy puddle because the legs of his jeans were wet and dirty as high as his knees.
	140a. Apparently whales have a very advanced system of sound communication within the group in which they function. 140ba. The whalers were beginning to feel a bit insecure. 140bb. They were suspecting that the conservationists were organizing themselves in a more systemic manner now. 140bc. It looked like they were going to reduce the profits from the whalers' lucrative business by treading on their heels and watching their every move more persistently than before. 140c. Once you know for sure that a company is engaged in illegal whaling you should discretely watch their employees to identify all the other entities which (that) abet them in their unlawful activities.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

141a. What does Olga mean by saying (that) the generation gap widens (is widening)?	141b. Did you measure the width of the plot?	141c. What if her ideas become widespread? 141d. Drivers want wider roads. 141e. "The widening gap between the fortunate entrepreneurs and those who (that) fail to obey the ruthless rules of competitiveness means that the rich will continue to become richer and richer and the poor will get poorer and poorer," the lecturer said and looked meaningfully at his students, most of whom came from poor families. 141fa. Eryka stared in wide-eyed surprise. The man was still standing there. 141fb. "Such an innocent-looking person can't possibly be so cruel and unsympathetic," the woman concluded. 141fc. This thought calmed her down.
142aa. Roman has lots of money and other wealth which (that) he has accumulated throughout his successful acting	142ba. There was a lot of commotion around Patricia. 142bb. It was hard to determine if her mind was in a whirl, though, since she behaved reasonably. 142ca. The caretaker

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

career so far. 142ab. Now new prospects of other extraordinary film roles have opened up for him. 142ac. Roman is convinced that the world of entertainment will continue to whirl around him and he will forever be one of its leading stars.	reminded the parents that someone should warn them and their sons and daughters. Getting into the whirlpools too quickly and carelessly could be very dangerous. 142cb. It was possible that some of the whirlpools were being specially arranged to test how eager the youngsters as well as their parents were to tread in uncertain waters. 142cc. The guide stressed that the situation had been changing constantly and was becoming even more insecure. 142cd. Therefore the parents and their children should behave in a very thoughtful manner. 142ce. Those who (that) intended to co-operate with the caretakers, despite the fact that they actually belonged to another faction, should know that it would be wiser for them if they did not step into the whirls which (that) even from a distance seemed potentially precarious to them. 142cf. The guides also expected that those who (that) decided to co-operate would use more agreeable ways to make themselves popular in the communities in which they ran their businesses and where they actively operated. 142cg. Additionally, they were to abandon the mean practices of spying, harassing and stealing other people's properties, for which they had been so notorious thus far. 142ch. The caretaker also reminded them that if they didn't restrain their activities which (that) could lead to the confrontation of powers in the environments in which they were operating, they would cause social unrests. 142ci. Then, as the persons who (that) caused the humanitarian crisis, they would bear all the consequences of their irrational behaviours (behaviors). 142da. Garry reflected on his life thus far and wondered if he still had a lot of choice. 142db. He didn't want to be sucked into one of the most treacherous whirlwinds by someone irresponsible, because he knew that once he found himself inside it, he would never get out of it. 142dc. He heard there were safer places and wondered how he could find himself in one of them. 142dd. He decided to check if there were such places nearby and investigate whether he could find shelter in one of them.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

143aa. Sometimes Mark's dog runs too far away from him when they are walking in the woods together. 143ab. Then Mark whistles and his faithful friend is soon by his side.	143ba. One of the runners must have been a bit too nervous because he started the race before he heard the whistle. 143bb. The umpire declared a false start and the contenders returned to their starting blocks. 143ca. The whistleblowers rightly predicted that the era of the whirls of parties was slowly coming to an end. 143cb. They concluded that they should reveal how a few crafty tribes managed to maintain their almost absolute power over many other nations by organizing different forms of entertainment for them. 143cc. They supposed that the nations which (that) were abused in such a manner would be grateful to them for learning the truth.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

