12.7 Zdania z wyrazami zaczynającymi się od r
Część 1/3 Zdania 1a - 44e – klucz

Uwaga: Poniższe angielskie zdania nie zawsze są jedynymi możliwymi tłumaczeniami polskich zdań z ćwiczeń. W nawiasach umieściliśmy alternatywne słowa lub amerykańskie odpowiedniki brytyjskich słów.

Ćwiczenie 1/1

zdania z czasownikami	zdania z rzeczownikami	zdania z przymiotnikami lub przysłówkami
1a. Matylda often races with herself and with time.	1b. Patrick's motorcycle (motorbike) broke down and he couldn't complete (finish) the race. 1c. I didn't see the woman so I don't know which race she belongs to. 1d. How do you know that Sebastian is a racist? 1e. Racism means hatred for (towards) people of different races. 1f. The racer is recuperating after an exhausting run. 1g. They say they will resume the race as soon as the racetrack is thoroughly re-examined. 1h. We've been noticing rapid growth in popularity of all sorts of racings in recent years. 1i. How fast (quickly) does this racing car (race car) reach the speed of 100 kph?	1j. They should be put in prison for the racist attacks. 1k. Are racial differences between people really so (that) important?
2a. What revelations have they revealed about this mysterious material that radiates heat after absorbing energy which (that) the sun rays contain?	2b. The scientist reaffirms that this kind of radiation is particularly harmful and even very small doses can damage healthy cells. 2c. If you put your damp robe on the radiator it will dry quickly. 2d. Their opponents may have been blinded by the radiance of their shining armour (armor) and that's why they retreated.	2e. The robust rancher was radiant with joy when he was watching his mares playing with their foals.
3a. According to the rumours (rumors), the minister wants to	3b. Was the seller of radishes and raspberries he grew in his garden accused	3c. Introducing radar controls has brought radical improvement in radicalize the measures to tackle fixed public work contracts.	of political radicalism?	safety standards on our roads.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

4a. If somebody recorded the message the outcast had radioed from the desert island to the passing ship they can replay it.	4b. The warning to avoid wild rabbits due to the danger of contracting rabies will be reiterated on the radio throughout the day. 4c. To protect the area from the influence of harmful radioactivity, the architects will have to redesign and rebuild the city. 4d. Nowadays experts in radiology know a lot more about this kind of radiation. 4e. Mark has studied radiography and he knows how to interpret X-ray photographs. 4f. Wasn't administering radiotherapy a reckless decision in that case?	4g. Wisely used, radioactive materials can prove to be very advantageous.
5a. If you know that your place may be unexpectedly raided at any given moment, you have to be on constant alert and have your shield ready to cover your head.	5b. The police spokesperson refrained from commenting on the results of the raid on the rye bread bakery. 5c. The lady says the men were charming and reassured her they intended to replenish her water and food supply so she didn't take them for raiders.
6a. Let's rethink what the producers who (that) have been railing against discriminatory treatment from the tax authorities have achieved so far.	6b. While you are washing the floor, you can hang the rug on the rail. 6c. The railing around the reservoir blocks the reindeer that (which) roam the area access to water. 6d. Which companies will participate in the redevelopment of the railroad (railway) system in the region? 6e. The daily routine includes checking the functioning of the barriers at every railroad (level) crossing.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

7a. It was going to rain so the roof over the stadium was closed.	7b. Venessa does rigorous exercises rain or shine (come rain, come shine). 7c. Leopold looked at the beautiful rainbow in the navy-blue sky and for a moment didn't think about the need to reorganize and reshuffle the current cabinet. 7d. The rescuers had raincoats for the drenched victims of the torrential rain and flood. 7e. The photo of a leaf covered with raindrops reappeared on our computer screen. 7f. The chart compares average annual rainfall in the area in the last twenty years. 7g. In retrospect, allowing the destruction of the rainforests, the lungs of the earth, could be an irredeemable mistake.	7h. Chris says he will keep what he's managed to rescue for a rainy day.
8a. Had your son been raised on a farm in a remote, rural area, he would have understood what rigour (rigor) and hard work mean. 8b. The minister will not only raise the issue of dwindling state revenues but he will also present the program how to save the country's finances.	8c. The consciousness raising campaign can be reinforced by examples of unruffled indifference of the haves towards the have-nots. 8d. They want to redecorate their palace so they are trying to encourage the celebrity to serve them as a bait and become the fund-raiser for that purpose.	8e. Those who have found themselves on the raised platform should know how to regain public trust.
9a. If you randomized the selection process and analyzed the methods solely on their merits, you would choose the most effective one and not the one offered by your	9b. First the artist put the items he intended to paint in his next still life at random and then rearranged them so that they looked more harmonious together. 9c. Random access memory (RAM) allows very quick	9d. They seem to have conducted only random assessments of which equipment was reusable.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