144aa. When an elderly lady got out of her cottage after spending the whole weekend cleaning and tidying up the inside, she was a bit surprised. 144ab. The outside walls had been evidently whitewashed and they looked sparkling clean. 144ac. The woman wondered whether something was wrong with her memory. 144ad. At that particular moment she did not recall herself painting the external walls. 144ae. As she was feeding her hens and chickens, she thought she would probably soon remember what she had been doing before the weekend.	144ba. As you see, the wise men knew long ago that the entire system was slowly becoming a white elephant. 144bb. The only thing they lacked was a viable and feasible alternative scheme that would allow them to build a bulletproof fence separating them from the faulty system. 144ca. The white horses looked scary. 144cb. Eddy thought that actually he didn't have to charge them on his surfing board. 144cc. He could watch others surf against or along the huge waves and admire their extraordinary skills from the safety of his deckchair placed on a flat rock on the stony beach. 144da. Jimmy doesn't like when various parties accuse one another of whitewash after whitewash and he doesn't support or belong to any of them. 144db. He says he would like to be able to treat such scandals as mere theatrical performances which (that) he watches so that he can entertain himself. 144dc. Yet he knows it would	144fa. Valerie was going to visit her grandparents on the day when they were celebrating their wedding anniversary. 144fb. When she opened her wardrobe, the usual problem cropped up: which outfit to choose? 144fc. Then she decided that for such a special occasion a long, white frock she had got from her mother would be the most suitable thing to wear. 144ga. Mr. Cesner is a respected and responsible superior who (that) is committed to counteracting socially harmful white-collar crimes and cares about improving the public image of the firm over which he presides. 144gb. He cares a lot about the welfare of the people who (that) are employed by the company and the intact reputation of the firm. 144gc. During the board meeting he firmly stated that eliminating cronyism and corruption, which have been tainting their good name so badly, has become the company's top priority.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	be possible only if the fate of his compatriots and his own did not depend on the reckless, short-sighted and self-centered party leaders. 144dd. Such rulers govern the country in which they live as if they didn't think what the grim future may hold for her citizens. 144ea. The peaceful group that had their "Be Decent" camp on one side of the rapid torrent saw a white flag over one of the tents in the "Have Fun" camp that was on the other side of the waterway. 144eb. They thought it could be a positive sign. 144ec. It could mean that the aggressive individuals from the "Have Fun" camp, who had attempted to invade their settlement and cause serious damage to it several times, would now be controlled by more reasonable persons from within their ranks. 144ed. Yet remembering the attacks which (that) took place in the past, the members of the "Be Decent" camp were suspicious of the "Have Fun" campers. 144ee. They decided they would constantly watch the individuals from the "Have Fun" camp and properly protect their own territory so that they were not invaded again. 144ef. The white water rapids in the fast flowing torrent which (that) separated the two camps were helpful as they created natural obstacles. 144eg. Icy, cascading water was a stumbling block and it	144gd. The managers must do their utmost to effectively help the police forces and the law enforcement institutions to carry out successful investigations which (that) will allow to properly punish those who (that) have committed any offences. 144ge. It is the duty of everybody who (that) works for the company to inform the prosecutors about any irregularities in its functioning which (that) are the violation of the law. 144gf. Another responsibility of the employees is to provide the investigators with any evidence which (that) they are able to collect. 144gg. Now the main aim of the firm is to identify every corrupt person, prosecute them and, if they are found guilty, properly punish them and dismiss from their posts. 144gh. Then the crooks must be replaced by honest, experienced and competent people who (that) can be fully trusted and who (that) will never embarrass the firm because of their greed, immoral behaviours (behaviors) or the criminal record from their past activities.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	obviously discouraged the “Have Fun” campers from attempting to get to the other side and interfere in the affairs of the “Be Decent” campers.
	145aa. Is Stephanie going to take all these pairs of shoes with her on a week’s holiday? 145ab. She won’t squeeze the whole lot into just one suitcase, will she? 145b. What distinguishes the team’s plan is the wholeness of their approach to the complex matter. 145c. Wholefood is supposed to be produced in the most natural way, in the environment which (that) is not contaminated by industrial waste, fertilizers and pesticides. 145da. The efforts of the wholesale traders are being watched attentively. 145db. Everybody expects that the deal which (that) will be agreed upon will guarantee a hundred-per-cent realization of the assumed plan. 145dc. In order to secure the full success of the negotiations the most experienced and reliable experts have been chosen to take part in the talks. 145dd. The agreement should satisfy the interests of each group which (that) is participating in the process of reaching the multilateral compromise. 145de. Among other things, the representatives of the groups will be discussing the prices for the most often	145ea. “If I discretely sneak out of that mess now, I have a chance to avoid being held accountable for all the errors committed so far,” the minister calculated. 145eb. “While I am safe with my whole savings intact and secured in different banks, I will watch others being accused of ruining the country and failing the entire nation,” the man smiled to himself. 145ec. He thought he should do his best to save himself and the ones he loved. 145fa. “If you want to obtain the truly wholegrain bread you don’t waste any pieces of wheat, since even very small particles are important,” the baker explained. 145fb. “Those tiny parts can be responsible for the unique composition of the flour from which I make the bread,” he went on. 145fc. “If you want to get to know the recipe, watch me closely and note carefully how I achieve the special quality of my product,” the baker said raising his head from his workbench and looking some audience members straight into their eyes. 145g. The reporter asked what kind of research can

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	traded goods and services which (that) the agreement concerns.	confirm that the cereal which (that) the company advertises as wholemeal and thus wholesome actually improves the health of the consumers of their product. 145ha. Some may warn you that certain activities can be unwholesome. 145hb. Yet if you are an answer-seeker you can't care less about that. 145hc. You will do whatever it takes to investigate the matter if you see that your search can explain the mystery which (that) you want to resolve. 145ia. I wholly agree with you. It is your fault and no one else's. 145ib. You've made a series of unforgivable blunders and you are going to pay for them all. 145ic. First you allowed the thieves to get into your home and steal all your valuable possessions. 145id. Your second mistake was to allow the corrupt police officers to investigate the crime. 145ie. They were the cunning types so you can't prove they did anything incorrect. 145if. All you were left with is the fact that the evidence presented in court was insufficient to convict anybody. 145ig. Now it was really very easy to fool you again. 145ih. The robbers had the financial resources to pay the best lawyers and they effectively defended them in court. 145ii. You had your money stolen so you couldn't afford a good lawyer. 145ij. In court you realized how effective the barristers could be. They easily convinced the judges that their clients were innocent. 145ik. Now you neither have your money, nor have you proved the thieves their guilt. 145il. I hope that now at least you understand what you must and must not do in the future, so that you don't find yourselves in the same predicament again.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	146aa. The wilderness didn't seem to scare Alexander, which could mean that he had a shelter somewhere out there. 146ab. It is also possible that he accepted the rules applicable in the wildlife. 146ac. Some of those who (that) obeyed them survived for a certain period of time. 146ba. It hadn't rained for a long time and the danger of wildfire was very real. 146bb. The neighbours (neighbors) figured out that if they created a common unit in order to co-ordinate their efforts to protect their settlement against the destructive powers of nature, their chances of saving their livelihoods were much greater.	146ca. Look at the bees. They are collecting nectar from many plants in the meadow but they persistently avoid landing on those pretty looking wild flowers. 146cb. It would be worthwhile to investigate why. 146da. Some individuals wildly strive for fame, popularity, profitable careers or achieving extreme pleasures. 146db. Meanwhile, others choose the everyday hardship and would rather watch the fun-seekers and try to answer the question why they are so hungry for successes, entertainment and strong emotions in their lives.
147a. I will do it later.	147b. We need good will from both sides. 147c. Robert's willingness to apologize to you is obvious to	147e. When you are willing to compromise, contact us. 147f. I know people who (that) accept the successes me. 147da. At the time Kirk rightly reasoned that nobody would believe in such a story. 147db. What he was left with was his will power and determination to persistently realize his own projects.	of others unwillingly. 147g. Lisa unwillingly took her girlfriend's mobile (cell) phone.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