cronies.	access to the data stored in it.
10a. With their experts' opinions ranging from the far right to the far left it was impossible to find common ground and render a solution which (that) would satisfy all the sides.	10b. Is the ransom demanded by the ruthless kidnappers within the range of financial capabilities of the family of the abducted child? 10c. Fortunately, the park rangers noticed the rattle snake and kept a safe distance from it.
11a. Tim claims he would have ranked higher in the tournament, had he played with a different tennis racket (racquet). (Tim claims he would have ranked higher in the tournament, if he had played with a different tennis racket (racquet).)	11b. In Zosia's opinion, it's reprehensible (that) the persons of high social rank she has met are so terribly conceited. 11c. Will Stanley manage to retain his very high world ranking in the sport? 11d. The highest-ranking officer ordered to redistribute the goods among the rank and file of his army.	11e. You wouldn't expect recklessness from a top-ranking player, would you?
	12a. As a rarity, the reptile will be closely monitored and the role it plays in the local habitat will be revalued.	12b. Reprimands and reproaches will be rare once everybody understands how important the discipline and obedience of those who (that) found themselves on the raft are. 12c. Rarely has the issue of the restitution of the stolen properties to their rightful owners aroused so much public attention.
13a. How do you rate John's chances for victory in the elections? 13b. Didn't we underrate Mariusz's qualifications? 13c. You didn't sell the house because you overrated the financial capabilities of the buyer.	13d. Did you check the exchange rates for these currencies? 13e. High position of such programmes (programs) in the rating reasserts us that their brainwashing campaign has been a stunning success.	13f. The value of the house is overrated. 13g. The businessman bought the real estate at an underrated price.
14a. If the politician	14b. Does the ratification of	14c. The ratified accord

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

ratifies the agreement, his approval rating may plummet (plunge).	the treaty mean that the refugees can safely return to their homeland now?	states that the revaluation of the common currency may be reconsidered.
15a. The unwelcome rascals may be more willing to leave your house once they realize that the goods which (that) used to be rationed to them are now completely unavailable.	15b. This weekly ration of raw vegetables should provide your body with enough vitamins and minerals. 15c. The question remains whether people will accept the fact that rationing everything is the only option left.
16a. Don't rationalize your mistakes, but draw conclusions so that you don't make them again.	16b. Is further rationalization of our production possible? 16c. What rationale does Peter base his theory on? (On what rationale does Peter base his theory?) 16d. A rationalist wouldn't expect our enemies to give up so easily. 16e. Rationalism can mean that you decide what is true through intellectual, deductive processes, not by means of sheer sensory perception or a religious belief.	16f. Think rationally, you aren't rich so they have no reason to kidnap (abduct) you. 16g. How will you explain your irrational behaviour (behavior)? 16h. We have to work out a more rationalistic way of getting out of troubles (problems).
17a. The residents of the villages which (that) have been razed to the ground due (owing) to the earthquake need to cope with the new, tough reality.	17b. In those days barbers used to sharpen razors by rubbing them against leather belts. 17c. If you haven't got scissors you can cut the ribbon with this razor blade.	17d. An unruly roommate with a razor-sharp mind can be a nuisance.
18a. Anna says that very few people reach the highest level of objectivity, which allows them to formulate impartial evaluations of a given situation.	18b. Getting the job is still within Matt's reach, provided (providing) he successfully completes additional courses and reapplies for it, in the due time.	18c. If the storage facilities are easily reachable, raccoons and other intelligent animals, like rats, are bound to treat them as their feeding ground.
19a. You shouldn't have reacted so violently.	19b. Few (people) expected such a reaction from the stock exchange investors. 19c. Will the Chinese build	19e. Not all the substances used by us are so (as) easily reactive as this one.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	another (other) nuclear reactors? 19d. What exactly are the opinions of this reactionary?	19f. I don't think (believe) (that) your father has reactionary opinions about marriage.
20a. Observe your employer's behaviour and analyze the methods he uses to reign and you will soon read him like a book.	20b. The censor abstained from declaring that the book was a gripping read. 20c. As an avid reader Kate would rather buy a novel than a new T-shirt. 20d. Rave reviews would attract a much wider readership. 20e. The rhymes make for very instructive reading. 20f. I reckon Bert has checked that the read-only memory (ROM) is free of any viruses.	20g. A well read person is more likely to accept the fact that the system needs to be constantly reappraised (reassessed). 20h. If the instructions aren't easily readable for a layman in the field, Leon will have to rewrite them. 20i. The documents taken out of the rain-soaked rucksack are unreadable. 20j. The editor reproached the reporter for the fact that his stories are often unread, presumably because they deal with too serious problems.
21a. How is Rob readying himself for the walk along the rugged (ragged) rocky peaks of that mountain range?	21b. Norris has declared his readiness to reap the harvest from his fields.	21c. They have extensive knowledge and experience in performing any sort of remakes so they must be getting ready for another one. 21d. Before he resigned, Frank had been revered by his colleagues, because he'd had an answer readily available to any query. 21e. Barbara couldn't spare a minute to eat her dinner so she put the ready-made rice with meatballs and sauce she'd bought at the supermarket to the refrigerator (fridge). 21f. Their ready-to-wear outfits are renowned for worked out patterns and that's why their clothes fit so well.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