148a. If you are lucky to be able to act for the right causes you win every time you succeed in doing something positive. 148ba. The father loved his children and his wife very much but he also loved partying with his friends. 148bb. He often invited them to his home and demanded his wife prepare delicious meals for them. 148bc. While the host and his guests were eating, drinking, singing, dancing and enjoying themselves fantastically, the wife and children worried if there would be anything left for them to eat. 148bd. The children felt bitter since the father didn't care about their education or clothes and one day they told him they wouldn't tolerate his noisy friends in their home any more. 148be. It suddenly dawned on the father that what he had been doing to his own	148ca. Every win teaches you which shortcomings of your opponents led them to their failure in the confrontation with you. 148cb. Yet if the contenders is a team of extremely experienced fighters who (that) hate losing, you need to be on constant alert and you have to perfect your skills continuously. 148cc. When you play against them next time, you'd better be prepared for the fact that they will not commit the errors which (that) cost them the lost match with you again. 148da. "As a lottery winner Mick has a lot of money now," Matt pondered. 148db. "I can't allow him to forget about me, his investment advisor, particularly now, when being a broker no longer means that you always earn a lot. 148dc. When he visits me, everything must be arranged the way it suits his taste. 148dd. Fortunately I have studied him thoroughly enough and I know his likes and dislikes. 148de. I will give him a state-of-the-art camera as a present and we will go on a safari together. 148df. He should be happy to be able to film the wildlife all family was very wrong. 148bf. Now he wondered what he should do to win their trust back.	by himself. 148dg. When we relax together after a fantastic day, I will talk with him sincerely about my financial problems. 148dh. Perhaps he will be willing to share some of his wealth with me and will help me out?”

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

149a. How many times did you rewind the film (movie)? 149b. Wind the thread on the reel. 149ca. “It may have been too early to unwind the bandages,” said one of the fellow soldiers when they visited their injured comrade in the hospital. 149cb. Their friend’s wounds were not healed completely yet.	149d. North (Northern) winds are usually cold. 149ea. “I know who else doesn’t like this wind farm and I can arrange a rally against its existence,” an opposition party activist told the foreign correspondent. 149eb. “You can come with your cameramen and broadcast the rally live to show people all over the world that the rights of the opponents of that controversial governmental investment are not being respected.” 149ec. The man leaned forward and now whispered into the correspondent’s ear in a confidential manner: 149ed. “The publicity which (that) I will gain thanks to you will help me attract more supporters. People will vote for me and I will become the local governor. 149ee. Then the investors from your country who (that) want to set up their firms in the region can apply to me and I will give them my permission to build their plants. 149ef. The locals expect the authorities to create new jobs for them,” the activist summed up his statement and blinked his left eye at	149j. We didn’t sail because the day was windless. 149k. Teresa loves driving along winding, mountainous roads. 149l. Is it going to be windy tomorrow? (Will it be windy tomorrow?) 149ma. Few trees grew in the vast, windswept countryside. 149mb. Yet despite the adversities the unfavourable (unfavorable) weather conditions created, various tiny but sturdy plants grew well.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	the correspondent. 149fa. The farmer from the village says that the old recluse who (that) lives in the windmill up the field has strange views concerning social life. 149fb. He apparently claims that people value the right to freely express their opinions more than many other things. 149fc. If they suspect that the state officials would deploy special riot police squads to crack down on those who (that) openly criticize the currently existing system of governance and the authorities, people are unlikely to vote for them in the legal elections. 149ga. All the seven siblings were great fans of windsurfing. 149gb. They were reasonable and they wanted to learn to surf in the proper way. 149gc. Finally they found the reliable and competent instructors. 149gd. The siblings explained to them that they were unlucky because their previous coaches had taught them all sorts of wrong techniques. 149ge. As a result of such training sessions, they had got accustomed to using numerous weird, incorrect tricks and they applied completely wrong skills. 149gf. Because of that, they were unable to learn to windsurf correctly. 149gg. At the beginning, their new, reliable and responsible coaches agreed to watch the siblings as they were trying to windsurf, in order to spot the mistakes they were making. 149gh. After the observations, the tutors clearly pointed out which movements and maneuvers in the siblings' performances were incorrect and why they hampered their chances to make the proper progress in their learning. 149gi. The instructors even suggested how their would-be students could teach themselves out of the wrong habits and tricks. 149gj. Now the brothers and sisters knew which mistakes in their windsurfing techniques they were to eliminate. 149gk. The new teachers told them that when the siblings stop making errors, it was possible that they would be allowed to attend a course which (that) would teach them how to windsurf correctly. 149ha. What happened when a piece of biscuit got stuck in the woman's windpipe and she started to choke? 149hb. Did she manage to cough the bit out and breathe normally again? 149ia. After the windscreen of the driver's car had broken into small pieces he stopped at the nearest garage by the road. 149ib. "It was prudent that you didn't continue your perilous journey," the mechanic told him. 149ic. If I were you, I wouldn't ride in that direction in a car without a windscreen either. The weather is just terrible.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	149id. Heavy rain, visibility almost zero and the strong wind blowing straight into your face would make your travel unbearable," the man stated calmly and nodded understandably.
150aa. Some strange substance must have been in the air because James began to cry involuntarily. 150ab. He wanted to wipe (wipe away) the tears dripping down his cheeks so he asked if anybody in the compartment in which he was travelling (traveling) could give him a handkerchief or paper tissue. 150ba. Despite their efforts, the medical experts have not succeeded in wiping the precarious disease off the face of the planet. 150bb. They say that the key to protecting yourself from it is your immune system. 150bc. If you know what you must and mustn't do in order not to fall ill, just comply with the safety standards. 150bd. Then you won't have to worry that you will become infected. 150ca. Although the plant was causing Martha a lot of trouble, she didn't want to	150d. Only a few drops of rain fell onto the windscreen and the water quickly evaporated so Andy didn't need to turn on the wipers. 150ea. As far as I know Marlon always has wipes with him, particularly when he is travelling (traveling). 150eb. They are very useful when he wants to clean his face and hands after having a meal or filling the tank in his car.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