22a. If you had reasoned with her, she'd have accepted (agreed to) our proposition.	22b. I don't see any mistake (error) in Danuta's reasoning. 22c. We still don't know the official reason for the Police Commander's dismissal.	22d. Your arguments aren't reasonable enough to persuade me. 22e. Halina made the decision unreasonably quickly (fast). 22f. Only reasoned arguments will be taken into consideration when the issue of resettlement is debated. 22g. According to the new arbiter, the demands made by the representatives of the cruel regime are unreasoning.
23a. They don't realize the scale of the problem.	23b. The realization of Konstancja's dreams may mean for her many years of hard work. (The realization of Konstancja's dreams may mean many years of hard work for her.) 23c. If you're a realist you understand that you sometimes need to compromise. 23d. In reality, controlling emotions is possible. 23e. If you make a mistake while playing the game on a simulator in real time, you can reset the device and have a rerun. 23f. The racketeer claims he is well connected and can easily repossess any real estate.	23g. How real is the danger of the eruption of the volcano? 23h. Thinking realistically, they won't finish building the bridge by Easter. 23i. Is creating a hybrid of a human and animal realizable in this decade? 23j. Although (Though) it seemed unrealistic, Sabina managed to achieve her goal. 23k. What is unreal today may (can) turn out real in the future.
24a. Could Eva's son have become a warrior if he was reared to become a TV star? 24b. Hadn't Philip suddenly applied the brakes, the driver in the car behind wouldn't have rear-ended him.	24c. What will the Minister of Agriculture tell the participants of the rally who (that) complain that rearing livestock has become unprofitable 24d. The witness says he couldn't recognize the man carrying the rake as he only	24f. "There are still a few seats left in the rear part of the coach," the driver said rudely. 24g. The spider was moving slowly because one of its rearmost legs was missing.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