wipe it out of her garden. 150cb. The girl wondered if she was dealing with a weed because the plant was proliferating rapidly. 150cc. Martha soon noticed that other plants in her garden were gradually disappearing since they were being eliminated and replaced by that much more robust species. 150cd. To keep the plant and at the same time save other species, Martha divided her garden into many flowerbeds. 150ce. She separated them from one another with low, hermetic fences placed in the ground at the right depth. 150cf. Such barriers prevented the roots of the particularly aggressive type from getting to the other side and stealthily invading the territories which (that) were reserved for some other kinds.
151aa. Claire is looking forward to being wired up to the electricity supply grid. 151ab. Now she lives in a farm house in a remote place and she would like to be able to communicate freely and use all	151ba. “I see that you’ve brought some water and something to eat for the prisoners,” one of the guards greeted an activist of a charitable organization. 151bb. “The food looks delicious,” he added. 151bc. “Carry it to that hut surrounded by the thick net of	151fa. Bernard knew the new network had at least one the same quality as the one he heard about in the past. 151fb. Once wired, he and his entire family would never get themselves disconnected from it and all their secrets would be the electrical and electronic devices which (that) she has installed there.	barbed wire. 151bd. My sincere advice – don't touch it because you can experience something unpleasant. 151be. Stand in front of the door and say loudly what you have for the prisoners. They will tell you where you should leave the stuff. 151bf. Don't make any rapid movements or do something silly because we are watching you all the time," the guard instructed the activist. 151c. In case direct contact with the sick people who (that) are on the ship is forbidden altogether, using wireless seems to be a relatively safe way to communicate with them. 151da. The shareholders of the venture were discussing some of the suggestions put forward by the manager of the computerized centre (center). 151db. One of the issues concerned the engineers who (that) had designed the wiring and put it in place within the premises of the centre (center). 151dc. It was suggested that if they continued to accurately obey their standard, professional code of conduct, which was well known to them, they could be hired to work for the firm. 151dd. Under the strict supervision of the senior personnel of the centre they could carry out the maintenance jobs, necessary for the correct functioning of the equipment, as well as conduct any indispensable	public knowledge from then on.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	repairs. 151de. They would not be allowed to replace the obsolete elements with the new ones which function well and absolutely correctly, since such jobs could only be performed by the most experienced, senior managers of the firm. 151ea. If you know that wiretapping is commonplace, you also know that your opponents will never wipe out what they've once done. 151eb. They have been eavesdropped on, so both their supporters and opponents know what they have accomplished.
	152a. When two sides of the triangle have already been drawn, not much wisdom is needed to figure out what exactly the third side looks like and how long it is. 152ba. Tony's mother hopes that when his last wisdom tooth comes out Tony will be calmer. 152bb. She suspects the gum tickles and hurts him and that's why the teenager is irritated at times.	152ca. Some were wise after the event. 152cb. They soon understood that the foreign and domestic expansionists had blinded the nation with their vows. 152cc. The reasonably thinking people comprehended that the clever crooks were promising investments and were lulling the nation with their plans of economic development as well as the prospects of a better life for ordinary people only to gain popularity and public support and create convenient conditions for themselves to seize everything that had any value in the country. 152cd. Now those who (that) realized they had been fooled were considering how they could save their nation and the country from deceitful con men. 152ce. Others were none the wiser. 152cf. They passively allowed to be exploited by the faithful guardians of the oppressive system, because they concluded that it was advantageous for them. 152cg. They obediently accepted their life in the world built on two illusory notions. 152ch. The rulers made promises which (that) were never to be fulfilled and those who (that) profited from manufacturing and trading in goods were constantly kindling (fanning the flames of) consumers' desires and ostentatiously demonstrated that they were able to satisfy them. 152ci. The supporters of the regime mindlessly succumbed to the deceitful commercials and illusory propaganda of success promising careers from-rags-to-riches. 152cj. They flocked to the supermarkets full of colourful (colorful) packages which (that) seemed to be shouting: "Buy me and find out how much you can gain by using what is inside." 152ck. They powerlessly yielded to psychological manipulations. 152cl. They let others steer them and allowed to be abused by the perfectly organized mafia which