(If Philip hadn't suddenly applied the brakes, the driver in the car behind wouldn't have rear-ended him.) (Unless Philip had suddenly applied the brakes, the driver in the car behind wouldn't have rear-ended him.)	saw his rear. 24e. We were startled by an air-splitting roar and in the rear-view mirrors we saw a huge truck.
25a. What do the students rebel against? (Against what do the students rebel?)	25b. What forces did they use to suppress the rebellion? 25c. The rebel was punished to serve as a discouraging example for others.	25d. Many young people have rebellious attitude to (towards) the reality they live in. (Many young people have rebellious attitude to (towards) the reality in which they live.) 25e. I wonder which of these rebellious factions will win.
26a. I still haven't received an answer from you.	26b. You probably put the receipt into the bottom drawer. 26c. Everybody (Everyone) listened to the words of the recipient of the award with attention. 26d. The owner says none of his employees will be made redundant if the company's receivables are soon paid to him. 26e. Jola's received pronunciation (RP) was irreproachable but she was caustically rebuked for not singing to the right rhythm. 26f. Because our suppliers want to maintain good rapport with us, they are willing to reassemble the receiver so that we can reuse it. 26g. Did you know that Darren, who is known to the police as a receiver, a person who buys or accepts stolen goods, has been appointed by the court	26h. Our professor is valued for his received experience. 26i. "The received wisdom states that you reap what you sow," said the farmer when he restarted his old tractor after repairing and refueling it.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	of law as an official receiver and is now in charge of "Wirenet", the company which (that) has become totally insolvent?
27a. I don't (can't) recognize Edward. He's changed so much recently (lately).	27b. A certain superpower won't like our recognition of this state (country).	27c. His style of playing the cello is easily recognizable. 27d. This handwriting is unrecognizable. 27e. The unrecognized carriers of the insidious disease must undergo constant tests which (that) enable to spot the recurrence of the known symptoms.
	28a. Was the statement made by the theatre director that they weren't going to include the play in their repertoire met with a cold or warm reception from the journalists? 28b. The receptionist redialed the technician's phone number and reminded him that the revolving door had to be fixed immediately. 28c. Your opponents' receptiveness (receptivity) to new ideas can be an indicator for you of whether they are likely to readjust to the changing environment or not.	28d. Almost everybody has accepted the reforestation project but what about the small minority who (that) haven't been receptive to the scheme?
29a. The swans recessed into the bank of the river and hid among the reeds and rush.	29b. If economists hadn't invented the theories praising the benefits of economic growth, we wouldn't have to grapple with the negative social consequences of subsequent (consecutive) recessions. (Hadn't economists invented the theories praising the benefits of economic growth, we wouldn't have to grapple	29d. Simon might say that giving up city life, buying a neglected farm and beginning to grow and breed his own food was his recessionary career strategy.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	with the negative social consequences of subsequent (consecutive) recessions.) (Unless economists had invented the theories praising the benefits of economic growth, we wouldn't have to grapple with the negative social consequences of subsequent (consecutive) recessions.) 29c. After a two-day recess there is hope for the resumption of the talks.
30a. They did me a small favour (favor), I felt obliged so I reciprocated, yet from then on they've been persecuting me. Is that fair?	30b. Beware of those who unscrupulously abuse the rule of reciprocity. 30c. It seems the negotiations have entered the stage of reciprocation: one side is expected to give something so that it can hope that it will be able to get something else in return.	30d. Thanks to the reciprocal arrangement between the two schools, we will now be able to apply the methods which (that) we've learned by attending the classes organized by our counterparts from the other university.
31a. How did the novice feel when the audience were leaving the room when he was reciting the piece of literature?	31b. The rituals include recitations from the textbooks presenting the rudiments of the ideology. 31c. Will the girl in ragged clothes be given a fabulous dress before her public recital?
32a. Do they really recycle the batteries (that) I leave here?	32b. Some say (claim) that recycling should be more profitable.	32c. If we want to survive, we must return to using only recyclable products. 32d. We make the bags from recycled paper. 32e. The rubbish may contain some non-recyclable items.
33a. I don't recall saying something (anything) like that. 33b. Those rayon blouses were recalled from the stores as they were of very poor quality.	33c. Wanda's recollections of the celebration are completely different. 33d. We admire Eva's powers of recall.	33e. The quotation Alexander recalled fitted the situation ideally.