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

		(that) consisted of the governing class, entrepreneurs and church officials that collaborated closely with one another to maintain the arrangement which (that) was extremely beneficial for them. 152cm. In this regime, ordinary people were reduced to the roles of slaves and servants and were traded like any other commodities. 152cn. The system favoured (favored) those who (that) were successful and thanks to publicity were becoming popular, rich and influential. 152co. The persons who (that) were obedient to the regime were offered mafia-like privileges. They could do whatever they whished with their property. 152cp. There were, however, also the rules of law. 152cr. Therefore, the subjects of the regime knew they had to be careful. 152cs. If they were proven that they were doing things which (that) were against the law, they could be sentenced by court. 152da. It's unwise to ignore a prolonged tickle in your throat. 152db. This might signal the beginning of a serious inflammation, mightn't it?
153aa. The Bargains wished they had not produced so much waste. 153ab. One of their	153ba. "Will you please take a look at our wish list?" the human rights activist of international renown turned to the representative of the	153ea. "If you put too much trust in your wishful thinking, you can be in for a great disappointment," Carlos thought when on compliant acquaintances suggested what they could do about it. 153ac. While the foresters were busy putting out the fire in one end of the forest and everybody's attention was focused on them, the Bargains could take their garbage to the other corner of the woods and leave it there. 153ad. Mr. And Mrs. Bargains looked at the man with disbelief and contempt. 153ae. "How dare you insinuate that we would come up with an idea of doing something as reckless as this," Mr. Bargain said with a stern expression on his face.	country which (that) had been colonized by a certain empire. 153bb. "In our view your people should be sincerely warned," the activist stated and handed the representative of the nation a sheet of paper with the printed text. 153bc. "They should clearly realize that supporting and collaborating with the occupiers is in the long term very harmful to them and for that reason is against their personal interests," the activist added. 153ca. The faultlessly organized internal security system at the depot compound functioned perfectly. 153cb. The thieves who (that) were running away with the container in which the highly radioactive material was stored, were spotted and recorded by the CCTV camera system when they were crossing one of the back gates of the depot. 153cc. The depot guards had no wish to make any mistakes. 153cd. They didn't want to risk chasing the criminals alone either. 153ce. The robbers could be armed and their accomplices with weapons could be hiding nearby. 153cf. Therefore the security staff immediately reported the crime to the local police commander. 153cg. He notified his superiors and an extensive search action was launched	entering his dormitory room he saw that his model ship had been completely dismantled and its most vital pieces were missing. 153eb. Next to what was left of his ship there still lay the note he had written before he went to his home town to visit his parents at the weekend: 153ec. "Pals, please don't tinker with the model I am assembling – your faithful friend, Carlos."