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

34a. When you recover, we'll go on a trip to Paris together.	34b. I wouldn't count on a quick (fast) recovery.	34c. The money (that/which) we put into that unsuccessful film (movie) is unrecoverable. 34d. The manager is fully recovered so there is no need to reschedule the meeting for next month. 34e. The data stored on the damaged hard disk is recoverable but the disk itself can't be regenerated. 34f. In the past this kind of impairment led to irrecoverable loss of hearing.
35a. I still don't understand why Ala recommended me that psychiatrist.	35b. With such recommendations from your (the) previous employer we'll certainly hire (employ) you.	35c. The recommended hotel disappointed Paul.
36a. Is Nigel's decision to reconcile with his bed-ridden mother-in-law irrevocable?	36b. The rhetoric of reconciliation is likely to resurface systematically during the future peace talks.	36c. Roman says the disagreement is reconcilable and there is a chance the couple will reunite. 36d. How can Cecylia prove that the ruling to release the prisoner is irreconcilable with common sense?
37a. Did the investigators reconstruct every detail of the event in which the archives of the institute had been ransacked?	37b. There is no room for hesitation when the reconstruction of the coral reefs damaged by the sea water pollution is at stake, is there?	37c. This fantastic technology allows surgeons to perform a reconstructive surgery of human retina. 37d. Are they stubbornly sticking to their unreconstructed behaviour (behavior) while they are being offered a chance of reunion?
38a. Do you know that they secretly recorded all her conversations?	38b. We had a lot of fun listening to the old recordings of our children. 38c. I wonder how many records the athletes will break during the next	38g. The recorded incident shows two youths who went on the rampage in (on) the high street last night. 38h. How did the police

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	Olympic Games (Olympics). 38d. The reporter got (became) furious when he realized (that) his recorder didn't work. 38e. The record breaker relished his moment of success for a few seconds and started to row his canoe again. 38f. The regional record holder announced he would resolutely pursue his sporting career.	refute the suggestion that some crimes are unrecorded?
39a. Rudimentary knowledge may not suffice to recreate the first rocket that was sent to the outer space.	39b. Reclining in an armchair is a form of recreation, but physical activity is a lot better. 39c. They asked the keeper of their former recreation ground how he was going to help them to refinance their debts.	39d. The entrepreneur's recreational facilities could be requisitioned and he himself would be resettled, but only if he didn't fully recompense all the victims of his treacherous business for the suffering they'd gone through.
40a. With unemployment rampant, many well educated young people would love to be recruited by security services.	40b. You can send your raw recruits to make inroads into the market of your competitor and in this way you can test the capabilities of your new employees. 40c. Strangely enough, during the recruitment procedure John was asked if he had been reborn and reincarnated.
41a. The evening sky reddened and the storm was now raging far away, to the south.	41b. He had got a red card for breaking almost every rule of fair play, so guess why instead of reprisal for his misbehaviour (misbehavior) he was given the red carpet treatment? 41c. Let's ask the redhead whether the road sign shows the right direction. 41d. The rude, red-faced man says that when he saw the red flag he knew he had to pretend to be receding	41i. You may rinse the salt but it will still be reddish since it contains the minerals that give it this particular hue. 41j. Are the criminals who were seeking revenge for being caught red-handed allowed to participate in roadworks?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

	and patiently wait for the moment when the fruit ripen and are ready to be picked. 41e. They are very competent in seducing you with their red herrings but think twice before you take a seat on their rickety chair as it is about to fall apart. 41f. May the rash on Rick's wrist result from the fact that yesterday he ate roasted red meat? 41g. Red pepper will add colour (color) and flavour (flavor) to the salad. 41h. Red tape remotely resembles hyenas that (which) are circling around an unlucky wretch in hope to have a bite the moment he is unable to stand up to them.
42a. Frank reduced the amount of carbohydrates he consumed by half.	42b. We can't count on the reduction in the number of people with cancer.	42c. This long formula is reducible.
43a. Did the official refer to the allegations of the practices of extortion rackets?	43b. Did the ornithologist make any reference to what might happen to those rare birds if the land was reclaimed by the swamp? 43c. The official reiterated the known clichés from their reference book that once you engage in any sort of co-operation with them you have no other choice, except pay for your mistakes. If you happen not to make any, you will be framed, as their code rules out an eventuality of you being innocent and them admitting to their fault. 43d. It's essential to have a reference point which (that) sets a standard by which various cases can be judged and compared. 43e. Does the fact that the referee has won renown as a fair judge mean that we can’t even remotely suggest (that) he can be wrong?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020

44a. Run them ragged and they will refine their skills and gain the crowd’s support.	44b. Apparently the author is working on the refinement of his writing style. 44c. There used to be sea here but land reclamation that took place several years ago allowed the company to build a refinery here.	44d. Some say refined sugar is depleted of vitamins and minerals, others maintain natural sweeteners, like fruit juice, are better for our health. 44e. Does the fact that a critic tells you that you have unrefined taste in music change your likes and dislikes?

Copyright by ADL Publishing Elżbieta Żółtak 2020