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	instantly. 153ch. Many checkpoints were set up along each of the roads. 153ci. Well equipped patrols were sent to search the surrounding area and, additionally, the terrain was closely monitored from air and land. 153cj. The thieves were quickly localized and from that moment on their each movement was monitored and recorded. 153ck. It was important to trace the route the container was travelling (traveling) and collect and secure all the fingerprints and other evidence concerning the case. 153cl. The aim of the operation was to identify all the individuals who (that) were in any way involved in the theft. 153cm. It was important to learn everything about those who (that) had most probably commissioned the theft, about the middle men hired to trade in the loot later on, and about those who (that) were interested in purchasing the stolen stuff in order to obtain personal gains and achieve their own goals. 153da. “You can’t build your career on wishfulness (wishful desires),” the film producer told the director. 153db. “Face up to the facts. Your wishes have not come true as yet and the box office figures are very poor,” he concluded.
154aa. You are very	154ba. „Eva is not here and	154c. Laura is an incredibly

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

lucky if you know what kind of behaviours (behaviors) you can expect from your counterparts working for the rival company. 154ab. If you think hard you might figure out how to outwit them so that they don't eliminate you completely from the global market.	we are playing with her doll, without her permission," Lesio said to the other participants of the game. 154bb. "The doll's dress has become terribly dirty!" Donna noticed. 154bc. "We should use our wit and do something about it," Lucek stated. 154bd. "Let's take off the dirty dress and put on the pretty, clean, red one," Kate suggested. 154be. "I have a brilliant idea! We'll throw the dirty dress into Eva's laundry basket," another partaker proposed.	witty and intelligent talker and her clever reposts are very accurate and informative. 154da. The investigators had to base their assessments of the actions of the managers of the Human Resources departments solely on the actual, obvious and visible to everyone effects of those performances. 154db. It did not matter whether the managers made their decisions wittingly or unwittingly. 154ea. Now at least Larry knew that the era of complete impunity was over. 154eb. Some even felt sorry for him since they understood that he became an unwitting victim of his own gullibility. 154ec. However, as Larry is not able to erase the facts which (that) have taken place, he must be prepared to pay the price adequate to the weight of the errors he has made. 154fa. Witless children's TV programmes (programs) are particularly harmful. 154fb. Kids who (that) watch them may be misled. 154fc. When on the TV screen they are watching stupid characters in some cartoons, they may conclude that since they are already a lot more clever than the protagonists from the films, there is no point in taking the pains and studying constantly in order to know more and acquire more skills.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	155aa. The illustrator was commissioned by a popular fairy tale author to create several characters for the writer's latest story, among which was a wicked witch. 155ab. He drew a number of images of a scary-looking female figure but he didn't know which looked the most frightening. 155ac. He took his pictures to the kindergarten and asked the children which of his witches impressed them (the) most. 155ba. The local people had a lot of trust in their witch doctor. 155bb. Those who (that) were treated by the wise old man with long white hair and a beard said that the magic rituals he was performing cured their souls and as a result they felt physically healthy as well. 155ca. Some allege that the controversial designer of gloves and hats has fallen victim to a witch-hunt. 155cb. The woman, however, says that she has never felt persecuted for expressing her own opinions. 155cc. She denies that presumably a hate campaign has been carried out against her.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020